Learn to recognize Kidney Disease by its Symptoms.
Avoid Great Dangers

Never Neglect your Trouble in its Minor Forms—Never Despair at any Stage—Dodd's Kidney Pills Always Cure.

It is far easier to prevent them to cure the serious forms and complications of kidney disease.

We don't say this because we doubt the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills, but it is better to avoid the wear and tear by curing at the minor stage with a single box.

The dangers of every sufferer are of a slow and fatal nature:—Not to know what ails; to neglect when he knows; and to despair when everyone says he is going to die.

If you are not posted in the symptoms of kidney disease write to the Dodds Medicine Company, Toronto, Ont., for their Calendar for 1897. It will cost you only a postal card and is worth a hundred.

If you suffer and neglect kidney disease, remember that nineteen out of every twenty deaths result from this disease and that every such death is prevented by using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

To those who suffer and despair of cure, we briefly say: We have never yet heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills failing to cure.

We have letters from more than a thousand who were cured when given up by physicians and friends. We have published many scores of such letters and the writers are still living in health and comfort.

Over one hundred thousand persons in Canada have been cured of kidney disease in its simpler forms—cured by from one to three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any kidney disease. If in need of kidney treatment don't permit yourself to buy any thing short of the original and genuine. Why should you try experiments to benefit those who say they have something "just as good?"

LINDSAY.

Thursday at noon as the regular train was going up Victoria avenue a team of horses attached to a wagon became frightened and started to race the train up the hill. After going a short distance they attempted to cross the track. The horses escaped injury but the wagon was destroyed. As no one was in the wagon no fatalities are reported.

The annual meeting of the curling club was held in the club rooms last Friday night. There was a very large attendance, and many new members were balloted in. The following officers were elected: Patron, Geo. McHugh, M.P.; pres, Geo. A. Little; vice pres, F. Knowles; sec, J. C. Harstone; chap, Rev. L. S. Hughson; treas, J. D. Flavell; skips, foreign and also for the Ontario Tankard competition, W. McLennan and J. D. Flavell. Messrs Little and McMillan were elected skips in the Dryden cup competition. It was decided that new members should be given as much chance to play as possible in friendly matches. Judging by the enthusiasm of the members, and the large showing thereof, the outlook for the season of '97 is a very hopeful one.

Minnie Fee, the beloved daughter of Mr R. E. Lindsay, passed peacefully away on Thursday, Oct. 8th, after about two weeks of severe affliction. Minnie was kind and generous and thus made for herself many friends by whom she will be much missed. Though passing away while yet young she had for a considerable time been a member of the Queen street Methodist church. She was within her own sphere an active worker and a faithful member of the young people's class. She was very active and energetic in the work of the Epworth league and it was stated in the meeting last Monday that in the list of arrangements this meeting was to have been led by Minnie; some touching references were also made to the departed. The meeting was conducted by the chairman of the prayer meeting committee. Miss Fee was vice president and an active worker of the mission band, and was appointed delegate to the women's missionary convention which met in the Cambridge street Methodist church. She looked forward with much interest to the convention, but alas; when it met she was struggling with the fatal disease which terminated her bright and happy life. She passed away during the session, and when the members heard of her death they passed a resolution of sympathy with the afflicted family. The funeral on Saturday was largely attended. Rev. J. W. Totten conducted a choir service at the house and also at the grave.—Warder.

Cholly Yachtsman—Oh, could I be your mainstay. She (looking at the clock)—You are. No one else stays after half past 11.

Bixby—What idiots girls are when they imitate men. Marie (flattered)—Do you think so? That proves how excellent the imitation is.

Merritt—She has such a pretty foot, I don't know where you would find any thing smaller, do you? Cora—There is the shoe she wears.

Oh, you are too fly, remarked the wind to the kite. Well, I notice you always give me a good send-off, retorted the kite.

Mother—Fannie, what is the capital of Connecticut? Fannie (severely)—I don't know. I told you we finished geography last term.

Fogg says they are quite stylish at his boarding house. The servant is not in livery, but the breakfast is, six mornings in the week.

Nephew—Do you know, Uncle, I dreamt last night that you lent me $10? Uncle (generously)—Is that so? Ah, well, you may keep them, Otto!

Why, Mr. Councillor, you are trying to open the front door with your cigar? Really, now! I wonder if I've been smoking the latches?

Miss Paase indulged in somewhat ad hering sarcasm when she was talking of you. It is her privilege, poor thing. She is somewhat withering herself.

Is that performer familiar with your music I she asked at the concert. He must be, replied the composer, who was writing; he takes such liberties with it.

ENFIELD.
Mr J Stark is erecting a handsome brick cottage on the same site as the one which was burned. It will add greatly to the appearance of the place.
Inspector Tilley called on our school a few days ago and reported everything in good running order.
As our present teacher, C. L. Mackey, is leaving at the end of the year, many applicants are seeking the position. We have no doubt our trustees will secure from the number a good teacher, who will help to uphold Enfield's good name.
The Epworth League of this place has re-elected officers as follows:—Pres, Mrs T Bradley; sec, Miss E Campbell; treas, Mrs Hurlbut; organist, Miss J Ashton.
Miss L Gallagher from Oshawa is in midat again, renewing old acquaintances.
Mr F Ashton has completed the road job east of the village in a first class manner.
Judging from the numerous sales in other parts, we feel that we must be a favored community. Sales here are very scarce.
Mr D Trainer and family have moved to follow the business of store-keeping. We are sorry to lose Mr. Trainer, and wish him success in his new work.
The officers of the S. O. T. division for the quarter are, W. P. F. Fordiff; W. A. F. Reynolds; sec, C. Mackey; A. Sec, J. Ashton; F. S. L. Pascoe; treas, E. Wotten; O. S. F. Hurlbut; I. S. E. Hurlbut; con, A. Forsyth; A. Con, E. Torriff; Cha, Mrs Hurlbut; P. W. P. F. Reynolds.
Our choir is giving some excellent music now. The new books and new numbers seem to give new life to it.

MONEY SAVERS
For Families Who Desire to Economize.
Diamond Dyes the Agents.

It would require many large volumes to give a complete record of all the strong testimonial letters written by the women of the country in favor of Diamond Dyes. These indispensable aids in good housekeeping are gaining in public favor every week, and once tried, they become permanent home favorites.

Just think of it! One package of Diamond Dye will color from one to six pounds of goods, according to shade desired. This is wonderful work when the small expense is considered.
Your last year's jacket, suit, cape, dress, and your husband's suit and children's clothes may be soiled, faded and unsightly; but with a ten cent package of Diamond Dyes you can work wonders, and make the old things look like new for this season's wear.
Have you ever tried this work with Diamond Dyes? One effort in this direction of true economy will convince you that Diamond Dyes are money savers to the family.

True Bill against Lady Scott.
Lord Russell's Mother-in-Law Must Stand Trial at the Old Bailey.
London, Oct. 20.—The Old Bailey grand jury to-day returned a true bill against Lady Tina Scott, the mother of Countess Russell, who was arrested on Oct. 9, at the instance of her son-in-law, Earl Russell, upon a charge of having criminally libelled him. Lady Scott was arraigned on Oct. 12, and committed for trial under bonds of £2000. True bills were also found against Frederick Kast, a groom, and John Cockerton, a marine engineer, who were also arrested and held for trial in connection with the case in the sum of $500 each.

A MESSAGE TO MEN.
Proving that true honesty and true philanthropy still exist.
If any man, who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from youthful folly, excess or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially, and free of charge the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness. I have nothing to sell and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-being to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and an desire therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

Infammatory Rheumatism.—Mr. S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil for inflammation of the joints, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me."

May Be A Murder.
Woodstock, Oct. 20.—In the police court this morning the preliminary hearing of the case against Mrs. Gardiner and William McComas, held in connection with the death of the former's husband, was concluded. Both of the prisoners were committed to stand their trial at the next assizes on a charge of murder. All the parties in the case are colored. On the morning of September 26th, a pistol shot was heard in Gardiner's house and on investigation Gardiner was found dead with a bullet hole in his head. McComas was in the house at the time, and though both denied all knowledge of the affair he and Mrs. Gardiner were placed under arrest. The evidence showed that McComas was a frequent visitor at Gardiner's house, generally in the husband's absence.

With deep sorrow we announce the death of Mary Pascoe, relict of the late Edward Pascoe, who died at the old homestead on Friday, Oct. 9th, after some weeks of suffering which she bore with great fortitude. She was an earnest and devoted christian and always attended divine worship when possible. The funeral on Monday to Eldad was largely attended by friends and neighbors showing the esteem and respect in which she was held. Six of her grandsons acted as pall bearers. The services were conducted by Rev. E. E. Howard assisted by Rev. S. G. Rorke. Deceased was in her 83rd year. When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—be limited to a very rigid diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, and windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body is suffering. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

Distress in the Back—Disturbed Sleep—Cured by Two Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.
BRALIN, Oct. 19, (Special)—There has occurred here another instance of the wisdom of using Dodd's Kidney Pills in any case of unexplained kidney trouble, promptly, at the outset—This was in the case of Mr. A. E. Ferguson who on being interviewed said—"I had been suffering for some time with distress in the back, nervousness and disturbed sleep. But reading in the paper one day the particulars of a case very much like my own I decided to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and procured one box. Being helped by the first few doses I continued taking until I had used two boxes with the happy result of a perfect cure."

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. C. C. Osceon,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
