Young entrepreneurs

David Pivato, 9, (L) and Michael Fox, 8, with the help of Cody the dog, held their second annual toy and assorted other stuff sale in Terrace Bay last week. The boys made the table and the chair David is sitting on from wood they hand sawed themselves. They plan to buy some wood with the money they make from the sale.

LOOKING AHEAD: A WILD LIFE STRATEGY FOR ONTARIO

Are you interested in the future of Ontario's wildlife?

We need your comments concerning some 60 strategies and recommendations in a report entitled Looking Ahead: A Wild Life Strategy for Ontario. This important document outlines a number of ideas for managing Ontario's wildlife now and beyond the year 2000.

The report was prepared by the Ontario Wildlife Working Group, a citizens' group appointed by the provincial government in 1989. Over the past two years, the working group has consulted hundreds of individuals and organizations across Ontario about wildlife management.

Now, it's your turn. The Ministry of Natural Resources wants your comments on the Wildlife Working Group's report. Your contribution will help ensure that a vital part of Ontario's natural environment will be protected and managed to benefit present and future generations.

Please clip this coupon and send it today.

Please send me a free copy of Looking Ahead: A Wild Life Strategy for Ontario and the accompanying comment form.

How to be a Local Hero

Imagine a Canada where people make giving an important part of their lives. Where they plan how much they can give, in time and in money. Where they don't wait to be asked to help. Imagine the rewards of being one of those people. Be a Local Hero.
