The County Judgeship

EDITOR CHRONICLE: SIR.—The appointment of a second judge for Ontario county, made possible by the amendment of the statutes of the Province at the recent session of the Ontario Legislature, is one about which there surely can be little difference of opinion as to the gentleman who, at least, should have the offer of the position, provided one element of uncertainty is eliminated from the matter in question.

cynic flourished. These points finished he had a groundwork upon which to consider Thackeray's writings.

At Toronto, April 26th, 1897, Pamela K. Brown, beloved wife of Wm Armitage and youngest daughter of the late Sylvanus Brown, aged 50 years 4 months and 3 days. The funeral took place at 26 Wilton Avenue on the islands of the remotest seas, to the cemetery for interment. Deceased was well known here, having lived in this neighborhood from childhood until her marriage to Wm Armitage then of Newmarket, Ontario, but later of Toronto.
