The North Ontario contested election case will be tried at Cannington on Nov. 14th. --- Hon. John Dryden has been speechmaking in the local campaign in South Essex during the past week. --- Reports received by the Ottawa government show that butter from the Canadian northwest can be profitably shipped to England. --- The great wheat boom just now is expected to draw many farmers to the wheat belt in the Canadian northwest. --- The Toronto papers report a settlement of the Manitoba school question on the basis of allowing religious teaching after school hours, or, in other words, from 3.30 to 4 p. m. — A bye-election for the Ontario legislature was held in South Essex on Monday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. W. D. Balfour, resulting in the election of Auld, Liberal, by a majority of 1071. -- Hon. Clifford Sifton has and a woman killed at a railway crossing on been nominated as Liberal candidate for Thursday. The English apple market. The Bristol, Eng., agent of the Canadian government writes as follows: "Apples from Montreal have been selling at from ten shillings to twelve shillings a barrel at public auction. The English crop has been a total failure, and, in addition, recent storms have simply ruined the orchards. During the early part of this month the English crop must all be put on the market, as it will not keep, and later on prices will be better. There is just one thing to be remembered, that the demand is limited, and any extravagant shipments to load up the market will certainly be attended with loss. On no account must rubbish be sent, but the very best picked fruit "

It works better at the start and will last twice as long. Wind storms cannot harm them. Repairs can be had for them as easily as for inferior Canadian mills, and not one-tenth as much repairs are necessary. A man must be full of patriotism who pays more for a Canadian made mill and doesn't get half as good a motor. Compare mills and prices before buying, as I can undersell them all. W H Piper, Whitby.
