STAFF CHANGES IN L.S.H.S.

We've had some interesting changes, in what might be called our defensive line-up, at Lake Superior High School.

Esko Saranpaa, our auto mechanics department head, will be absent this semester, on his teacher-funded leave plan. His plans include touring the United States and cruising the Caribbean with his wife Marilyn. Send a post card Esko! Give that knife a twist.

Short in stature, Michelle Dobbin, is a new addition to our staff. She is a graduate of Memorial University, Newfoundland, and is teaching French and English classes.

Norman Duffy, of Schreiber, is our new, patient teacher's aid.

Andree Lacasse-MacGillivray, secretary at Schreiber campus, is a native of Chapleau, but has worked for several years for Bisco, an industrial supply company of Terrace Bay.

Sylvie Chappell is our newest recruit, assigned to core french and histoire. George Bott, from Marathon High School, is the new Vice-Principal in Schreiber. Remember to wear your helmet, George.

Our new helmsman (helmsperson), chief of staff and principal is Schreiber native, Sharon MacKenzie a popular, pleasant choice, indeed.

Welcome to new staff and good luck to all staff in the new semester.
