LOCAL NEWS LETTERS.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

KINSALE

Mr. Fairless has returned home after a short visit here.

Frank Hanson sold a valuable young horse a few days ago.

Miss Jackson of Brooklin has been spending a few days with the Lewis family to the north west of the village.

Mr. Jas. H. Hop was laid off duty on Sabbath, nursing an affected eye was the trouble; we learn of his recovery.

Rev. Thon officiated here on Sunday. He went from here over to Brooklin and took charge of the night appointment there.

While attending Dominion garage in Toronto last week R. R. Wharv was appointed one of the auditors, a task he will creditably fill.

Mrs. Brignall and Mark returned home the first of the week after spending a few days among relatives in the vicinity of Cherrywood.

Mr. Wilfrid Sadtler is making preparations to remodel some of his buildings having left his order with Mr. Nesbitt for lumber furnishings.

Many from here attended Mr. S. Coxworth's auction sale last week near Whitby. An extraordinary large crowd of people were present and good prices realized.

Mr. Geo. Ayers, one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens has been quite unwell of late causing his confinement at home. We hope to see him out again in the near future.

Our friends are making preparation for moving to the Wataggon district. It is well known to some of them will have embarked. We trust that they may meet with success in the new land.

Our assessor R. W. Mowbray is busily engaged attending to duty. Mr. Warren Brown is taking charge of things in his absence. He is a reliable fellow and no wonder he takes well wherever he goes.

Several from here attended the anniversary at Greenwood on Sabbath evening. Rev. Leggett of Claremont had charge of the service and pleased his many hearers with his efficient and pleasing discourse.

Mr. Wm. Dennis has rented Rev. M. Gold's farm just west of the village, now occupied by Mr. J. Redd, and will take charge of the same early in the spring. Mr. Dennis is well known in and around Kinsale and we wish him success in his undertaking.

Mr. James Richardson has engaged for the summer season to do duty for Mr. Clarkson Rogers and will begin service on or about the middle of March. James is an exceptionally hard working young man and no doubt will give satisfactory results.

A sleigh load from here attended the entertainment at Audley Thursday night of last week consequently our league meeting here was not largely attended. Mr. R. R. Mowbray had charge of the meeting and all enjoyed a profitable and interesting time.

Mr. Joseph Halbron has leased the corner house at Salem now occupied by Mr. Nathan Richardson. He will move there early in the spring. We are glad to be able to report Joseph's intention of remaining one among us. He and his estimable wife are among the most respected in the community.

Mr. A. L. Orvis advertises his stock in and out of the store along with some articles belonging to the store, for sale by public auction Thursday afternoon of this week. He is getting rid of his overplus stock preparatory to his removing to Waukegan. We do not believe he will find ready purchasers for his goods.

Immediately after Mr. Orvis vacates the store Mr. John Rodd and family will move there. This will be an accommodation the public have long and justly desired, the old having an office in the store, the only suitable place for it. Surely the office after being traveled around from place to place for years and receiving no more suitable position than being placed in the back kitchen of the family residence will now feel exalted over present prospects.

TOWN LINE.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rodd are visiting at Scarborough Junction.

Mrs. R. G. Oke and daughter are visiting in Uxbridge and Brooklin.

Mr. John Gimblet, believer in co-operation and had a wood bee on Thursday.

MARRIED.

ANDERSON-McGREGOR—By the Rev. R. J. Moore in St. Margaret's church, on Thursday, Feb. 18th. Alex. S. Anderson to Alice M. McGregor, second daughter of Walter McGregor, Whitby.

In our wanderings we have been asked where the Townline is. For the benefit of the CHRONICLE readers who are not acquainted with these parts, we will tell them it is where the line between Whitby and Pickering townships crosses the Kingston road.

We notice lately that some men who live a few miles to the west of here are in the habit of going home drunk and running their horses unmercifully. We feel sorry to witness such scenes. It is too bad horses are so abused. The men would not act so if it was not for the whiskey they drink.

A groom fell over our community on Sunday morning when the sad news was received that Miss Florence Harris was dead. Although all knew that there was no hopes for her recovery yet when the end came it was somewhat surprising. We little know what is before us. Only six weeks from last Sunday Florence walked to church and back again in very good health. She was a faithful member of St. Andrew's church, an active member of the Christian Endeavor Society and a faithful S. S. teacher. She always was jolly and had a good word for everyone and was a young lady who had no faults. She was a loving and affectionate daughter, and will be greatly missed from the vacant chair in the family circle. Her large funeral on Tuesday afternoon showed that she was esteemed very highly in our community. The floral tribute from the S. S. and C. E. was a beautiful wreath, most tastefully arranged and a bouquet from the church. The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon and was most solemnly impressive, the choir singing "A Sleep in Jesus" and "The Lord's Prayer." The pall was borne by the members of the church in their affliction, and we trust that when they are called away there may be a happy reunion with the one who has just gone before. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Milton Brown, Sam Kemphorn, Fred Rowe, Leon Taylor, Frank Rowe and Byron Davy. Rev. Mr. Manning will conduct a memorial service in the church next Sunday afternoon.

DEATHS.

Death of Wm. Cowan. A well known resident of Whitby, died at his late home near Port Union on Tuesday evening. His people were called to Pickering on Saturday, when Mr. Cowan was a quiet, cheerful, and well known citizen. He was a native of Scotland. Mr. Robert Cowan of Highland Creek, deputy reeve of Scarborough, is one of the sons.

We are very much pleased to see Mr. Archie Ewers in our midst again. The operation which was performed on him at the general hospital has greatly pulled him down, but he is improving rapidly now.

The Conservative meeting held in the town hall here, on Saturday afternoon was a success. There was good representation, showing that Tories are still in the ring. Speeches were delivered by the following gentlemen: Messrs. Wm. Gatenam, Chas. Caledon, and Wm. Smith. The officers elected for ensuing year are as follows: President, Geo. Brown, Secretary, J. W. pres. Jas. Sampson, Marsh Hill, and vice pres. Theobald, Manchester; treas. Peter Christie, Manchester; secretary, F. Archman, Christie.

Brooklyn's best player at the game but they stand watching even now. Bowmanville stands among the first in the Midland League and this is their first defeat at home. It being a benefit game for the Oshawa hospital, the result was a matter of course, but was generally satisfactory.

A meeting was held in the council chamber last Tuesday evening to consider the advisability of organizing a Y. M. C. A. here. Rev. J. H. Harris presided and explained the objects the promoters have in view in launching this movement.

The discussion that followed showed that a large number of those present are pointed to an establishment of a public library and free reading room, but on a vote being taken, nine expressed themselves as being in favor of the Y. M. C. A. and none voted against it. An adjournment was made for the following week, when it was finally decided to organize a branch and a draft constitution was presented and adopted. Rev. J. H. Harris was elected president, Thos. Craig, secretary and C. Arnold, treasurer. The following members are to be a managing committee—Rev. J. H. Harris, James Francis, C. Robinson, C. Arnold, Chas.
