LOCAL LAONICS.

Men's three ulsters, only $4.50, at W. G. Walters.

Birth—On Nov. 9th, Mrs. W. J. Luke, of a daughter.

Hardwood dining tables, 4 leaves, only $5, at W. G. Walters.

Don't buy a stove until you see Lake McIntyre.

Oranges, lemons, Malaga grapes and cabbages at Tod's, Yates' old stand.

Mr. Scott, of McMaster University, Toronto, preached in the Baptist church last Sunday.

Mr. Jno. Yule, who is working in a drug store in Grand Valley, was in town for a few days this week.

Photos from $1.00 per dozen upwards, at O'Brien & Steinhilber's. Gallery open Tuesday, Friday and Saturday of each week.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. are getting up the celebrated "Temple of Fame," and purpose giving it in the music hall some time next month.

Kelly has an Irish name, but he knows how to sing "The March of the Cameron Men"—Toronto News. Music hall, Monday evening, Nov. 10th.

Master Win Leask, son of James Leask near London, won a $10 watch as first prize in boys' under 16 class at Markham plow & match last week, also $2 special for best crown and 6 turkeys, and $1.50 special for best finish.

The Canadian Lumberman issues a special number this month. The issue is well illustrated, and conspicuous among those on the frontispiece is Mr. Geo. Cormack of this county. Lumbering interests are enormous and are well represented by such a journal.

The Gazette tells a lie to make out that we charged twice as much for printing for the general elections as it did. We did more than three times as much printing as the Gazette did, and did not collect our whole bill. Our cotem is a little off his nut on another point. It compares the CHRONICLE to the New York Recorder, which is utterly untrue. This is also untrue, as the Recorder is running far better than it ever did, and is one of the smartest papers in New York.

The Music Recital at the College.

A delightful recital by Mrs. Bradley's pupils in vocal music was given in Frances Hall at the Ontario Ladies' College Monday afternoon. The fair singers were the Misses Dunlop, Belle McBrien, Millar, M. and E. Everson, E. Greenwood, E. Thomas, Amy Wilson, E. James and E. Hill.

Dr. Lew Barker Promoted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the trustees of the Johns Hopkins University yesterday two promotions in the faculty were made. Dr. Lewellyn F. Barker, associate in anatomy at the Johns Hopkins medical school, son of Rev. J. F. Barker, recently of Whitby, was raised to the rank of associate professor of anatomy. Dr. Barker graduated with the degree of bachelor of medicine at the University of Toronto in 1890. He took up graduate work in pathology at the Hopkins, and held a fellowship in '92-'93 and '94-'95.

Dr. Gunn's Reminiscences

We have received the following letter from a Chicago man who once resided here: THE CHRONICLE, WHITBY, ONT.—SIR,—I have read with unusual interest your article by Dr. Gunn on "Old Reminiscences." There is much of historical interest in the early life of Ontario county, which I feel some would be glad to read by your subscribers, both at home and more distant locations. This could not be better given by anyone than by Dr. Gunn, who has been intimately associated with most of the families of its early history, and has been connected with nearly all of its many changes and improvements. I feel that your many readers will join me in a hope that you may secure a series of such writings from the pen of Dr. Gunn. H. B. P.

Potatoes.

All through western Ontario potatoes are rotting badly. This decay is not the regular potato disease or rot, Phytophthora infestans, but evidently it is caused by the tubers being planted too late, being dug before they are ripe, or before the skin is set properly, and having some of the large tubers exposed to the sun and frost. This regular potato rot starts long before the stalks wilt, or when they are green. The disease starts at the top of the stalk and goes down to the tuber at the bottom, and every potato goes. The rot is propagated by spores rapidly, and whole fields are destroyed in a few days. A great many farmers in the potato growing sections of the district did not put in their main sections until the middle of June and the drought and heat of July naturally drew a late crop, with the results mentioned. When a potato is slightly frozen in the ground, as a great many have been this fall, no perceptible injury may have been done for a time, but the tuber turns black in the cellar or heap and soon rots. Then if the skin is not set, and peels off—that is, not ripe, the potato is apt to turn black after a time and be unfit for use. Housekeepers should pay attention to this phase of the potato question and only buy such as are properly ripe or matured. With the advance in wheat and damage by the rust the chances are that potatoes will be dear before next spring.

The fall assizes commence here next Monday.

Miss Kate Arkland, Chicago, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Adams.

New stock wide flannelettes, only 7 cents yard, at W. G. Walters.

White wool sheeting, 2 yds wide, only 60c yard, at W. G. Walters.

Try a loaf of Tod's home-made bread, made from Ogilvie's Hungarian patent flour.

6 piece solid walnut parlor suite, plush, with silk plush bands, for $32, worth $45, at W. Till's.

Mr. W. R. Howse, Hamilton, was here on Tuesday, settling the $4000 note he holds on behalf of the Chisholm estate against several of the directors of the Ontario & Durham Exhibition.

Don't forget the great bargains on Saturday the 14th at the New Shoe Store. Boots and shoes worth $1, $2 and $3, for 50c, 75c and $1. All kinds for men, women and children. Everybody call and get snags. M. W. Collins' Red Store, east side.

Since the American elections the Whitty Evaporating Works has been able to make a sale of a carload of evaporated apples, which would not have occurred had Bryan been elected. It is a bad wind that blows no good to anybody.

The Bell Rose Emslie Concert Company will give a very interesting and varied entertainment in the music hall on Monday evening the 10th inst., under the auspices of the Methodist Sabbath school. Plans reserved at Allen's drug store. Plan opens on Monday, 9th inst. Popular prices.

The Gazette makes a very mean reference to a libel suit which has been forced upon us, in spite of the fact that we did our best. The difference between Mr. Newton and us in this matter is that when he got into a scrape for willful slander he put his property (even to his clothes) into his wife's name, while on our part we have never willfully slandered anybody, but when should and do not crawl under a woman's petticoats.

Ex-Warden Allan Gray and Mr. Abraham, of Scott, visited town on Saturday last on business. Mr. Gray has no idea who will be the Scott candidates for the county council, and does not expect much success for the new county council scheme, which he claims does away with majority rule, as in this the voters can elect as many members as they oppose two-thirds. He thinks the people will have no faith in important measures like the house of industry passed by such a body, unless they are first submitted to a vote of the county ratepayers.

Home Made Bread

Parties wishing the above can be supplied by calling at the residence of Mr. Henry Gould.

Take Notice and pay up.

We have been compelled to make costs for a lot of delinquent subscribers, and will do the same with all the others who are behind. As far as we can arrange to attend court. This appears to be the only way of making some people pay, and we have reluctantly adopted it. No person who owes us a year's subscription or more need be surprised at receiving summonses to attend the division court.

Hayward's Locals

On Saturday—Ladies' trimmed and untrimmed hats; ostrich plumes, wings, and flowers at half price.

Special men's and boy's overcoats and ulsters. Men's overcoats, black and brown, velvet collars, $4, regular $7.50; ulsters $5, regular $8.

Gold watch for $3.75. Get a ticket, with particulars. Warranted for 5 years.

Special sale dress goods and flannels now on.

The Homiletic Review

A brief and compact outline is given in the Homiletic Review for November of the first three lectures of Dr. John Watson ("Ian MacLaren") on Preaching, just delivered in Yale University, on the Lyman Beecher foundation. This popular preacher groups much that is of lasting interest under his three titles: "The Genesis of a Sermon," "The Technique of a Sermon," and "The Problem of Preaching." Funk & Wagnalls, publishers, New York.

Browning and Poetry

The lecture on Robert Browning by Miss Eleanor M. Ladd of Buffalo, in Frances Hall at the Ontario Ladies' College Friday night was a treat. It was the highest value. Miss Ladd, who is herself a gifted writer of poetry, afforded townspeople an opportunity in the college chapel on Saturday afternoon of hearing some of these beautiful poems. Varied in sentiment, but always graceful and elegant the reading of these exquisite productions elicited the heartiest of applause from the audience of students and citizens. Should Miss Ladd again visit Whitby she will no doubt be greeted by a large audience that gathered upon this occasion.

The Sun Life Assurance Co. of Canada.

This strong and reliable company is now represented in this country by Rev. J. S. Clarke of our town. No other company in Canada is doing so large a business, or paying as great profits to its policy holders. As high as five per cent. per annum has been paid in premiums at the last division of work. The sun not only pays what it promises, but in a number of instances much more than it has promised at the time of making the contract. Mr. Clarke will be greatly pleased to explain the plans and advantages of the company to all persons who may have the most remote idea of taking out assurance. Call on him at his residence and you will be satisfied.

Taken by Surprise.

The news comes from well informed sources that the subscribers to the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, are receiving their wonderful premium plate entitled "The Orphan's Prayer." Great indeed is the surprise, and great is the admiration this picture is creating. The Reverend Edward Everett Hale of Boston, the eminent Divine, is first amongst the enthusiastic admirers, and his taste is beyond question. Artists, connoisseurs and other judges of acknowledged power are loud in their praise of the "Orphan's Prayer," all joining in heartfelt thankfulness to the publishers of the Family Herald for venturing to place in the homes of the people so grand a picture at so trifling a cost. We understand the Family Herald for a full year and the "Orphan's Prayer" are secured for One Dollar, a sum that seems but a trifle when one looks at the value the subscriber gets for it.

Hotel Men Organized.

The hotel men of South Ontario met here on Wednesday to organize an association for mutual protection and to arrange for opposition to some amendments to the license laws which are being passed by the Provincial legislature organizations. The following officers were elected: President, J. E. Schiller, vice-president for Oshawa, Robt. Kirkpatrick; for Port Perry J. M. Brooks; secretary-treasurer E. Armstrong. The amendments sought by the temperance party would greatly reduce the number of licensed hotels, and would compel them all to close their bars at 7 o'clock every night and 4 o'clock on Saturdays. Our advice to the hotel men would be to advocate fewer hotels, and the closing of bars at 10 o'clock at night. There are too many at present to enable them all to live up to the law honestly, and when one who is sinking money away in saving himself by illegal selling or gambling processes for drinks he is tempted to take advantage of it. To reduce the number to a living basis would obviate this, and render all more comfortable. A hotel man should be given a chance to keep the law and live.
