Carolyn's Critique

Wild Orchid 'R'; Starring Mickey Rourke
Rating; 0 poor10 excellent

This very unusual love story is not for the faint-of-heart. Set against the backdrop of lush and exotic Rio during Carnival, this movie dives into the sea of eroticism.

Wheeler (Mickey Rourke) is a very rich, very tough man who delights in playing mind-games. Emily (Carre Otis) is his latest victim. Fresh from the midwest, she is no match for Wheeler's introduction to the world of lust. But, soon Emily turns the table and begins to intrigue Wheeler as no other woman has.

This is a slow, steamy sensual movie. Definitely not a family movie. A major fault is the sound. Every time music would play, I felt like the band was right in my living-room. Keep your finger on the volume button with this one. I give it a 7.

This week I'm introducing a new feature called "The Turkey Shoot". Some movies are just so bad, that after the first 15 minutes I've been forced to turn it off. Instead of doing a full review, (which these duds don't deserve) when I come across one I will add it the Shoot list.

"The Turkey Shoot"

Carmilla - a silly, insipid vampire movie.

The Amorous Headmaster - Cheap, Swedish, B-movie

with voiceovers on English-speaking actors.

Black Christmas - Early 70's horror movie that's no horror.

Andrew Dice Clay in The Diceman Cometh "R"

Some of you may be familiar with this so-called comedian and some may not.

Both he and this concert tape are exactly the same: rude, crude, and obscene. Nuff said.

Opportunity to honor exceptional seniors

The Ontario Government will once again honour exceptional seniors with an Ontario Senior Achievement Award, said Elaine Ziemba, Minister of Citizenship, with responsibility for seniors citizens.

To be presented during Senior Citizens' Month in June, the Ontario Senior Achievement Award recognizes and honours outstanding seniors who, after age 65, have made significant contributions to their communities.

"This is one of the ways that the Government of Ontario shows its appreciation to seniors who continue to devote their time, talent and wisdom to enriching the lives of others," Ziemba said.

Nominees of the awards must be 65 years of age or older, a resident of Ontario, and have made significant contributions in one or more of the following programs:

Arts/literature, community service, education, environment/science, fitness/recreation/sports, humanitarian activities, preservation of history, volunteerism or any other category.

The public, as well as community and seniors' organizations, may nominate individuals in their areas.

An impartial selection committee will review all nominations and select the 1991 award recipients.

"I hope that individuals will take the time today to nominate a senior in their community," Ziemba said, "Nominating a senior for an Award is one way we can show our appreciation to those who have made a difference."

Nomination forms are available by writing to the Office for Senior Citizens' Affairs, 76 College Street, 6th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M7A 1N3 or call 1-800-267-7329.
