Frazer purchased a pair of hockey skates from Johnston last winter, and later answer to a dun from Johnston, Frazer wrote he had enclosed the money with a letter which he had posted at Greenwood. This naturally cast suspicion on the post office people along the route to Toronto, and post office Inspector Burnham came here on Wednesday to make enquiries. He interviewed Frazer, and the result was the latter's arrest. He is out on $250 bail. The case is not a very serious one—in fact looks more like a boy trick than anything e se, and Frazer will probably be released Mrs C Sterricker is dead. A few weeks ago half paid.
