FRIDAY, OCT. 9, 1896.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Remember Bengough to-night. Scott repairs all kinds of pumps. Fall wheat is looking well in this district. Mr. Alfred Taylor, Toronto, spent Sunday evening at home.

Men's tweed pants only $1 per pair at W. Walters.

Hardwood dining tables, 4 leaves, only $5. W. Till's.

Mr. G. E. Gross left on Saturday for Chicago to visit his brother Alfred.

Mr. Geo. Decker, Toronto, formerly of Pickering, was in town for a few days last week.

Many people have passed the remark in our hearing that autumn leaves are unusually beautiful this fall.

Mrs. Judge Dartnell and Mrs. Gross left on Tuesday last for a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Chicago.

A number of the sporting fraternity of our town took in the hunt club races held at the Woodbine, Toronto, last week.

Dr. Cuthbertson, once a partner of Dr. Warren's, has been appointed to one of the most responsible positions in the leading Chicago hospital.

A couple of loads of our young people held a successful surprise party on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. Jos. Gormley, Liverpool Market.

Messrs W. H. Greenwood, T. N. Davey, A. W. Smith, N. H. McGillivray, E. Jones, B. Abraham, and Miss M. Eastwood, have gone to their respective universities to take up the 1897 course.

Senator Price, of Price & Reed, seedsmen, Albany, N.Y., left here on Friday last with four carloads of fancy peas, the result of this season's growth. He paid Mr. James Leask, Taunton, $527.50 for his crop.

Apples may be low in price this fall, but all the same many thousands of dollars will be left in this county in return for this fruit. When one has so many he can afford to sell at a low figure. We believe the price will advance before the snow flies.

Very much sympathy is expressed for Mr. J. Evelyn and family, east of this town, on account of Mrs. Evelyn's death, which occurred last Thursday, as announced in our last issue. It is stated that she contracted typhoid fever whilst attending the sick bed of her same daughter. Thus a mother's undying love and faithfulness cost her this life.

Births.
At Whitby on the 28th ult., the wife of E. O. McCrohan of a daughter.
At Whitby, on Monday, Oct 6th, the wife of Mr Wm Brown, of a daughter.

At Georgetown on Friday last in a semi-final match the home team defeated Stouffville nine straight games. At the return match at Stouffville on Monday Georgetown were beaten by 6 goals to 4.

Guy Bros. Coming.

The above announcement is all that is necessary to draw a crowd. They will be here next Tuesday night. They never fail to give a good show, and they never fail to come round once a year. The public may be said to be their regular customers. They are announced to do better than ever this year.

Experimental sale.
What you may expect. We have received nearly a car load of boots, shoes, slippers, rubbers and overshoes, trunks and valises, and we are going to experiment as to how small a profit we can sell at to do business. The more we sell the cheaper we will sell. We will refund money if you do not find us the cheapest. Call early at the New Shoe Store. M. W. Collins, East Side.

James Ray discharged.
The charge against James Ray for stealing oats from Westey's barn on the Kingston road west of here, after several adjournments, has been dismissed. Our readers will recall that the offence is supposed to have been committed last winter. Ray had some money and started a sort of partnership with one James. Ray was the loser all the way through, and not only this was held to account for a good deal of mischief done by James, who cannot now be found to answer for it all. It was a case of a young man getting in with parties whom he knew nothing about, and who were cunning enough to leave him to answer for their misdeeds.

Town Council.
Met Monday night. Coun. Deverell read a report from the streets committee regarding payments as follows: John Foley, $1.58; J. A. Hoyt, lumber, $58.55; Wm Hopper, work, $20.65; Jno McCarl, work, $21.13; Jno Bravener, teaming, $38.25; W. H. Warner, $1.77; J. McIntyre, $11.11. The report passed. Coun. Noble reported for the committee on relief ordering payment of an account of $14 to D. R. Vickers. The report passed. Deputy Pringle read a report from the finance committee ordering that John McCarl and Wm Hopper be paid $3 each for services as special constables at Ontario Durham exhibition. The report passed and the council adjourned.

Some Newspaper Snaps.
$1. The Weekly Sun, (Farmers' Sun), 8 pages, chiefly controlled and edited by Prof. Goldwin Smith, and THE CHRONICLE, 8 pages of county news, in all 16 pages weekly, for $1 to Jan. 1, 1898.
$1.25. The Weekly Globe, 16 pages of general news weekly, and THE CHRONICLE, 8 pages of local news weekly, to Jan. 1, 1896, for $1.25.
$2. The Saturday Mail Empire, 24 pages illustrated, the Weekly Mail-Empire, and THE CHRONICLE, for $2 a year (the price of the Saturday m.-ill alone).

$2.50. The Toronto Daily World and THE CHRONICLE, $2.50 per annum.

These are not briller plate sheets printed in Toronto type foundries and palmed off on the public as newspapers.

The Ontario & Durham Fair.
The managers of this fair are just now figuring out its future prospects. The total cash receipts of the year were about $200, out of which they have awarded $2,241.25 in prizes. There is a debt in promissory notes of $5,100, $4,400 of this being assumed by several directors when the grounds were changed to the present park site. Of the original signers of this $4,400 note it is stated that Messrs J. D. Howden, John Miller, J. H. Long and H. M. Ross are the only responsible parties, although no person appears to know exactly whose names are on the note or the exact conditions of its covenant. This note has to be retired at once as the money is required by the estate from which it was advanced. It depends upon the success of the directors in settling it depends the fair's future to a large extent. There is another note of $700 arising out of deficits in current expenses, and the interest on the two notes comes to over $300 per annum. The association pays over $150 for printing, $150 for the secretary's salary, $150 for lighting and constables at the fair, $150 for the band, and many other incidental expenses. It is easy to see that no reduction can be made in the debt this year, even if current expenses can be met. Many of the directors of this show are more drones, the only service they give being to come in fair day and pass in free and take their meals at the society's expense. Found of them did not even come in to be a bill of expense to it this year. They also join with other kickers in criticizing those who do the work. Bad weather has been the great difficulty, but the general opinion is that the management of the fair has been somewhat hildbound. Feeling that a big debt would fall on them in case of its collapse the directors have been too careful. We believe that if the bad weather streak could be shaken off and a first class programme offered to the public each year and the prize lists issued a month or six weeks earlier, this show would redeem itself in four or five years.

A drive through the country enables one to notice that the Whitty Hedge Company's hedges have taken a good grow this summer.
We will give the CHRONICLE, Weekly Globe and Farmer's Sun 15 months for $1.50. This is the best offer ever made by any Canadian newspaper.
Rev. Caleb Parker, of Bowmanville, has accepted an invitation to the pastorate of the Western Methodist church, Napanee, subject to the approval of the Stationing committee.
Rev. Thos Manning, the able and popular pastor of the Methodist tabernacle here, has been invited to take charge of the Cambridge street church in Lindsay next year, and has accepted.
Mrs. Henry Gould and Miss Gould have moved back to town from Belleville. They will reside in the Perry house recently vacated by Mr. L. Fairbanks, who has purchased and improved the Mudge property and moved into it.
Mr. J. E. Disney, Uxbridge, walked in upon us Monday. He has not been long enough in Uxbridge yet to look like a sand rat, in fact, he has not changed much except for the better. He runs a full stock of groceries, flour and feed out there.
Miss Mary Madill, one of the most agreeable and popular young ladies of the town, has gone to Boston to take up hospital work and secure a certificate as a professional nurse. Having been an active Sunday school worker in the Presbyterian church, she has joined in making her own hand some presents before her departure.
