Car and moose in collision

by Darren MacDonald
The News

One person sustained minor injuries when a car he was a passenger in hit a moose.

Paul Lavigne, 29, was taken to the McCausland Hospital after the accident. The Buick he was riding in was demolished, and the moose was killed in the mishap.

The accident occurred near Billy Lake Hill, which is about 3 km west of Schreiber, on the morning of May 20.

Lavigne and the driver of the vehicle—Real Laramee of White River—were headed to work at Minnova Mines, when Lavigne spotted the moose heading out of a bog and on to the highway.

"It stepped right over the guide wires and bang," said OPP Sgt. Andy Templar in an interview May 21.

"They had no chance to avoid the collision whatsoever."

Templar said the moose struck the car, and then came

Amalgamation of local credit unions called off

by Darren MacDonald
The News

The Schreiber Community Credit Union (SCCU) has decided not to go ahead with a proposed amalgamation with the credit union in Terrace Bay.

SCCU President Dawn Halcrow says the credit union's board of directors made the decision because it would have meant its members would have received no dividends for at least two years.

"We're only a small credit union, not a bank," says Halcrow. "If we don't pay dividends, we don't have members."

The Ontario Shares and Deposit Insurance Corporation (OSDIC), which sets the rules for credit unions, had set up
