and good ole pig-in-a-poke. And even making the literary scene with a fun form of language known as pig Latin.

So the next time you're tempted to use one of these slanderous expressions about pigs to get back at your sibling or worst enemy, remember it 'taint so. Better to compare them to a cow which, when left on its own, is surely one of the dirtiest and stupidest animals around. So, take that, you old bovine, you!

SOULLIERE: Mrs.

Lorraine Soulliere age 45 years of Terrace Bay passed away in hospital on Monday April 29th, 1991. Ontario performed: an exorcism on David Peterson; Puccini's Tosca while delivering twins to a welfare mother; Canada's first cyclosporin heart transplant.

8. Margaret Atwood is: the former Margaret Trudeau; the one person in the survey who did know Canada's first prime minister; about 5'10"; really, really boring.

9. Canada's national sport is: bickering; ice hockey; toad licking; fencing with Hoover Dustettes.

10. Canada's national bird has, until recently been: the Canadian beaver when the wind is right; mosquitos bred in Schumacher, Ontario; the Nervous Tick; the Canadian Goose, with Bill VanderZalm representing him at official government functions.

11. The 1885 North-West Rebellion in Saskatchewan (sometimes known as the "Louis Riel Rebellion") was led by: Peter Kormos; Louis Riel; Jan, formerly of Jan & Dean?

The Heritage Project survey was however, not a total bust. Almost 88 per cent of the respondents agreed with the concluding statement: "We may be stupid but at least we're Western and civilized not like some countries we could name (but not spell) who eat with sticks and barbecue family pets on special occasions."
