Tories react to budget

The deficit

1. The treasurer's $9.9 billion deficit figure for the new fiscal year constitutes wishful thinking. The number incorporates $1.2 billion in stabilization funding, which Ontario has applied for but not received. As well, Laughren has deferred contributions to public service pension funds, shuffling a further $564 million commitment off the budgetary books. If these and other common accounting variables are factored in, the 1992-93 deficit figure is at least $11.9 billion.

2. The government has projected a revenue increase for the year of 8.6 per cent. This increase assumes 2.3 per cent real economic growth for the fiscal year. And again, the figure assumes that $1.2 billion in stabilization funds from Ottawa.

On the same theme, while the budget criticizes the federal government on the issue of transfer payments, it bears noting that Established Programs Financing payments are actually up nearly three per cent—well above the rate of inflation, and more than double Ontario's own transfers to its transfer payment recipients.

And, in a schizophrenic turn, the budget confirms the government's continuing moral opposition to Sunday shopping while moving ahead on casinos (which will not be introduced in the current fiscal year) and expanding horse track gambling, which it expects will net $13 million.

3. With an increase of 4.9 per cent, government spending for the year is more than double the rate of inflation.

O HOLY ST. JUDE Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given assistance. Help me in my present urgent position, in return I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. Say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and Glorias. Publication must be promised. St Jude pray for us and all who invoke your aid. This Novena has never been in known to fail. This Novena must be said for nine consecutive days. RR
