Chimos get a new outdoor sign

Mike Cosgrove and Ray Gionet made the Chimo Club in Schreiber a new sign for their club. They took delivery on Canada Day.

Stolen car was smashed, and then returned

by Darren MacDonald
The News

Two men driving in a stolen car crashed into a guard rail just east of Schreiber on Highway 17 early Sunday morning, June 29.

The 1992 Pontiac Bonneville had been stolen late Saturday night, June 28, from the Spadoni Brothers car lot in Schreiber.

Several of the guard rails were uprooted as a result of the impact.

After the accident, the car was driven back to the car lot and left there by the thieves.

"We were notified at 3 pm Sunday afternoon by a Spadoni's employee that the car had been damaged," says Schreiber OPP Sgt. Andy Templar. The OPP have questioned three men in relation to the incident. Templar says the investigation is still ongoing, but says he expects charges will be laid.

He also says no one was injured in the accident.

Two drug raids net plants, paraphernalia

by Darren MacDonald
The News

Terrace Bay Police Services have charged two men with possession of a narcotic following two drug raids carried out the evening of June 25.

The raids involved a total of eight officers, including three from Terrace Bay, two members of the RCMP from Marathon, one member of the Marathon Police Services, one member of the Canadian Pacific Police, and one OPP officer from Thunder Bay, who brought in drug sniffing dogs to assist in the raids.

The raids took place at a home on Fort Garry Road and on Southridge Crescent in Terrace Bay.

"The investigation entailed a period of time," says Terrace Bay Police Chief Wes Fenton, adding that some of the information came from the CAP (Community Against Pushers) line, which is operated by the OPP.

"And the information we received turned out to be accurate," he says.

Fenton says police seized substances resembling marijuana and plants resembling marijuana plants from the two homes. The substances have since been shipped to Health and Welfare Canada in Winnipeg to be examined and positively identified.

Also seized were "drug paraphernalia", including hydroponics equipment, commonly used in growing cannabis.

No one was hurt during the raids, and Fenton says they went off smoothly.

"We have an extremely good working relationship with the other police forces, and when we require assistance, it's readily available," he says.

In an unrelated incident later the same evening, Fenton says Terrace Bay Police responded to a report of gunshots being fired near Terrace Heights.

Charges are still pending in the case, but Fenton says he expects two men will be
