

DEC 11 1896.

Whitby Town Local.
The Chronicle is printed.
Very few people have any idea of the amount of work entailed in printing the CHRONICLE. A newspaper is another word for a printed sheet, while the other is a name for a written one. If the CHRONICLE were sent out to its subscribers in written manuscript and bound in book form, the local news of the county in each issue would make a book ten to twelve inches thick, and weighing nearly two pounds. Besides one sheet to ten columns of original matter, written by its editors, this office receives always from forty to sixty well-written news-letters from well-trained correspondents. These contain a reliable history of the 45,000 people who inhabit this large county, and in looking the items over one will never fail to see the names of old friends or acquaintances whom he has probably not seen or heard of for ten or twenty years. There is a heavy expense in setting all this news in type, such a newspaper as the CHRONICLE costing more to print than do the patent sheets printed in Toronto, of which there are usually two in every town or village. A staff of ten typewriters spend the day of all these setting and distributing the pieces of type news letters, over 300,000 news columns being used each week. Of course of presses are not any thing wonderful, but we can easily print the big city daily, and the man is yet to be heard of who ever said that he saw a copy of the CHRONICLE which was not well printed. John Larke, for many years publisher of the Oshawa Vindicator, frequently remarked to the writer that he had never seen one so poorly printed. Mr. John Stanton, who is still mechanical superintendent of the CHRONICLE office, selected the type to start at forty years ago, and had never yet seen one so poorly printed. The subscription price of the CHRONICLE was originally $2 per annum, but, though continually improved from the first, the price has been reduced by half. It always stood for order and decency, and, though prone to make enemies in pursuit of this policy, has always exercised a commanding influence in county and other local affairs.

Messrs L. Chosie and P. Powers of Oshawa, were in town on Monday, looking at the bake oven in the rear of Gilpin's store, with a view to starting the baking of bread or peddling in Oshawa. If they are not successful in securing the premises, their bread will be baked at Mathison's bakery.

The Gazette says our town public men have no enterprise in them. For months past it has been also asserting that they have no honesty in them either. Will our coten be so good as to nominate from among our citizens a set of public men who would meet its ideas as to the honest and proper management of town matters. Up to date Mr. Newton has always been tearing down but never building up. We do not suppose any body pays the slightest attention to his talk, but the man's despatches is disagreeable all the same.

In another column will be found an advertisement of farmers' institute meetings to be held in South Ontario this winter. For two or three years, past expense and first class addresses have been wasted on empty benches here, as the farmers did not appear to take sufficient interest in the meetings to attend. There has not been a meeting here for years where half the audience were farmers. There are a few good and prosperous farmers who always show up, but the others appear to treat scientific knowledge with scorn. Still the government recognizes the absolute necessity of better farming our country, and is pushing the education of the farmer at the country's expense, a thing not done in other lines of business. Farmers would consult their own interests as well as show their appreciation by attending these meetings.

Take Notice and pay up.
We have been compelled to make costs for a lot of delinquent subscribers, and will do the same with all the others who are behind, as fast as we can arrange to attend court. This appears to be the only way of making some people pay, and we have reluctantly adopted it. No person who owes a year's subscription or more need be surprised at receiving summonses to attend the division court.

Collegiate Entertainment.
The entertainment under the auspices of the collegiate literary society will be given on the evening of Tuesday the 22nd, the last day of the school term, instead of on Friday the 18th.

California and Mexico.
Old and experienced travelers will tell you when going west to take the Wabash railroad, because their train service is the finest in America. Their Union depots are the best on the continent. Study a Wabash map and be convinced that it is the shortest and best route to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, and all west and southwestern points. Ask your nearest ticket agent for tickets and time tables of this great railway or J. A. Richardson, Canadian Passenger Agent, northeast corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

The ladies' aid was held at Mr. John Mortson's last Wednesday night, and was very successful, but the crowd were not very big eaters, they had to have a ten cent social on Thursday night to devour the balance. It was well patronized.

The Sons of Temperance are having a lively time this quarter. There seems to be some interest taken in the contest. The captains are S. Brown and B. Richardson. They are both working hard to win. New members are coming in very fast on both sides, but they had better try and keep better order both inside and going home.
Rev. Mr. Thornley of Goodwood is holding revival services here and they are well attended considering the dark nights of the past week.
Mr. John Alcock seems to be having a big time with the latest horse he got. Sometimes it will and sometimes it will not.
Some of the young folks from here attended the hot supper, of the Christian church on the fourth line on Thanksgiving night. The Rennie family of Wick provided excellent music, and addresses were given by Rev. Messrs. Washington and Cowle. The proceeds of the supper and a social held the following night were over $60.

Fast-Walking Farm Horses.
Any good breed of walking horses, or any horse which has thorough blood in its veins, can by practice be made to walk fast. No common-bred animal can be made a fast walker. A fast walker is made by careful exercise in that gait and it is a delightful one for a traveler if his steed walks four or five miles an hour. It is also very important to the farmer to have a fast walking team, but it depends much on the rider or driver whether a horse ever attains this highly esteemed quality.
