In Memoriams

CAMPBELL- In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather Murdo Campbell, who passed away December $1, 1982. Nothing can ever take away The love a heart Fond memories linger every day. Remembrance keeps him near Always remembered by son Bill, Daughter in-Law Pat, granddaughters Julie & Jennifer daughter Mary, son-in-law Jim and grand children Debbie, Richard and Heather, Son. Ken and wife Sheila and daughter Sarah. MCKENZIE-In loving memory of my dear mom. Florence, who passed away January 6.

Time has a way of slipping by But loving memories never die Sadly missed and always remembered, daughter Shelley.

MCKENZIE In loving memory of a dear mother and nana, Florence, who passed away January 6. 1977. Lovingly remembered by Brenda, Dick. Julie and Bryan GERVAIS-In loving memory of a dear husband, Chuck who passed away January 6.

He is gone but not forgotten And, as dawns another year, In my fonely hours of thinking Thoughts of him are always hear. Days of sadness will come over me Friends may think the wound is healed. But they little know the sofrow That lies in the heart concealed

Always remembered and missed by wife

GERVAIS-In loving memory of a dear father, and grandfather, Chuck who passed away January 6, 1982 The blow was great, the shock severe. We little thought the end was near. And only those who have lost can tell The pain of parting will out farewell.

More each day we miss you, father, Friends may think the wound is healed But they little know the sorrow That lies within our hearts concealed Always remembered by Steve, Shirley and childrent NORLAND-In loving memory of a dear-husband father, and grandfather Hank, who passed away December 31, 1984. Have you ever wondered or asked the reason/why. Must people who are full of life, always have to die. The answer I have found my friends. It's just a simple game. You teave with what you came with. But your soul now has a name. I believe the right to life you see, is something we have earned. But in this game of it and death, are lessons to be learned. When everything seems fine & grand there may be something wrong: So tell someone you love them for soon they may be gone, always remembered by wife Betty, daughter Vicki, sons Jay and Chrisand grandson Colin
