On Thursday of last week Messrs. Wice, certificates. Orvis, Richardson and Silver took train for Algoma, and are at the present time spying out the land. Should they bring back encouraging reports of the land a large exodus of Kinsaleites and others will go forth in the spring and possess the goodly land. Many are anxiously waiting their arrival home.

According to previous announcements this circuit is in the future to be jointly worked, Pickering village being one of the appointments on the Greenwood circuit, making it a double header, with two married men. As the conference in their wisdom seen fit to so ordain things we suppose all interested will make the best of the change, and settle down to business. How, ever, we are inclined to think our now better outpost, viz: Pickering village, has now learned a lesson. Not being able to get more than they desired, we trust that as a final termination for at least this year has substantially taken place every person interested will fall into line and God's kingdom will still advance and much good

Death of John Munro.

Died in the 11th con. of Reach on Saturshire, Scotland, and emigrated to Canada with his uncle, John Munro, in 1834, and lived in Reach near Manchester. In 1847 he took up land in what now comprises the old homestead. In 1849 he was married to Mary Ann, daughter of the late James Sutherland, of Mariposa, and they lived comfortably and happy until Mrs. Munro's death in May 1894, and continued to live on the old hamestead until his death a few days ago. In politics the late Jno. Munro was an ardent Conservative and took an active part in the interests of his party. In religion he was a strong Presbyterian and a warm triend of his church, having held the position of elder of St. John's Presbyterian church in Port Perry for nearly 20 years, afterwards of the Port Perry church between Mr. and Mrs. C, B.
