BAGLAN

(Too late for last issue)

We are sorry to report Mrs. Geo. Ormanston is under the doctor's care. Hope she may speedily recover.

Mr. Squelch has moved on the farm occupied by Mr. T. Ross in the village. We welcome Mr. Squelch and family in the community.

At the time of writing no hope is entertained of Mr. Thompson's recovery.

A lively contest is going on in the Sons of Temperance division under the captainship of Mr. Myron Martin and Mr. A. Groves.

Mr. Myron Martin and Mr. J. Wedge attended the christian endeavor in Columbus on Sunday evening.

Mr. Thomas Stanton spent last week visiting friends in Seagrave.

Last week the good friends of Mount Carmel surprised Mrs. J. Hezlewood by gathering at her home and presenting her with a nicely worded address and a china tea set of dishes and parlor lamp, as a slight token of appreciation of her services during the last fifteen years in the church and Sabbath school. The address was read by Miss Hamley, and the presentation was made by Mr. Jonathan Thompson, on behalf of the friends. A very pleasant evening was spent by all.

Mr. Myron Martin gave a party to a few of his friends on Tuesday evening in celebration of his birthday. A very pleasant time was spent in games and other amusement.

A surprise party was held at Mr. Jos Groves' last week and all enjoyed themselves.

Foxes are very plentiful around here. Mr. Holliday went out shooting one day last week and killed two; also two minks.

A very successful wood bee was held at Mr. Frank Brown's last Friday afternoon. The evening was spent in dancing and other amusement.

A very unpleasant affair took place in one of the stores one evening last week, when two of our youths (who ought to know better) began debating who secured a certain young lady home from church on Sunday evening, but words ensued which nearly ended in blows. Finally money was put up and in order to prove that one of the contracting parties did go home with the said young lady. Some of the neighbors had to be roused out of their peaceful slumber to settle the matter. Surely boys there are enough girls for you to have one apiece without quarreling. We will withhold the names of those boys as they are both respectable but hope they will not make fools of themselves again.

Mr. James Hezlewood, of Mount Carmel, is making preparation for moving in our village, and he has secured an agency for selling farm implements. He is prepared to supply all the farmer's needs in that line with the shortest notice.

Mr. David Thompson is again in our midst, as he had a summons to the bed side of his father. He is looking hale and hearty.

A sleigh load of young people had a surprise party at Mr. Mark Holliday's, east of here, on Monday evening, and account of the heavy rain did not return home until Tuesday noon looking like drowned rats. We hope they had a pleasant time.

AUDLEY

Mr. Sanders has moved to Waubigoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnston have settled on the front road estate.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Parkins, York, spent a day or so with relatives here on the 1st of the week.

Wesley Gee, to our northwest, have come home from the city to manage his father's farm here. Farming is the most independent business Wes, and we hope to see you remain.

Two or three of the Marritt Bros. of Pickering, but formerly of this place, left on Tuesday for the N.W.T., where their brother Fred is successful.

We see that John Edwards here is tendering for the delivery of wood to the Whitley schools. We hope to see him get the job as we know he will be sure to give satisfaction.

During the heavy windstorms of late the wind-mill on the Bye farm suffered severely. The tail first loosened and fell, then the storm of Sunday took off some of the wheel.

No doubt the big sales of John A. White, the noted hog-raiser of Brougham, and James Maynard, of Whitley, will attract many of our speculative and appreciative farmers on Saturday and Thursday of this week.

Simon Puckrin, who is winning for himself the name of traveller, came back from Wisconsin on Thursday of last week looking extremely well after his sheep trip.

E. L. of C. E. flourishes here in spite of wind and weather. Always an interested few assemble on Tuesday evenings to help each other by discussion and worship. Last week the topic was ably exemplified by Rev. J. Thom, while this week Misses Guthrie and Orvis took the subject of "The Extent of the Kingdom for Missionaries." They did well and those young folks who miss the activity of the meetings, miss one of the grandest advantages of our land. The month of March deals with missions, and some grand thoughts, new to even the oldest christians, are being brought out. The invitations, for everyone, are standing ones.

St. Patrick's day, 1897, has come and gone, and those few of us who had the sprig of green on our button-holes on Wednesday last brought the fact to the minds of the more forgetful ones who allow the year to roll by without some recognition to the Patron Saint of "Ould Ireland." We talk of the brogue and mistakes of these representatives of the Emerald Isle, but for a true, heart-felt and sympathetic God bless you, give me a general old Irish here.

It would seem to the casual invader of our neighborhood this week that a general migration was going on, wagons creaking beneath the weight of household goods travel every road. With Mr. and Mrs. Johnston going to the front, Mr. Bray and family to Claremont, Mr. R. Puckrin moving on to the Bray farm, and Mr. Sanders moving to the G.T.R. for Algoma, our quiet folk are forced to believe in the "circle of eternal change." These all carry our blessings with them.

BLACKWATER

The following lines are composed in memory of bygone days spent at Blackwater.

Well folks I'm growing purty old,
My age is getting good and ripe;
I low an' I low, I low an' I low,
My nicks is an old clay pipe,
And as I sit, and as I smoke,
I often think of days gone by,
When we could have a good old joke,
And take a scoot when we got dry.

I mind one time a crowd of boys
were standing by the turpentine gate,
When our ex-rev. (you know him well)
Came up, and there he met his late.
An empty crock was in his hand—
Poor Billy, he benic all aice—
One of the boys for love of fun,
Smashed it in prees with a stone.

Poor Billy, he benic all aice,
That all he could not see the joke,
When our ex-rev. should grin and laugh
At seeing their neighbour's butter-crook broke.
An honest Grit was standing by,
He said it was a bloomin' shame,
The ex-rev. was in his eye,
But Billy did not see the game.

Let peace reign here and everywhere,
Right well did all enjoy the day,
The man who did this cowardly trick,
For all our drinks will have to pay,
So down to Gladstone's did they go,
The ex-reeve coming in the rear,
And when they got him at the bar,
They all filled up with sour beer.

Poor Billy laughed and danced around,
Right well did all enjoy the joke,
It was not long till all could see,
He had forgot his crock was broke,
But all those days are past and gone,
And as I have much old growin',
I sit, and smoke my pipe instead.

And as I sit, and as I smoke,
I often think of days gone by,
When our ex-rev. came back to me,
One night a crowd of boys from Wick,
Came here to have a jolly spree,
Their cash was gone, and they were full,
They couldn't pull another crock,
And as I have much old growin',
I thought he could pawn an old dung fork.

But ah! those days have past and gone,
Wick boys have changed since days gone by,
They wouldn't taste the bitter beer,
Unless they get it on the sly.

Be hanged! I sure I would take a glass
before the Popp, the King, or Queen,
I wouldn't make my next year's
And go and hide behind a screen.

Now as I close I'll drink a toast,
Which makes the old man's heart grow light,
May Gladstone, get his license, back,
And sell till twelve o'clock at night,
For psahw! without a glass of beer,
A fellow does feel awful blue,
A glass will bring the heart good cheer,
And the preacher's nephew says so too.
BE GOD SAA.

PICKERING

The people of this place should petition parliament for an amendment to the river and streams bill, and save if possible the annoyance of having the various cellars filled with water.

William Gourlie and wife will remove to Claremont neighborhood in the course of a couple of weeks, where they will continue to farm. We are exceedingly sorry to lose two such worthy citizens.

The lamentable casualty that occurred at Bowmanville on Wednesday afternoon should have a lesson for parents residing by a creek that overflows at different seasons of the year. During the past week children of all ages have been allowed to wander at will about the village and the wonder is that some fatality has not occurred. Parents all over Canada feel much sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Luxon in the loss of their three children.

Captain James Hills, died at his residence, Pickering harbor, Wednesday, about 10 a.m., after an illness of about two months. About a year ago he became aware that his stomach was not perfect in its action, and after trying many domestic remedies consulted a physician and was informed that his was a case of vital importance. This was confirmed by several city specialists and as the disease advanced the Captain's system grew weaker, and some eight weeks ago he had to remain at home. Deceased was a man much respected in this community, and had many friends in all parts of the township, he having served some years as a member of the council, and no man ever discharged the duties of such an office with more precision and fearlessness. Had he been in good health last December he would undoubtedly have been elected as first deputy reeve. Deceased was in his sixtieth year, and possessed of a rugged constitution and undaunted perseverance. He leaves a wife and a grown up family of boys and girls, all of whom feel keenly their sad bereavement.—News.

A CITIZEN'S STORY

Two are Enough. He Feels Happier.

DID NOT NEED THREE.

Mr. James N. Davis, of 15 Wellington St., St. Thomas, speaks of an event of late occurrence, which should be of interest to many of our citizens. Mr. Davis, in conversation with our representative, said:

"Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney remedy I ever heard of. They have removed the distressing kidney trouble with which I was afflicted, and made a stronger, happier man of me. For some years I have been troubled with severe pains across the lower part of the back. The trouble was dark in color and caused me a great deal of annoyance, being compelled to get up a number of times during the night. I was also a great sufferer from severe cramps in my legs, which became so painful that I had to get out of bed and rub them with liniment in order to get even momentary ease. I had a great deal of sick headache; was troubled with weakness of the eyes and felt tired, weak and nervous. Walking distressed me because of the pain and general weakness from which I suffered. I got three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills from Mr. E. C. Harvey at his drug store, and have no necessity to do so. The two boxes have had such a surprising effect for good that I did not need the third. Yes, sir, the pleasure in telling what they have done for me because of the happiness I now enjoy through their use. All my difficulties have vanished; I have no pain in the back; no sick headache; my eyes do not trouble me; I have no necessity to do so. I have been taking the pills; sleep well and the tired, played-out feeling has all gone. I believe all these troubles were caused simply from kidney trouble. You may say that I know Doan's Kidney Pills to be a speedy and wonderful specific for kidney and urinary difficulties, and I most strongly recommend their use to anyone afflicted as I was."

Relief for Lung Troubles

The O.E. EMULSION

For CONSUMPTION and all LUNG DISEASES, SPITTING OF BLOOD, COUGH, LOSS OF APPETITE, BRONCHITIS, the benefits of this article are most manifest.

By the use of "The O.E. Emulsion," I have got my lungs completely cured, which I had thought was over a year ago, and have gained considerably in weight. I find this Emulsion so well adapted for my case that I have ordered to take it.

The Public should bear in mind that Dr. THOMAS' EMULSION OIL is nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lame-ness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sore of hair, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.
