Dave Bedard caught the biggest fish at this year's Terrace Bay Fish Derby.

Bedard's 24 lb., 8 1/4 oz. lake trout earned him the derby's top prize, which this year was an electric downrigger.

The second largest fish was caught by Jeffery MacDonald, who landed a 17 lb., 10 oz. pike and took home a propane barbeque for his efforts.

Other first place finishers include Jim Charlton, who's 10 lb., 3 oz. catch was this year's biggest salmon; the biggest rainbow this year was Maria Hermes' 7 lb., 5 oz. catch; Yvon Parise caught a 7 lb., 6 oz. pickerel, good for first place; and Paul moon caught the largest speckled trout, which weighed in at 4 lb., 8 oz.

In all, 330 adult and 110 children entered the derby this year, and, just like last year, all the kids who caught a fish received a prize.

children who enter to just those who fish on a regular basis.

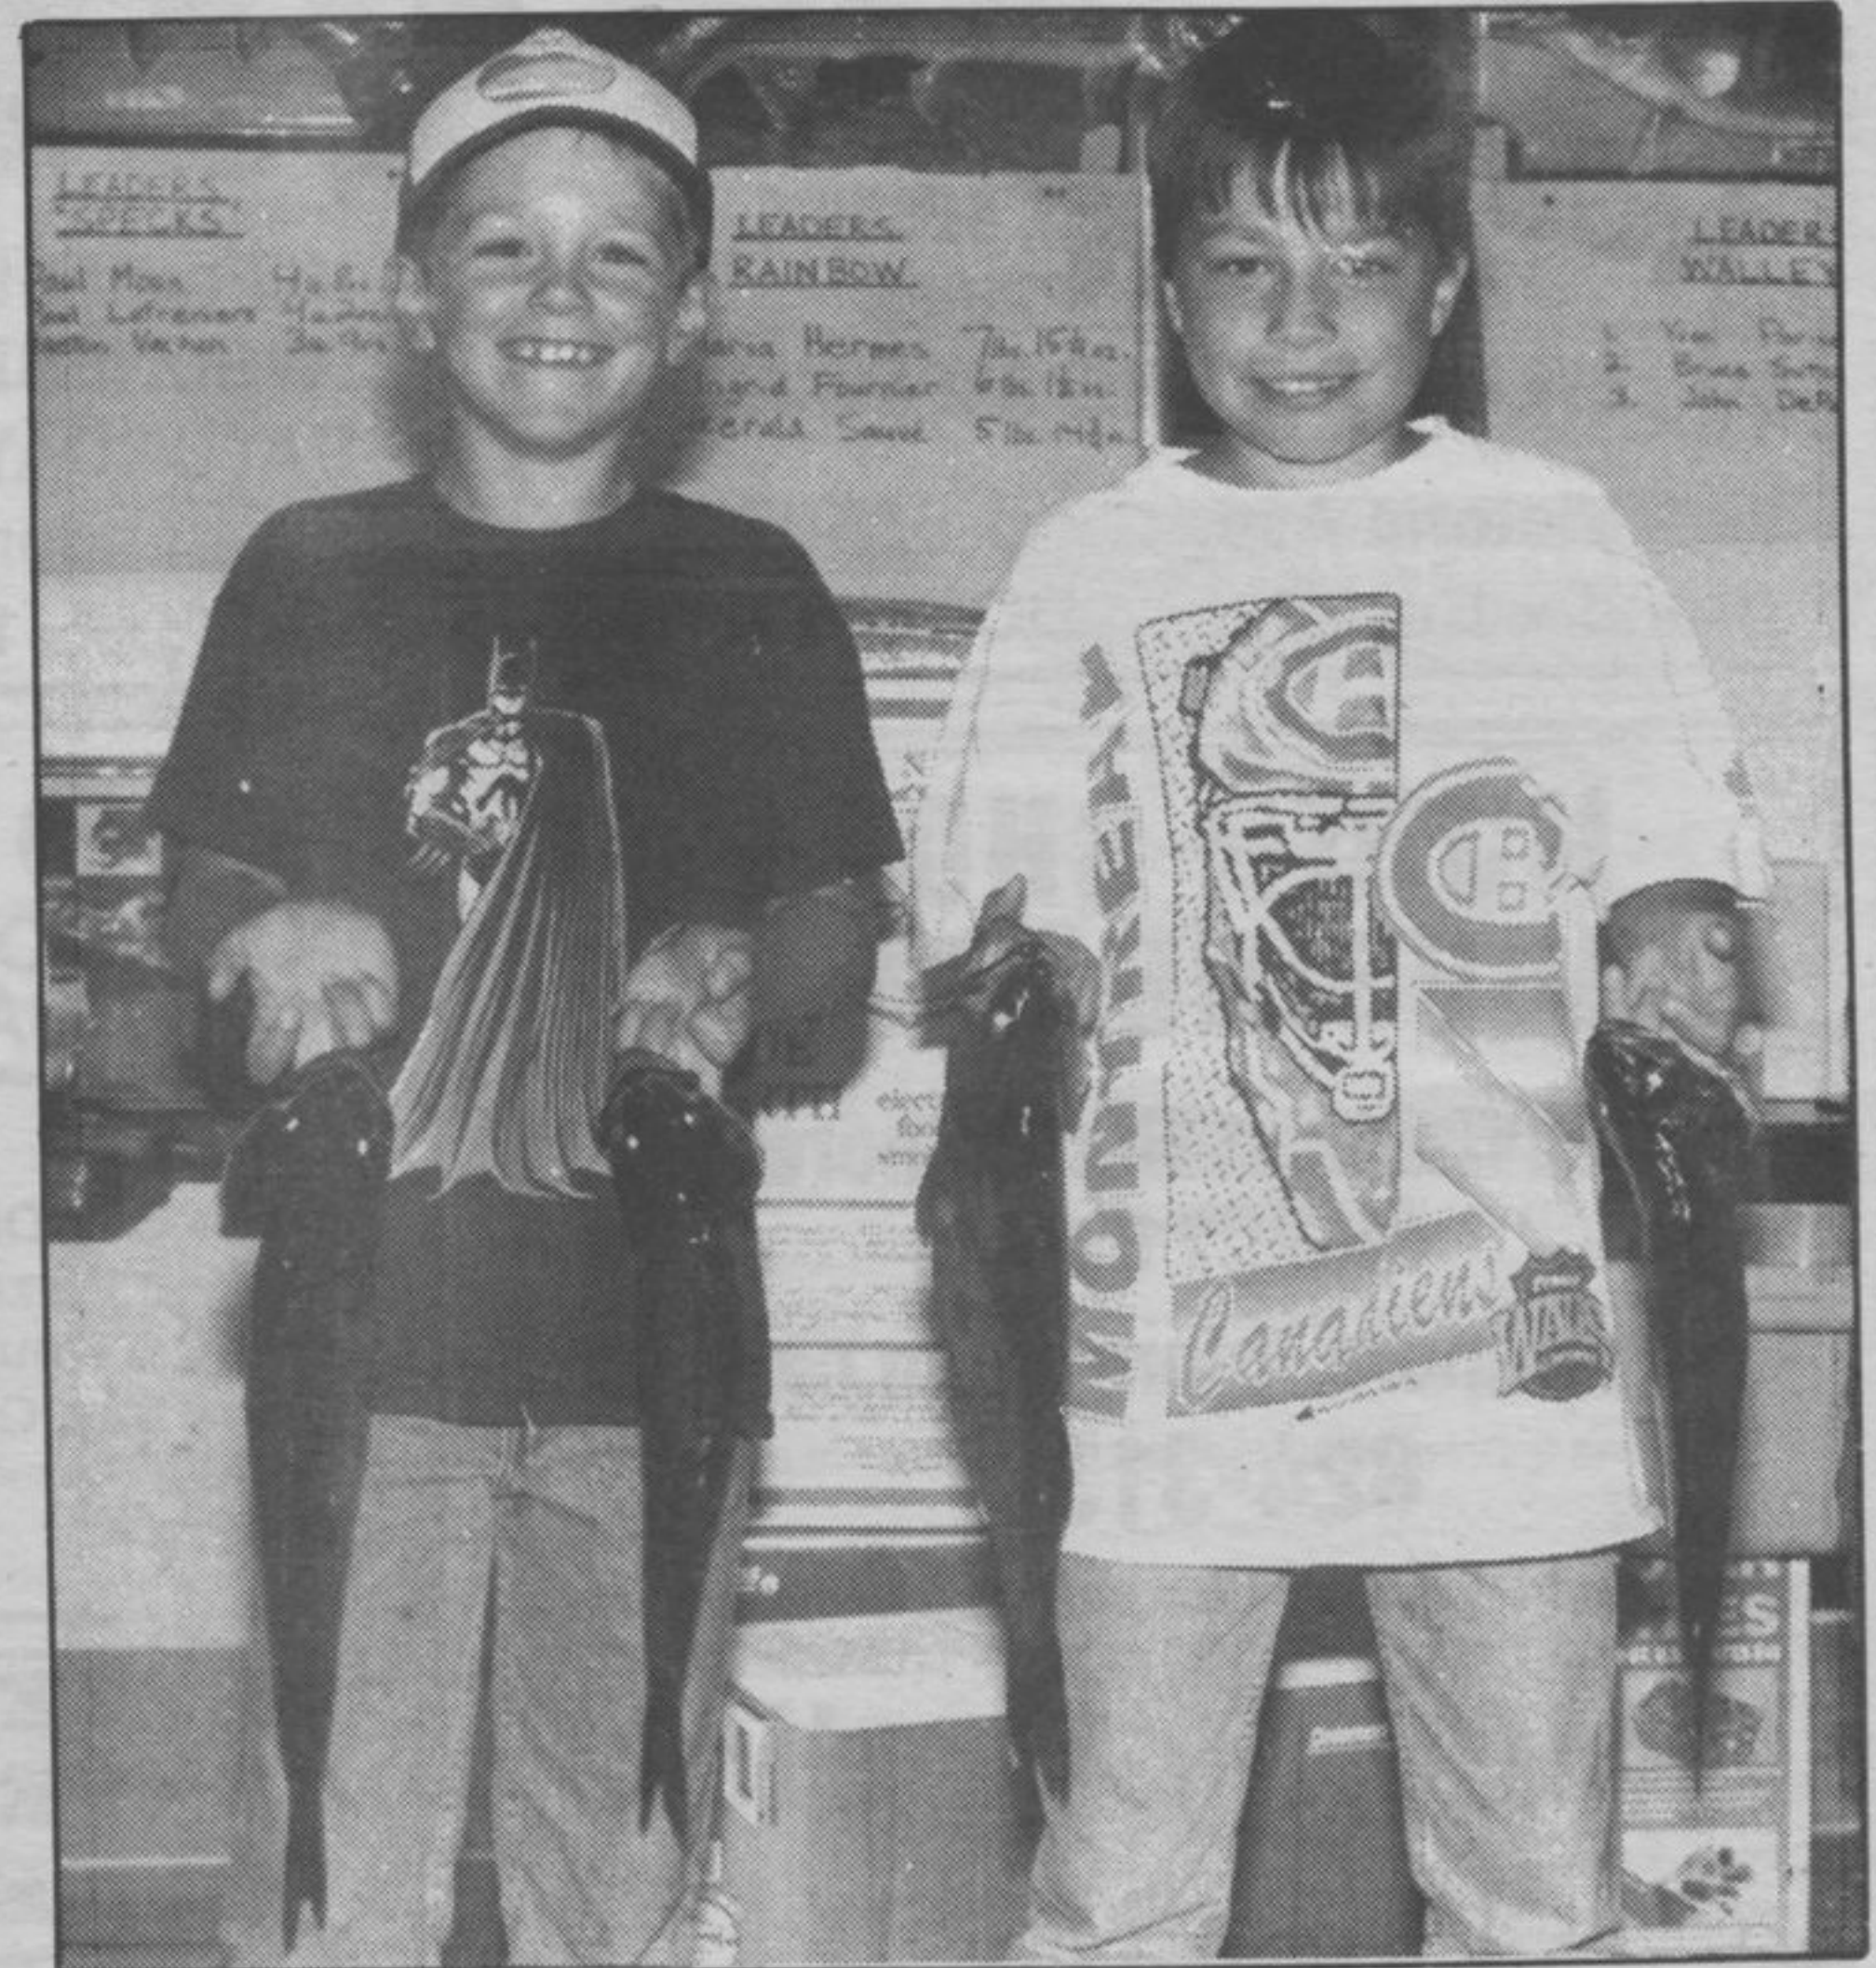

"It was fine when it was small, but there's just too many kids that fish," she says.

She also says that, because of the success of this year's derby, there should be more money for prizes next year.

"Community and business support of the derby has just been phenomenal," she says.

Also next year, the person who catches the biggest fish will automatically get first choice of the prizes. This year, the names of the winners of each category were entered into a draw.

As it worked out, however, the person who caught the biggest fish did get first choice.
