DRUGS! MEDICINES, GROCERIES!

We are not like some of our neighbors (who have remnants and unseasonable goods to dispose of) offering as inducements a discount; but something better, Dr. J. C. Parke's Little's Peppermint Cure, the last dose of which is good as the first in relieving pain and curing disease.

Amongst our Stock will be found the following popular patent medicines,

VEGETINE,
HOP BITTERS,
AUGUST FLOWER,
DYSPEPTIC CURE,
AYERS' & BRISTOLS' SARSAPARILLA,
SHOSHONEES,
SARSAPARILLIAN,
MEDICAL DISCOVERY,
GERMAN SYRUP, FELLOWS,
SYRUP, SCOTT'S' EMULSION,
AYERS' PECTORAL,
WISTERS' BALSAM,
and many other preparations no less worthy of mention if we had space.

If you want to invest money to secure good returns, buy some of our
CONDITION POWDERS AND SPICE
for improving your Stock. Constantly on hand a fine assortment of Fancy Goods, Toilet Articles, Toys, Perfumery, Combs, Brushes, Soaps, ect., ect.

Good values in Groceries, & Glassware.

Forget not the above, nor the place
Yours respectfully,

PER S. M. THOMAS.

Mr. James Walker, miller, late of Brooklin, and now employed at the Victoria Mills, Guelph, has been kept in painful suspense since Friday 22nd ult. regarding the fate of Willie, a four year old child, who has been missing since the above date, and is supposed to have been drowned in the river adjoining his residence. All efforts on the part of the citizens of Guelph to recover the body have proved unavailing. The grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of their many friends in Brooklin and vicinity.

Two car loads of furniture left the Oshawa Cabinet factory for Manitoba last week.

CLOCKS! JEWELRY! CLOCKS!!

Thanking the people of Brooklin and vicinity for their liberal patronage in the repairing business, I beg to announce I have bought a large stock of Clocks, twenty four Hour, Eight Day and Alarm, &c., &c.

Also a fine lot of Jewelry, Chains, Brooches, Ear Drops, Rings, Guards, Pins, Sleeve Buttons, Spectacles, &c.

As I have selected this stock myself, with care, I can guarantee them to give satisfaction.

Repairing done promptly and accurately as usual. Don't forget the place—Dominion Telegraph Office, opposite the Globe Hotel.

G. W. WARREN, Brooklin.

The champion runner of Whitby is Fred Hatch, and the champion jumper of Brooklin, Ed. Hamilton.

King Kennedy held forth in Whitby on Friday night.

Mr. Knox shipped sixty-three head of cattle from Oshawa on the 3rd inst., for Liverpool, per steamer Dominion.

It is remarkable the number of unmarried women under 25 years of age. So say the census enumerators.

The county valuator is about starting on their tour through the northern townships.

Mrs. Hurd of Oshawa, has taken action against Mr. J. Brooks for selling her husband liquor after being warned not to do so. The amount of damages are placed at $60. Similar actions are to be taken against other hotel keepers for the same offence.

A petition is being circulated through east and west Whitby for signatures praying for the release of Mr. Hortop who is now in prison serving a term of five years for forgery.

Many farmers throughout the township are ploughing up their fall wheat.

The town is moving northward.

Mr. Dawes has moved his business one door north.

Mr. D. Fitchett occupies Mr. Dawes old stand.

Mr. McPherson, of the firm of McPherson & Campbell, has purchased the house lately occupied by Mrs. Bates, and intends moving the same back and building a shop on the site.

Mr. B. McQuay is giving the "Globe" a thorough over-hauling. Mr. Pearson is engaged.

The women complain of the soft water famine.

The removal of the post office has added much to the appearance of Mr. Darlington's place of business.

The Evening News, a spicy one cent Toronto Journal is delivered in town within three hours after publication, thanks to the energy of Mr. Darlington, general news agent.

Mrs. Irish, and her grand-daughter, Miss Howe, have returned from Rochester where they spent the winter.

The License commissioners have granted forty hotel and shop licenses for south Ontario. Mr. B. McQuay, of Brooklin, and Mr. Alex. Whitelaw of Ashburn, have been granted licenses for the township.

An excursion train starts for the north west to-morrow.

How are you going to celebrate the Queen's birthday.

Since the arrival of the new milliner at T. J. Holiday's the young men have been taken with delirium trimmings.

Soon be time for fat-man pic-nics.
