

Schreiber Railroad Park

Conceptual drawing by Colleen Glad of the proposed railroad park in Schreiber.

"I thought it was a worthwhile concept and agreed to become a part of it," says

Stokes. "They said they saw a need of something to remind Schreiber of its past."

What the project really needs now, he says, is community support.

"If you don't get people behind it, then it's not likely to succeed," says Stokes.

"There's nobody that's going to come knocking on our doors trying to convince us that it's a worthwhile initiative. We've got to be convinced ourselves and be committed to seeing it through to fruition."

THANK YOU

I would like to thank all those people who gave their thoughtful words of comfort, cards, flowers, food and charitable donations in the recent loss of my Dad, Grandad, John Steen.

Special thanks to King's Funeral Home, Dr. Wilkes and the staff of McCausland Hospital. My Dad's wishes were to be cremated without a funeral service. Interment will be in the Terrace Bay Cemetery.

Your thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated.

Behind the Bright Lights Beats the Heart of a Small Town

This ain't Toronto! There's nothing too big or threatening in Thunder Bay. Yet it has everything you're looking for.

Comfortable, affordable hotels. Great restaurants. Super entertainment and recreation, such as the Canada Games Complex, the Auditorium, Magnus Theatre and 19 movie screens to name just a few. Plus great shopping in two downtown cores and four great indoor shopping malls. So whether you're coming to shop, relax, visit friends, or to make use of the medical and professional services here, Thunder Bay is your home away from home. If you don't believe it, just visit one of the two country and western bars in the city. Now that's friendly! Thunder Bay. The big city with the heart of a small town.
