categories only have 20-24 participants. The favourite boxer in the category is American Eric Griffin, whom Dominic has met twice prior to Barcelona. Although he lost both fights, Dominic fought well against the current world champion.

The scoring of the Olympic boxing matches will be different this year, using a computerized system where three of the judges must register a hit within one second for it to count. A total of hits at the end of the three, three-minute rounds will decide the winner. A hit consists of striking the opponent with the white part
