County council

People of the town are beginning to talk about county council matters and to consider whether they should put a man or not. Only two men can be elected for the three municipalities of Uxbridge township, Scott township and Uxbridge town. There are several candidates in both the township and townships because of their large population and thus the presentation of a combination of county council and municipalities.

William, who, until a few years ago, had a farm on the main island named Waddell. ago this son, while on the island, was taken to Mr. Waddell's house, where he was one of the sudden deaths. The young man— he is only about 22 years of age—kept quite for a few days, but then when his father was over in Beaverton, and only his mother and the young children were in the house, he said that he would have no peace of mind until he had killed somebody, and with a large knife, started for his mother. Frightened though she was, she succeeded by kind words, in inducing him to postpone his intention for a few days, and he was soon after decoyed to Beaverton, where he was put under arrest. He is now in Whitby jail, awaiting an order for commitment to a lunatic asylum.—News-
