LOCAL NEWS LETTERS.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

WHITEVALE.

Mr, Geo. Burkholder and Stewart Pherrill spent Sunday afternoon in Greenwood. We sympathize with our friend George as his best girl has taken her departure for Paris.

We regret to learn of the illness of Lieu. W. B. Hagerman, who is suffering from a slight attack of pneumonia, but under the care of our worthy Dr. he hopes to be around again in a few days.

A number of the young people of both sexes have organized a hunt club under the presideacy of Lieut. W. B. Hagerman. The Lieut. says that so far they have not hunted any larger game than fun but that everything else will come in good time. In the mean time quite a few young ladies are acquiring the accomplishment of locomotion on the pig skin.

Our burg is fast becoming a favorite rendezvous for bicyclists. No less than a dozen young ladies and gentlemen wheeled out from the city on Saturday, a distance of 24 miles. Noticeable among them were Mr. Strathy, a nephew of the late J. Strathy so cruelly assassinated a short time ago in Barrie, and Miss Brown, who were the guests of Miss Day, our esteemed assistant teacher in the public school,

Mr. Joseph Pennock is wearing a smile now days, and we beg to say his joy is not occasioned by the advent into this world of a boy or a girl, but it is all on account of the return of Mrs. P., who has been absent for some time attending the sick bed of her father. We regret that his illness resulted fatally, but his expiring moments were made happy by the presence of his eldest daughter who was ever willing to ease his aching head and add words of cheer in his dying moments.

Dr. Frank Whaley, vice-president of the hunt club, met with an accident on Saturday night, which might have resulted more seriously. Returning from a ride by the members of the club his sober going old black mare stumbled, throwing the Dr. heavily to the ground and rendering him unconscious. With the aid of a little fresh water his fair companions in the course of a few minutes quite revived him. An examination showed that no bones were fractured. The horse, less fortunate, had it's knees badly broken. At the next meet of the club the Dr. will figure upon a more sure-footed hoss.

Just as regular as the spring comes does horse trotting talk start Your correspondent has been worried to death expressing his opinion on the merits and demerits of the various steeds in the village. All kinds of stories are in circulation about the speed and breeding by their respected owners. One man who never tells a lie regulates the repidity of his nag by the use of a chain and by counting telegraph poles. On a favorite piece of road just north of our town the telegraph poles are situated just so far apart, and just so many to the mile, and by catching him between the poles and then counting the poles, and a few moments in mathematics and he has the time to a nicety. Barring accidents in the way of cows grazing on the road side, of which our vale can boast of quite a number, and with the wind in a favorable quarter he can make the dust form a whirlwind.

Our esteemed friend Mr. James Windsor, more commonly known as the people's James, spent Sunday with friends at Bangor. While returning home he met with a misfortune which will incapatiate him for some time to come. In the darkness Mr Windsor was thrown over a precipice on Church street, owing to there being no safeguard placed at that point. Mr. Waite, our popular manager of the Whitevale roller mills, came to his rescue, and with the aid of several others carried the old gentleman to his residence, where at the time of writing we found him resting quietly. We understand Mr. W. threatens the corporation with an action for heavy damages. Your correspondent wishes to arrest the attention of our pathmaster to that and various other places in the village that require his immediate attention.

The members of the A. O. F. held anniversary service in the methodist church Sunday afternoon. Bro. Oke, pastor of the church, officiated, and delivered a very appropriate sermon. Mr. T. Ward and his choral class had charge of the singing and rendered some very appropriate numbers. The congregation was also the collection, which was in aid of the Armenian fund. I was sorry to learn that jealousy of Mr. Ward and his class of children, on the part of the manager of another choral organization, has been the cause of much hard feeling in connection with their engagement for this occasion, and this bright musical manager having failed in an attempt to have the engagement cancelled signified his disapproval by absenting himself and his personal friends from the services. Such jealous rivalry is much to be regretted, and, although I have met calves that could bawl quite a note, I think it in very bad taste for the one fellow to say of the other that he had a calf that could sing much better bass than his rival, or, for the other fellow to say of his rival that his knowledge of music was all in his eye. However I trust that a better spirit may in the future prevail and that all may be peace and harmony.

Kinsale.

Rev. Harris officiated here on Sabbath last.

Mr. Luke and family, of Whitby, visited friends here a few days ago.

Miss Lottie Hortop is still attending the W. C.I., at Whitby. We trust she may meet with success in her summer exams this year.

Miss Mary McBrien, who has been in Toronto during the winter months, has returned to her home, and took her usual place in charge of the organ on Sabbath.

Seeding is a thing of the past and planting time is again upon us. Some have already got nearly through. A good deal of corn is being sown in this locality.

Home Circle met here on Monday evening. The goat is somewhat out of practice, his present record is said to be shady or slow, as the grazing season is now in vogue he may recuperate.

Many from here will go over to Greenwood on 25th inst., should the weather prove favorable. This is the second annual celebration our western suburb has entertained and we wish them success.

Programmes of the school convention to be held in the methodist church, Mt. Zion, on the 28th inst., are in circulation here, and no doubt our S.S. workers will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the different sessions.

Election gossip is becoming quite common on our streets and thorofares, but as yet no excitement of note has aroused our inhabitants. If we do disagree somewhat on politics we are all of one accord on the Remedial bill, and all join crying "Hands off Manitoba." No coercive measure will meet the approval of the Kinsale electorate.

The concert under the auspices of the epworth league was a grand success. The meeting was called to order by Rev. Harris who acted as chairman ; after singing and prayer, the programme was immediately proceeded with. Among those taking part from a distance were Messrs. Chas. Mackey, of Enfield, Madill and Chapman, of Andley, Misses Rogers, Menagh, and McBryan. Revs. Legott, of Brooklin, and McCamus, of Port Perry, gave addresses. After tendering a vote of thanks to those who so ably assisted the leaguers, the meeting was closed. The audience went to the hall where luncheon was in store for all visiting friends.

Many of the farmers are still holding their stall fed cattle. Prices are so extremely flat with anything but encourageing prospects, they do not feel we suppose like disposing of them at the low figures. It just occurs to us if there were enough stability about our farmers to manipulate their own business, they would not be set on by the cattle dealers from season to season. Why could not the farmers, the men who feed us all, ship their own cattle independently of these middle men? Surely the profits accruing from the handling of the same would lighten the debts of some of our tillers of the soil, but as has always been the case, farmers speaking generally would rather trust a sewing machine agent, a lightning rod man or cattle dealer, than a brother farmer. Consequently we find the farmers heavily set upon, not being able to set a price on any of their various productions, and it will be so down to the end if farmers will continue in their short sightedness. It is believed here that cattle dealers have formed a ring and are keeping prices down to suit themselves. Surely the farmers have many competent men who could manage the business just as good and much more to their own interests than has been done for the last half century. This seems to be a world of get all you can, and we do not blame the carrying out of this idea as long as the farmers so agreeably put up with it.

MANCHESTER

Mrs. S. Daniels is under the doctors care.

Mr. Jos. Munro, of Oshawa, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mr. Geo. Ewers, jr., is attending the Port Perry high school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Hagerman are visiting friends in Markham.

The Sons of Temprance division has suspended for the summer months, It will open out again in September.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Frank Lamb, who happened with an accident in the way of getting his leg broke, is improving as well as can be expected.

The anniversary services held here on Sunday were quite a success. The Rev. Mr. Allan, of Columbus, occupied the pulpit in the morning and evening, and the Rev. Mr. McCamus, of Port Perry, addressed the children in the afternoon. The day was delightful and consequently a large attendance.

The readers of the CHRONICLE will remember the ridiculous item in the Prince Albert column last week, and I wish to draw their attention to the fact that neither your regular correspondent nor any of the CHRONICLE staff is responsible for the writing, as I understand the item was of a snubbing character, and we believe that the writer intended an insult. The young ladies mentioned merit no such talk for they are well respected and mind their own business, and that is what the writer of the epistle cannot boast of. In past writings for different papers I noticed that the same floating image has the habit of "stirring up" somebody's reputation. Of course, we understand, he is here to-day and gone to-morrow, but if he wishes to come back here again, we would advise him to keep cool, or perhaps he may get "histed."

P. C. GRAHAM.

RAGLAN.

Mr H Lyle, Myrtle, spent Sunday visiting at Mr Harper's.

Miss Lizzie McGregor of Beaverton, is visiting at Mr Geo Ross'.

Mr James Forrester of Oshawa spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Mr and Mrs Harper left last week for Kansas, where they will remain for a time visiting friends.

Quite a number of the farmers around here have their fat cattle yet. Wonder what cattle buyers are doing ?

Mr W Bright was the first to kill a beef for the beef ring, and cut it up in about 60 pieces. Every one served satisfactorily.

Rev J McLaren will preach a sermon under the auspices of the I O F of Raglan in the presbyterian church, Columbus, on the 1st Sabbath in June.

Last week while driving to school Miss Still's horse became frightened, running into Mr. Brent's buggy, upsetting it and making a general smashup. Fortunately both escaped with slight injuries.

The league this Friday evening May 22, will give a literary and musical entertainment. Also Mr. Mallett, Scugog, will give an address. A very pleasant time is anticipated. Admission 10 cents. Every one welcome.

On Monday last the epworth league held their jubilee services, when Miss Madden, Miss Hambly and Mr Dawson gave an address on the work and duty of each committee, and the progress of the society since organized. A very pleasant and profitable time was spent.

Last Sabbath Rev Mr McLaren of Columbus, preached a very able sermon under the auspices of the S O T, taking his text from Prov. 24ch. 11-12 verses, bringing home to everybody the necessity of using their influence in banishing the liquor traffic. The Columbus choir furnished the music. The church was very beautifully decorated with flowers.

MYRTLE.

Mr. T. W. Brooks of this place is peddling dry goods, etc., for Merchant Ross, of Raglan.

Mrs. Lester Hubbell is to leave this week for Michigan to visit her sister, Mrs. Albert Gillett.

Mr. David Briggs returned home last week from Toronto where he had been visiting his sons.

Ex-Stage Driver Schemerhorn has been at or near Kingston for a week or more visiting relatives.

Some few of the friends here attended the Sunday school anniversary service at Manchester last Sunday.

The church choir expect to go to Mount Carmel to assist at the Sunday school anniversary on Sunday the 31st inst., and Monday the 1st of June.

The car load of hogs shipped from here last week by Mr. Colwell to Hull Quebec were light and we believe the price paid was about three dollars and sixty cents per hundred.

It seems rather unfortunate that the Pickering township Sunday school convention and the Whitby township convention are both billed for the same date, the 28th inst., and anly about five miles apart, theirs at Mount Zion and ours at Ashburn.

Some person or persons (tramps are suspected as three or four were seen around here that evening) undertook to force their way into the cellar under Mr. W. G. Armours store one night this week, but Mr. Armour's little dog made such a rumpus that he awoke Mr. Armour and others before they accomplished their purpose.

SHINGLES,

Miss A. Skinner has been visiting relatives here.

Miss Lena Willis visited at Stouffville over Sunday.

Mrs. J. Jewell has gone to her home in Fenelon Falls for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace of Reach visited Mrs. Thomas Brown over Sunday.

The christians will hold a re-opening of their church the 31st of May, and on the 1st of June they will hold a bananna social.

The Brougham mechanics institute held a meeting and appointed officers as follows : Pres., C. Phillips ; secr., Thos Brown ; treasurer, Thos Poucher ; librarian, W. J. Bodell. They have added over $100 worth of books to the library and have $24 balance on hand.

Miss Starr has been visiting friends in Toronto for two weeks.

Mr. Nelson Davey, of Whitby, has been visiting at Mr D Hollidays for a few days

Mr and Mrs Bell, of Toronto, have been visiting at Mr G W Arnold's for a few days.

Court of revision for the township of Whitby on June 1st. There are very few appeals in.

Dr C L Starr, of Toronto, wheeled down from the city last Friday, and made a brief visit here.

Mr L Burnett, Liberal candidate for South Ontario, was in town on Saturday. He is very busily engaged in canvassing the electors and is meeting with much encouragement.

Messrs J Harvey and Frank Walker have gone to North Bay in search of employment. We hope they may be successful in finding something that will be satisfactory.

Four cars of cattle were shipped from here on Saturday. The price they are getting for their fat stock is quite disappointing to the farmers and a number have not yet sold.

All the standard kinds of turnip seeds,—Champion, Bangholm, Clyde, Elephant, etc., at closest prices. Our seed is from Wm. Evans, of Montreal, as usual. Holliday Bros.

Miss M. E. Dryden is home from Toronto, having completed her course at Moulton college and McMaster university, and secured the degree of M. A. Miss Dryden was the only lady in the graduating class of this year.

The literary meeting of the E L of C E held in the basement of the methodist church on Friday evening of last week was well attended. A very interesting programme was given, after which cake and lemonade were served to all the company.

Mr and Mrs McMillan, of Toronto, are stopping with Mrs McMillan's parents, Mr and Mrs Pollock, for a few weeks. They are both in poor health, but we hope the change they are now enjoying will soon result in decided improvement.

As loyal subjects of Her Most Gracious Majesty we will of course celebrate her birthday next Monday, but it will be done in a very quiet way by those who remain at home. Business will be suspended as usual, but apart from this there will be little to mark the day as different from other days so far as this village is concerned. The Brooklin Specialty Co. will go to Greenwood to give the farce, "The Grave Robbers," at the concert there in the evening.

The entertainment to be given by the Royal Templars in the masonic hall this, Friday, evening, gives promise of being a great success. More than usual interest has been aroused and there is likely to be a large audience to hear the drama "Out in the Streets," and the excellent musical programme that will be furnished by the Whitby orchestra and local singers. Miss L Yates will give several recitations. In spite of heavy expenses the price of admission has been placed at 15 cents, children 10 cents, so that all may come. The entertainment will commence at 8 o'clock, sharp.

An informal meeting was held last Saturday night at which members of the I O O F, A O U W, R T of T, and C O of C F were present to discuss the advisability of holding a decoration service, similar to those of last summer and the year previous. Few of those present were in a position to speak officially for their societies and it was deemed advisable to postpone any action for a week, by which time all the societies will have elected delegates to consider the matter. While all are agreed that a decoration service is a nice way of showing that those who have gone from us have not been forgotten, and that the bond of brotherhood is something more than a figure of speech, yet there is not the same unanimity regarding the holding of the service every year, some thinking that each alternate year is quite often enough. Whatever is decided on will be announced in the next issue of the CHRONICLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bell, of Brooklin, were visiting their friends here the first of the week.

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. William H. Leask had the misfortune to break her arm by falling down the cellar stairs. She is doing as well as could be expected.

Joseph and William Burton had a misunderstanding the result of which was a dissolution of partnership. Joseph is now running the farm and William has moved into the village. He intends, we understand, to drive the milk wagon for the Manchester cheese factory.

It is with regret that we have to chronicle the death, at the early age of 25, of Mrs. Chas. White, eldest daughter of Robert Watson of this place. The remains were laid to rest in Bethel cemetery on Wednesday in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Truly in the midst of life we are in death.

Everybody in this locality should make it a point to attend the presbyterian Sunday school anniversary on the 24th and 25th. The Rev. Every farmer you speak to complains of the dryness of the land. The crops are looking remarkably well but are in great need of a good rain.

Mr. Frank Clark has left home, and is now busily engaged as an apprentice in Musgrove's blacksmith shop at Brougham. Success to you Frank.

Mr. Fred. Hatch, Whitby, vice president of the Greenwood foot ball team, occupied the chair at their meeting on Tuesday. The club was pleased to have so genial a person as their vice fill the chair.

A great many of the apple orchards are badly damaged by the bud moth. Where they are there will be no fruit until they are destroyed in some way. The plum trees have but very few blossoms on them.

A week from next Tuesday the first beast of the beef ring will be slaughtered. Those holding shares in the ring will be glad when they have to go for their beef, as pork is not a very good substitute for beef in hot weather.

There was no league here last week owing to a social in the league at Kinsale. Our league was well represented there and were well paid for going. Some very instructive addresses were given by the rev. gentlemen present.

Some of the older sports attended a rather sumptuous repast at Kinsale on Saturday night. Not being of the party we are unable to give an account of programme, but judging from all reports a most enjoyable night was spent by all present.

Several of the boys wended their way to Audley on Friday to witness a foot ball match between Audley and Pickering College teams, which resulted in 1 to 0 in Pickering's favor. Come Audley you can do better than that if you only try a little more. You have the stuff there if you only make use of it.

Dear readers, we now extend to you our last invitation to attend the grand foot ball tournament to be held here on the grounds on the 25th inst. Without a doubt it is going to be the greatest day for foot ball and other games that has ever been for miles around. Two silver cups are to be played for valued at $35.00 and $15.00. Teams from all parts of the country are expected to be present to compete for them. Several other valuable prizes are also to be given away to the best men. A grand programme is being prepared for the concert which is to to be given in the evening by the best talent obtainable. We trust every reader of the CHRONICLE will make an effort to be present for part of the celebration if not for all of it. Refreshments will be provided on the grounds.

Mr. J. Stone, of Greenbank, shipped a fine lot of fat cattle last Saturday. Other dealers have made good shipments this week. The farmers are complaining about the low prices.

During Tuesday and Wednesday the meeting of the Whitby district was held in the methodist church in town, when a good deal of business in connection with this district was transacted.

I am blamed by some Prince Albert people for writing the correspondence from that burg last week. I had nothing to do with it directly or indirectly, and knew nothing about it until I read it in the CHRONICLE.

The concert given by the pupils of number four division was a success in every way. The little folks did exceedingly well in their different parts. Proceeds nearly $25 to secure books and papers for the pupils in Miss McNeill's room.

A social and reception was held in the baptist church last Tuesday evening to welcome their new pastor, the Rev. P. Mode. Appropriate addresses were delivered and an excellent programme given during the evening exercises.

Mr. A. Ross is now unloading forty cars of number one Manitoba wheat, weighing 64 lbs. to the bushel. This is a fine chance for millers and bakers to secure good wheat for making the best of flour. Good judges say, it is the finest wheat ever brought into this town.

A scow load of gravel was brought here for the corporation last Friday. Preparations were made for an early start on Saturday morning to unload, when no scow nor gravel was to be seen, upon closer examination it was found that scow with gravel had sunk during the night.

Our well known citizen, Street Commissioner McKnight, while unloading gravel from a scow lying at the dock, was unfortunate last Monday in falling backwards and dislocating his right shoulder. He is improving and is able to be around, but it will be some weeks before he will be able to attend to his duties.
