Marathon will include us in brochures

by Darren MacDonald
The News

Terrace Bay, Schreiber and Rossport will be included in all future printings of Marathon tourism brochures, says a spokesperson for the Marathon Economic Development Office.

"(The communities) were just overlooked when the map was being done," says Lorna Paternoster. "But that's something that's going to change with the next printing."

Our area was excluded from the printing of a Marathon map and street guide, as well as a tourism pamphlet distributed at the Marathon Tourist Information Centre.

Bicycle rodeo held in Terrace Bay

The Terrace Bay Police Services sponsored a Bicycle Rodeo June 26, held at the Terrace Bay Arena. Each participant had their bike inspected and had to complete a riding test to receive their ribbon. Each biker also had their name entered in a draw for two Vagabond VX Bikes. Winners were (above, with bikes) Jasmine Mateev (left), 5, and Shaun Puddester, 10. Merna Burrows, left, and Graham Bursey, right, represented the Canadian Legion and the Moose, who donated the bikes. Const. Bill Trudeau, centre, represented the Terrace Bay Police Services.

The cost of general government is projected to be $606,995, an increase of $61,786 over last year. The increase can be attributed to things like increased salaries for Council and municipal office staff, and an increase in the size of municipal reserve funds.

The recreation budget is up about $72,000 over last year, to a total of $514,625. About $63,000 of that amount will either go to temporary building repairs, or to the reserve fund for a new building.

"Council feels that sooner or later, these projects will have to be done," says Clerk-Treasurer Aurel Gauthier.

An increase of $26,116 in the cost of operating the fire department—which is expected to cost $71,210 this year—can be attributed to a $8,000 cost of purchasing new turn out gear, $9,000 for the purchase of
