Auctioneer Fairbanks held a great sale of standing timber on Thursday last at the farm of Mr Geo Robinson, 8th concession Whitby township. The timber sold at an average o over $100 per acre, and one portion of it sold at the rate of $152 per acre. This is about three times as much as arable land would sell for, and shows the need of finding coal or some other line of fuel in this province. The Cornwall Standard gives an account of the marriage of two of Mrs J McIntyre's sisters, the Misses Morrow. Miss Josephine married Dr F S McGarman, of Prescott, for lettered notices placed on the bridge at man, of Prescott. The young ladies were Lynds creek, J J.
