Ontario Ladies' College far surpassed its previous records in the brilliancy of its annual conversazione on Friday night last. The magnificent new halls supply the mmense amount of space so necessary to the success of great social functions, and upon this occasion even the added room was fully taxed in forming a pleasure field for the many hundreds who responded to the generous invitations of the faculty and generous invitations of the faculty and bupils. A special train conveyed about 250 Big of the invited guests from Toronto, who were met and conducted to the college by the principal and members of the local board. Principal Hare, Lady Principal Hare, Miss Wilson and Miss Miller performed the courtesies necessary to the reception. The scene within the college walls was in the clouds lowered and the wind moaned and the snow flew in all directions. The illumination of the immense halls and parlors by the new electric light plant was seen in all its brilliancy for the first time. The reception rooms, the concert and dining halls, the corridors—all were a blaze of alternating with the promenades in Trafalgar Mr A E I Jackson, of Victoria University, inces were received with ecstacy on th occasion. The college boys were lively and surprisingly good in their musical efforts. The promenading was timed beautifully by the music of the D'Alesandro orchestra.
