

Living in north no adjustment for new Schreiber constable

by Darren MacDonald
The News

For the OPP's newest constable, moving from Mississauga, a community of around 600,000 people, to the North Shore hasn't been much of an adjustment.

"I own a house, I have a front and a back yard, both for the first time," says Const. Murray Woodman, who transferred to the Schreiber detachment at the start of this month. "And I don't have to worry about my child. What's there to adjust to?"

Finding a good environment for Woodman and his wife,

Ann, to raise their young family is one of the biggest reasons they came north, he says.

"I enjoyed working where I was (at the Port Credit Detachment near Mississauga), and you couldn't ask for better co-workers," says Woodman. "But I wasn't really attached to the community—I mean, how do you get attached to a community of 600,000 people?"

This isn't his first time in northwestern Ontario. Woodman says he used to visit his brother, also an OPP constable, when his brother worked in Kenora.

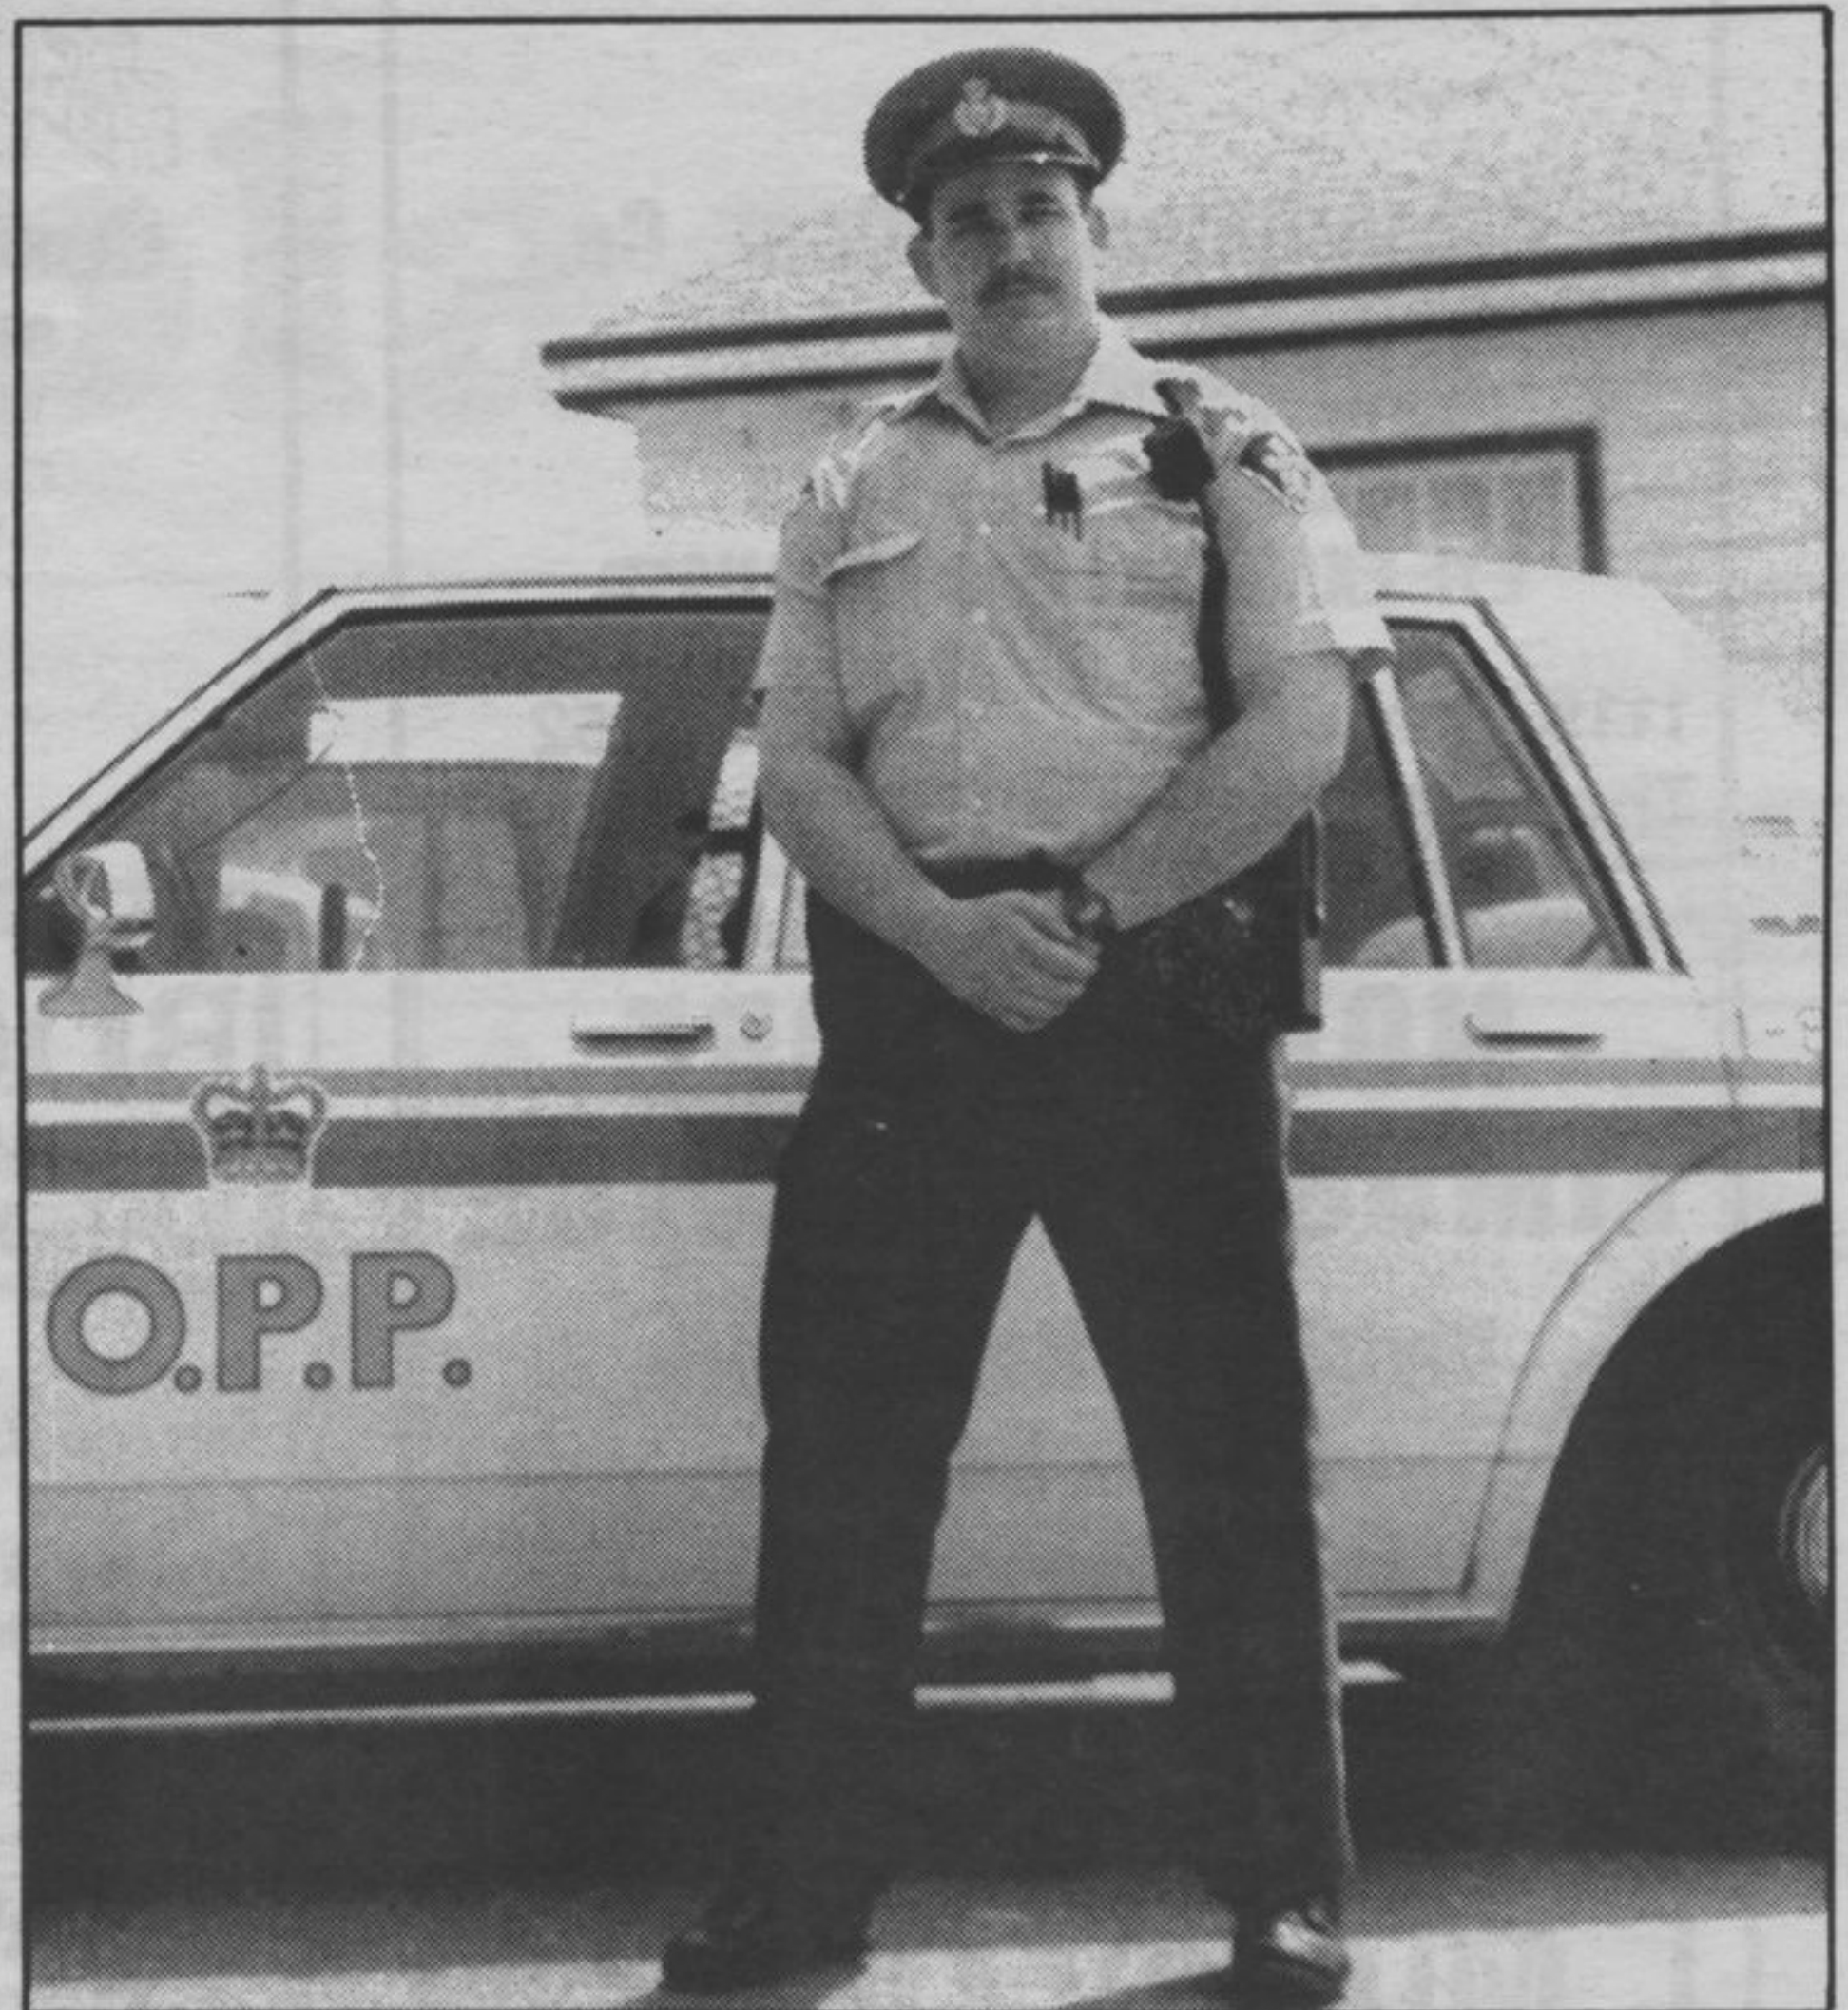

While in Mississauga,

Woodman says he dealt mostly with traffic violations and some impaired drivers. In Schreiber, he's hoping to get involved in some of the lighter aspects of policing.

"For example, I'm looking forward to going to the schools and speaking to the students," he says.

Originally from Kitchener, Woodman has been with the OPP for 4 1/2 years, all at the Port Credit detachment.

"I like it here in Schreiber so far—it seems like a good, hard-working community," he says. "It's a proud community, that's for sure."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory to our father and grandfather, who was taken from us one year ago May 26, 1991.

Always a thought and many a tear
For the one we miss and loved so dear

The sudden way you had to die
We shall always remember and wonder why

To know we never said good-bye

Will always bring regret
But the hearts that loved you dearly

Are the ones that don't forget.
So many things have happened, Dad

Since you were taken away
So many things to share with you

Had you been left to stay
We can not bring the old days back

But the memories you left behind

Will linger forever, as we treasure the image of you in our minds.

To us you were special
What more is there to say
Except to wish with all our hearts

That you were here today

Forever loved and missed Jim & Yvonne McGrath and family

IN MEMORIAM

McGRATH - In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather, Michael, who passed away May 26, 1991.

Dad

We've thought of you often
All through this year
We turn to you to talk

And then there's a tear.
We always knew you were a dear special man

You were always so close to our heart

Maybe that is why we turn to you to talk

And forget that now we're apart.

You were always so loving, caring and wise

And always an ear you would lend

And that's how we know you will always be there

So our hugs and our kisses we send.

We'll see you one day, one very special day

And we'll talk and we'll laugh as before

And we'll never be parted again after that

For together our spirits will soar!

We love you,
Maureen McGrath Palmer
Lovingly remembered, Rita and family
