The people of Utica, in Reach township, have for seven years been without a licensed tavern. Of course there have been taverns at Manchester and Epsom, each two miles distant, but to the Utica people a home institution of the kind has been a longfelt want. No wonder they signed an almost unanimous petition for a tavern farmer? one's "metheglin." They should have a tavern at home.

The CHRONICLE, Oshawa Vindicator, and Pickering News have taken a strong stand against departmental stores, bound that the whole country shall not be ruined by them. On the other hand the Whitby Gazette and Oshawa Reformer feeling that they will be expected to say something, take a which-and-tother—a sort of Good-Good-Good-Devil stand in the matter, trying to adduce arguments that will please both sides of the question, and thus escape the frowns of the merchant on one hand and of the bargain hogs on the other. Such a course is far worse than keeping quiet. Will the mer-chants of Whitby, Oshawa and Pickering now turn round and support their enemies as liberally as their defenders? If they do they may expect to fight out the remainder of the trouble without newspaper support. dollars found if they were not all so mean.

War has broken out at last between Turkey and Greece and the armies of the two countries are at it hammer and tongs. The Turks made a pretence of keeping the peace as long as the great powers of Europe felt disposed to do fighting in her behalf against Greece, but the Greeks would hear of nothing but war The powers have been unable to prevent bloodshed, and it is more than hinted that Germany and Russia have been playing the double game of working for peace with the powers whilst helping Turkey to get in shape for war. The first battles were on Saturday and Sunday last and appeared to demonstrate the superior legal business. strength or tactics of the Greeks. The scene of the frontier line between the two countries, and the general opinion is that the Greeks will not be able to hold her own against the unspeakable but valorous and better-equipped Turk. Britain, France, Italy and Austria appear to favor Greece, while Germany and Russia will likely take sides with Turkey. Nobody need be surprised if millions of men and all Europe are steeped in blood before a month.
