The recitations, songs, and dialogues were well rendered, while the calisthenics and hoop drill were exceptionally good and showed careful training. The orderly manner in which the children conducted themselves throughout the entire evening speaks well for Miss Wilson as a disciplinarian. The parts taken by Misses Lick, Drew, Everson and Wilson and Messrs. Gale, Pickel and Winters pleased all alike and the generous applause given each person was sufficient proof of the very able manner in which the different selections were rendered. Miss E.
