Rev. S. H. Eastman occupied the chair during the programme, which was divided into two parts. After the first part of the programme, luncheon was served and all enjoyed a half hour's social chat.

A young man from the south, driving a handsome steed in a new Portland cutter, on Tuesday last undertook to have a race with the trolley. Having succeeded in gaining on it by about a dozen lengths of his cutter, he thought he would cut circles round the car. But in crossing the track his cutter collapsed and his noble steed struck out for better pasture, leaving the cutter and its occupant to get out of the way of the car the best way possible. We are glad to say that nothing serious happened besides the breaking of the cutter.

A big cock fight took place in a barn in the eastern part of this town on Thursday night last. The contest was between Toronto and Oshawa birds and was a hot one, the local chicks winning almost all the money. We have the names of most of the participants, but the list is not complete, and cannot be published this week. Both the Toronto and Oshawa poultry were taken to Lindsay Friday morning, where it is stated another set-to was held, the Oshawa birds being fought as ringers by the Toronto men. We understand that there is a strong probability of all the parties being called upon to answer for their sport.

A correspondent of the Vanguard, whose modesty in withholding his name hides a charitable heart from public view, suggests that the Queen's Jubilee be celebrated in Oshawa by founding a small hospital for the sick. Undoubtedly no more useful public institution could be named, and the size and importance of the town of Oshawa demands that more modern methods be adopted for attending the sick than the home produces. The mayor has also written the Vanguard suggesting that each church and charitable organization in town name one delegate to meet with a combined committee of the town council and board of education with a view to furthering some great charitable work in celebration of the nation's joy on this great occasion.

School Board Meeting. The new school board was organized on Wednesday night last week, the following members being present: Messrs Guy, Scott, Samuels, Burton, R. J. Mackie, James, Thomas, Barnbridge, Craydell, Father Jeffcott, A. Mackie, Burns and Mundy. Mr. L. K. Murson was re-elected chairman by acclamation. The following standing committees were struck: Finance, R. J. Mackie, C. W. Scott, J. O. Guy, H. B. Samuels, R. J. Mackie, School Management, C. A. Jones, W. J. Burns, Alex. Mackie, C. W. Scott, E. Mundy, School Property, R. H. James, C. H. Craydell, W. H. Thomas, W. Barnbridge, J. C. Cowan. It was decided to defer the matter of increased school accommodation.

On the 21st of this month missionary services will be held in Medford Methodist church. Rev. C. Parker, Bowmanville, will have charge of these services.

As Mr. P. Fletcher is in Kingston this week attending annual conference of Queen's college, the Christian church pulpit will be occupied by Mr. J. Gillilan, B.A., Bowmanville, on Sunday.

There will be a special train run from Toronto to Oshawa the night of the piano work. It is expected that a large number of Toronto people will come down as a special fare has been arranged for by the committee.

The concert given by the little folks in Metcalf church on Tuesday evening was well attended, the basement being packed. The little people did exceedingly well, owing to their different parts in an excellent manner.

A large number of Maple Leaf insurance patrons assembled in the town hall, Columbus, last Friday and elected directors as follows:—Hon. John Dryden, R. J. Mackie, A. Annis and R. Rogers. The report showed a grand increase in business as the company is carrying risks of from $700,000 to $800,000.

The Ontario Grand Council R. T. of T. will meet in Oshawa on the 16th, 17th and 18th of this month. The day sessions will be held in the lecture room of Simcoe-st. Methodist church. Tuesday evening, in the body of the church, a public meeting will be held when a welcome will be extended to the officers and delegates by the town council, the ministerial institute and Sons of Temperance. About one hundred and fifty delegates are expected. On Tuesday night an excellent programme of singing and addresses will be given.

The Oshawa curlers did not have even their usual luck in playing for the Ontario tankard at Toronto this year. They set out in a blaze of glory, beating Colborne Wood in the first draw by 40 shots. Great hopes were indulged in by their friends on hearing this, but it was all short-lived, for Sarnia did the turn on our boys in the second draw by 13 shots. It was bad news, for our people had indulged themselves in the hope that Oshawa would bring home the level this year. Nevertheless the boys did their best and manfully and skilfully represented the town.

The Oshawa hockey club was splendidly patronized again on Thursday night, when a last game was played with the Coburgs. The play was done in a most sporting manner, and no dissatisfaction was heard of. Coburg is a little slow for Oshawa on this ice, and the tally at the end showed a score of 10 to 4 in favor of the home team. The victor very properly commends the fair spirit evinced by Oshawa people in cheering visitors and home players alike when skilful play calls for it. This is a species of hospitality too often overlooked in our people. Coburg returned the compliment on Wednesday night at Cobourg, by a score of 3 to 1 against Oshawa.

A very enjoyable time was spent in the S. O. E. hall Tuesday night, when an open meeting was held. The following took part in the programme: Mr. Rainey, D. J. Healey, and bridge, in the chair; song, Mr. Geo. Wilson, reading, Miss Alice Hobbs; duet, Messrs Adams and Paul; song, Miss B. May; reading, Mrs. J. Guinane; recitation, Mrs. Cawker; mouth organ solo, Master Henry Blow; quartette, Misses Millie Everson and Ella Thompson; and Messrs Adams and Paul. Mr. Rainey gave all present good advice, warning the young ladies not to marry a man unless he would be insured in the S. O. E. benefit society. After the programme refreshment was served.

Statesman Oshawa Amateur Minstrels gave a concert here Wednesday evening when our citizens showed their appreciation and turned out in very good numbers. The programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, jokes and repartee, was good for amateurs. They deserve credit for their tone get up. Spectacular mention is made of Mr. P. H. Punshon in his work all through and of endmen, Guy, Pedlar, Rae and Carswell. Mr. W. H. Thomas in his song "Eileen," Mr. Rainey, D. J. Healey, and Mr. Ed. Guy, in his ditty "Keep a Ham mering" were the best on the programme. While Mr. W. H. Coulthart as "Tim Tool" was the favorite of the evening. Messrs. Guy and Pedlar in their parts seemed home. Drumming up a colored band was good, and Mr. C. M. Mundy acted the contrary negro to nicety.

The fight between the town and the fire insurance companies is still on, and the end is not yet in sight, though they are beginning to understand one another better. It is clear that the town will be obliged to have a night watchman and automatic fire alarm, and that hand extinguishers will have to be secured whether or not they are of any use. The town is a three-cornered one in a sense, for if these extras have to be borne, there will be a squabble between the business and household interests as to which will stand the expense. The council is divided in the matter, and at a special meeting on Tuesday night voted down a proposal of Deputy Herzelewood's to have a watchman, a fire alarm, and some extinguishers, and that the business circle pay two-thirds and the whole town one-third. This would mean that less than one-fourth of the total cost would be borne by the householders, and we should say was a fair proposition. The members of the fire and water committee voted against this proposal, and we doubt if they ever find an easier way out of the trouble. If the thing hangs on till the 1st of March the whole town will have to foot the cost of these extras, and those who are now voting against reasonable compromises will then be anxious to shift the blame onto somebody else.

The reformer says: "The eagle-eyed, long beaked editor of the CHRONICLE fan-cies he has discovered a new number of poker dives in Oshawa. It is just an outcry which has, so far, not been worth listening to. If there are such places, he can easily demonstrate their existence by an exercise of a little discretion and a little law. If he means business and a little law, he punishes for witnesses, or warrants for arrests, we venture to say he can have them gratis. Now get a move on, or stop the falsification." The reformer says: "There are some places." If we are credibly informed an 18 foot rule would reach from the reformer's office ceiling into a poker den where fighting dogs and chickens are harbored. If so, could such a thing exist and the old crazy women of the Reformer not know it? And if the old women in question do know it, they certainly do; then they must be trying to cover matters up. Of course a certain allowance has to be made for the desire of the Oshawa papers to cry down everything printed in the CHRONICLE. As to whether or not there are poker dens in Oshawa we do not doubt there are plenty of them. We merely pointed out that the town is infested with these places, but if no person in Oshawa cares enough about the matter to take action to close them we shall be very clear of doing so. A newspaper's part is to print out evils, but the Oshawa papers have never done their duty, and they point upon the CHRONICLE continually, hoping to convince the public that we are wrong in speaking out, and that they in their silence are right.

Harmony News. Our division is gradually increasing, there being seven new members initiated last Friday evening.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Chas. Wade, who has been confined to his bed for the past month, is improving slowly.

The pupils of Harmony school intend giving an entertainment in the Son's hall, Harmony, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 17th. The programme will consist of recitations, dialogues, motion songs, calisthenics, and plays, besides talent from Oshawa and Courtoice. The pupils are sparing no pains to make their concert a success and deserve the hearty co-operation of the section.

Mr. John Weeks, who was driving out to Mr. Brooks', west of Solina, last Saturday, had quite an exciting horse chase. When he was a little west of Ashton's corners he missed one of the bells from his cutter and stopping his horse he looked back and saw the missing bell in the road. He got out of the cutter and picked up his lost treasure, but before he got to his cutter again his driver took for the west. John, not being very far in the rear, would call out to Nellie to "wough," but that only seemed to make her continue her journey still faster. However, when she got to Solina, a distance of about a mile and a half, she stopped at Mr. J. VanNest's gate, where she was held till Mr. Weeks put in an appearance a short time later, and covered with slush and snow. However, he returned home all right without any serious harm.

In his lecture here on Monday night, Mr. Lent very mildly and justly condemned the Great Administration for trying to get around the question of prohibition, instead of coming out with a straight platform on the question. Every one who heard him was delighted with his lecture and it was certainly deserving of a better audience.

A sleigh load of young folks from here went to Bowmanville last Friday night to see the hockey match between the team of that town and Port Hope. After the match and an hon'rs' skating on the rink, they all adjourned to Mr. G. L. Stevens', where supper was served by Mrs. Stevens. They allowed a good deal of Saturday morning to slip by before returning, but all report a good time.

Only Absent Minded. A most amusing case of absent-mindedness came under our notice Tuesday afternoon. One of our young ladies was out selling tickets for the lecture in St. Paul's church that evening; entering one of the leading grocery stores about town she asked the proprietor if he would buy a ticket—only 15c. Of course he would, and she gave him the ticket; he handed a quarter to one of his clerks to change, at the same time telling the young lady, that as he did not want the ticket, she had better take it and sell it again "for the good of the church." In the meantime the clerk returns and hands him the quarter in change, which the genial groceryman put in his pocket. The young lady left the store with the ticket, but without the price. We do not know whether the gentlemen has discovered his mistake yet or not, as, undoubtedly, he thought he had bought the ticket and paid for it.

Annual Meeting. The second annual meeting of the Midland Mutual Fire Insurance Company was held in the market hall here Tuesday afternoon. A goodly number of the members of the company were present, and the Board of Directors presented their financial statement for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1896. The report was highly satisfactory in every way, although the amount of business written in 1896 was less than that of '95, but in the latter mentioned year the field was ripe for a company of this kind and the ground had all been well covered. The only loss during the year was one of $10, making the company's total loss during its two years of existence but $610. The retiring directors were Messrs. Jas. Glendinning, M. McTaggart and Wm. Shier, the latter two of whom were re-elected. Mr. Holburn, of East Gwillimbury, taking Mr. Glendinning's place.—Times.
