The Vindicator's mind is undergoing a severe strain lest the CHRONICLE may not have a liberal suit in hand. If one did not know that Bro Nicholson's head is so narrow that both of his eyes come out of one hole, his course as a journalist would suggest such a possibility. It is the desire of this man as the editor of the Vindicator that the public may look to the newspapers for charity, good taste and general counsel; but when the public comes to sit up such journals in the light of their venomous conduct towards each other, instead of being honored and respected the newspapers are placed beneath contempt.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. S. Barker, "Maple Grove," when his second daughter, Miss Polly Barker and Mr. J. A. Thompson, one of our well known merchants, were the contracting parties. The Rev. Dr. Marvin, of Chatham, tied the nuptial knot. Miss Lily Barker acted as bridesmaid while Mr. Johnson, night operator at Darlington, supported the groom. The bride looked very pretty dressed, while white carnations were the only ornaments worn. After the ceremony about twenty guests sat down to well laden tables. After the honeymoon which is being spent in Toronto, Mr and Mrs Thompson will take up their residence on Simcoe St., north. John is one of our most estimable young men and we wish he and his wife all the joy it is possible to obtain in this troublesome world of ours.

The children of the separate school give their annual concert in the music hall on New Years afternoon. This school has built up a reputation for itself, and with their magnificent series of cantatas by their efforts Miss M. O'Brien, the contralto from Hamilton, should be in itself a drawing card.

Dr R. M. Armstrong, of Toronto, has the dental office of Ross, formerly occupied by Dr. Patterson. Dr. Armstrong has had a large experience in the practice of dentistry and will guarantee first class work at lowest rates. He will open the office on Monday next, Jan. 4th. We wish him every success.

Mr. Jos. Houlden, who is a candidate for councillor in the northeast ward, is a man of good business capacity, who has made a good fast of his own affairs. His business has necessarily made him a public man in every sense, and he should make a good councillor. We hope every elector in the ward will give him a vote.

R. Kirkpatrick, Cedar-Dale, takes a paternal interest in the shinny players of that end of the town, and has got them loaded with the notion that they are just the very stuff to get up anything that can buckle a skate, and they want to meet those young men who meet on the upper pond and play shinny so fast that they melt the ice. Cedar Dale, so Kirk says, wants them to come on New Year's day and learn to play.

Town Nominations Monday night's nominations came off very quietly, but the result shows a wholesale change in the town council. Mr. W. F. Cowan, who for seven years has been one of the most able and popular mayors in Canada, has withdrawn at last, as has also Ex-revee Coulthard, and Ex deputy Dingle, and Ex councillor McLaughlin. These men were all public-spirited and accomplished municipal politicians. Mr. W. J. Hare has been honored with the mayor's chair by acclamation, and a better successor to Mr. Cowan could scarcely have been found. He works very much like a man who for the next seven years will give as good service as did his predecessor. The reeve ships go to three very clever young men, Messrs. E. J. Rowse, F. F. Tamblin, and O. Hezlewood. Each of these men has had sufficient previous experience to make the ratepayers feel safe in giving him a reeve ship. Many new men and several of past experience are either elected or offering for the councillorships. In wards 1 and 3 the members go by in acclamation, while in 2 and 4 there will be a red hot fight for seats in council. The only wards in which there will be a contest are school trustee are Nos. 2 and 3. The following is the list of candidates: Mayor—W. J. Hare, acclamation; reeve—E. J. Rowse, acclamation; 1st deputy—J. F. Tamblin, acclamation; 2nd deputy—O. Hezlewood, acclamation; No. 1 ward—W. E. Dyer, F. E. Ellis, A. R. McLean, acclamation; No. 2 ward—R. C. Grier, Wm. Gleney, J. B. Rogers, R. Sugden, P. H. Pugh; No. 3 ward—Carpus French, James Ross, Jas Provran, acclamation; No. 4 ward—A. Henderson, Jos Holden, Sam McLaughlin, J. F. Grier, Wm. H. Stainton. For school trustees—No. 1, W. J. Burns, acclamation; No. 2, H. T. Carswell, J. O. Guy; No. 3, H. B. Samuels, Wm. Bambridge; No. 4, R. H. James, acclamation.

The only wards in which there will be a contest are school trustee are Nos. 2 and 3. The following is the list of candidates: Mayor—W. J. Hare, acclamation; reeve—E. J. Rowse, acclamation; 1st deputy—J. F. Tamblin, acclamation; 2nd deputy—O. Hezlewood, acclamation; No. 1 ward—W. E. Dyer, F. E. Ellis, A. R. McLean, acclamation; No. 2 ward—R. C. Grier, Wm. Gleney, J. B. Rogers, R. Sugden, P. H. Pugh; No. 3 ward—Carpus French, James Ross, Jas Provran, acclamation; No. 4 ward—A. Henderson, Jos Holden, Sam McLaughlin, J. F. Grier, Wm. H. Stainton. For school trustees—No. 1, W. J. Burns, acclamation; No. 2, H. T. Carswell, J. O. Guy; No. 3, H. B. Samuels, Wm. Bambridge; No. 4, R. H. James, acclamation.

Monday night's nominations came off very quietly, but the result shows a wholesale change in the town council. Mr. W. F. Cowan, who for seven years has been one of the most able and popular mayors in Canada, has withdrawn at last, as has also Ex-revee Coulthard, and Ex deputy Dingle, and Ex councillor McLaughlin. These men were all public-spirited and accomplished municipal politicians. Mr. W. J. Hare has been honored with the mayor's chair by acclamation, and a better successor to Mr. Cowan could scarcely have been found. He works very much like a man who for the next seven years will give as good service as did his predecessor. The reeve ships go to three very clever young men, Messrs. E. J. Rowse, F. F. Tamblin, and O. Hezlewood. Each of these men has had sufficient previous experience to make the ratepayers feel safe in giving him a reeve ship. Many new men and several of past experience are either elected or offering for the councillorships. In wards 1 and 3 the members go by in acclamation, while in 2 and 4 there will be a red hot fight for seats in council.
