

Terrace Bay Atoms edge Schreiber 3-2 in double overtime game

The Terrace Bay Atoms took first place in a hockey tournament in Schreiber last week-end with a dramatic 3-2 victory over the home team in double-overtime.

With only four seconds left in the second overtime period, Josh Papineau poked in a rebound to give Terrace Bay the victory.

The game was played last Sunday afternoon at the Schreiber Arena.

Cosimo Figliomeni Jr. put Schreiber ahead 1-0 in the first period, before Terry Mulligan tied the game at 1-1.

The first period ended in a draw, and the only goal of the second period was Figliomeni's second goal with only one minute left in the period. Steve Zaporzan assisted on both goals.

Jeremy Corrigan tied the game for Terrace Bay on an unassisted goal at 8:26 of the third period, sending the game into overtime.

When the first two minute overtime failed to decide the game, the teams went with four skaters.

And just when it seemed that a third overtime period was going to be necessary, Papineau poked in Jeff Cornect's rebound.
