LOCAL NEWS LETTERS.

— CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE. —

MANCHESTER

Mr. R. W. Feers lost a valuable brood mare on Sunday last.

Birth—on Thursday, May 14th, the wife of Mr. R. S. Parks, of a daughter.

Mr. John Barrett of Park Hill was visiting here this week with his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thorndike, of Oakwood, were visiting at Thos. Graham's over Sunday.

Mrs. G. Sonley, of Whitby, was visiting here this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
W. H. Warden.

Miss Tillie Barrett of Park Hill, daughter of Mr. John Barrett, has come here to keep house for her uncle, Mr. Thos. Barrett.

One of our citizens traded horses last week and next day celebrated the event by getting his hair cut—the first time in four years.

Mr. M. S. Towley, mine host of the Revere house has overhauled the whole hotel, and every room has been papered and neatly furnished. Everything is now up to date.

The members of the township met in the town hall here on Saturday afternoon last.
The attendance was small. The most important business was the examination of the lotter's list.

The anniversary services of the Manchester Sunday school will be held here on Saturday next 23rd inst. The Rev. Dr. Lambly of Brooklin will preach in the morning at 10 o'clock, and evening at 7. Collection at each meeting in aid of the school.

Monday evening following the Rev. Mr. Rose of Toronto will deliver a lecture in the church. Admission free. Mr. Rose is well known here, and all are acquainted with his merits as a speaker. We hope there may be a large attendance.

Another case of assault somewhat similar to the one we reported a few weeks ago, took place the other night. A full account of the act, together with the name of the man, has been handed to your scribe but rather than cause hard feeling for relatives of the accused, we refrain from giving the unnecessary details. The act was not committed against the party, and probably some good may be derived if the case is made interesting.

By the CHRONICLE of last week we noticed that at a meeting of the license commissioners of South Ontario, held recently, a license for the sale of wine and beer was granted to Mrs. J. DeFoe of Uxbridge. It is a problem we cannot solve, how the Uxbridge petition was considered and the one from Seagrave hardly recognized. We are pleased to note the stand taken by Mr. Burns in the work of this year, but will refrain from giving our opinion of the other fellows. Our Greenbank correspondent has expressed himself correctly and we have the same view.

Town Line.

Mr. Lou Taylor is on the sick list this week.

Mr. W. S. Smart of Oshawa preached in Almonds church last Sunday.

Mrs. Fothergill has been very sick, but we are glad to say she is now much better.

Mr. Coakwell returned home last Saturday from his trip to the Old Country. He is glad to say his health is somewhat improved.

The Christian Endeavour on Tuesday evening had a literary programme and social chat instead of the ordinary way of conducting the service a very pleasant time was spent.

Mr. H. Sanley, of the 4th con. rented the post farm for this year at $100, and had started to work on it, but owing to some objection made by one of the parties who hold the mortgage, he has given it up. We understand the farm is to be put up for auction again.

Str IV Class, Weekly exams in Physiology and Dictation Max. 80 and 30. Mabel Rowe 52, 30; Milton Storey 40, 26; Nettie Carruthers 27, 26; George Gold 45, 24; Art Carter 48, 18; Florence Carpenter 40, 22; Arthur Mackey 32, 26; Lizzie Fothergill 31, Arbor Day was celebrated at our school in the fine style. Three maple trees were planted in the windows, and by the pupils' efforts, a pretty little mirror was procured for the school. After what has been said we hope that parents and guardians will find their way to the school to encourage both children and teacher in their work.

Many were the inquiries as to what Mr.
West intended doing with the proceeds of the concert held in the Town Line school on Mar 11th. He wishes to state that he forwards his great pleasure to invite any one interested to come and see the "Cyclopaedia" and the "Copying Pad" that were purchased with the proceeds and a grant of five dollars by the trustees. The Cyclopaedia is a copy of Blackie's modern cyclopaedia, eight volumes leather binding, half morocco. It contains clear and concise information on almost every subject. The advanced pupils are quickly learning the value of such a work in their school. The pupils and teacher are highly pleased at being able to add such a valuable work to the equipment of the school. The pad is the "Success" copying pad. It is very useful for taking a number of impressions from an original copy.
The Success will give from 100 to 200, from the one stamp. The pad is a good help on written examination work. Instead of writing the examination questions on the blackboard a sufficient number of copies is printed with the pad to give a copy to each pupil.
This training assists the pupils to become accustomed with the printed examination papers for Entrance exams. We must not forget the excellent slate blackboards that were placed in the school last term. They were purchased from Messrs E. N. Moyer & Co., Toronto. The slate makes the best kind of a blackboard for school use. We have nearly 150 sq. feet of blackboard surface.
These boards were put up in our school by Mr. R. Oke in a very workmanlike manner.
Allow us to say that we have a progressive school board in the persons of Messrs Geo.
O'Connor, M. Mackey and Wm. Oke. Mr.
Wes Carruthers was a member of the board at the time the blackboards were procured.

We hear some talk of the formation of a bicycle club in this village.

Last Friday was arbor day at the school.
A report of the proceedings will be given in next issue.

Mr. Thos. Chinn and Miss Chinn have returned from three weeks' visit with friends in Toronto.

Sunday evening.

A cow belonging to Mr. Burroughs was struck and killed by Conductor McMillan's train on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. John Kerr has been quite sick with a severe attack of grip. She is still confined to her bed but is now getting better.

The elevator company have engaged Mr.
Frank Lawson to give their big building a fresh coat of paint. He expects to start the work at once.

Pure Prepared Paint.

We have now a full assortment of colors, First class quality only. Also lead, oils and dry colors, all at low prices.

The Dramatic Co. are billed to give "Out in the Streets" at Ashburn, for the R. T. of T. council here, this (Friday) evening.

Mr. J. C. Vebert, pastor of the baptist church here, has just completed his fourth year at McMaster University and secured degree of B.A.

The remains of the late Miss Mary Mcnair, of Whitby, were interred in the Grove cemetery on Sunday afternoon. The funeral was a very large one.

Mrs. Silver, who has been stopping with her mother, Mrs. J. Pollock, for two months left with her family on Tuesday for Wabkon, where her husband already is.

On Tuesday of last week, Miss Maud Wickett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S.
Wickett, of Toronto, formerly well known residents of Brooklin, was married to Dr.
Kilbourne of Park Hill.

Rev. J. B. McClaren made an exchange with Rev. A. McAuley of Pickering, last Sunday. Mr. McAuley's discourse here in the afternoon was practical and helpful and was much appreciated by the congregation.

Mr. James Routley, section foreman on the Toronto and Ontario railway, has been Markham cancer doctor for a small cancer in nose. We are glad to learn that he is likely to get rid of it without a very great deal of trouble.

Master John Vipond is home from Toronto, where he has been in the hospital for some time undergoing treatment for his stiff knee. He is now able to bend it some and there is reason to hope that it will yet come right.

The work of repairing the breach in the mill dam has been suspended, and will not be again gone on until an arrangement is made between landlord and tenant concerning a portion of the expense in connection with the work to be done.

Mrs. W. Kerr has been very sick for the last two weeks and at the time of writing is not any better. She has suffered intensely from a gathering in her head and has had to fight an attack of erysipelas as well. We hope to soon hear that she is getting better.

The Whitby district meeting was held here on Wednesday and Thursday. In connection with it there was a convention of the Ontario Missionary Society in the district which was quite successful. The full report of these meetings can not be given this week but will appear in next issue of the CHRONICLE.

The board of managers of the public library met last Thursday evening and elected these officers—President, A. Ketchen; secretary, Dr. Moore; secretary, E. R.
Eddy; treasurer, Scott; Librarian, D.
Holiday; auditor, Rev. J. H. Harris. Books may be exchanged on Wednesdays from 10 to 11, and from 7 to 8 p.m., and on Saturdays from 7 to 9 p.m. The librarian will also be glad to make exchanges at any time when he is in his office.

It is most discouraging work to attempt to beautify one's property in this village by tree planting or any other kind of work done outside of the fences. No sooner is the result of the labor done beginning to show than some marauding cow comes along and does her best to destroy everything within reach. The writer has noticed this week several young maples with the new growth all eaten off. In spite of these annoyances which we have to contend with, I hope there will be no growing weary in this kind of well doing.

Our merchants and tradesmen will start the early closing of their business places on Tuesday, June 1st. On this date, and on each succeeding Tuesday and Thursday evening, from 7 to 9 p.m. The librarian all business in this village will be suspended promptly at 6.30. The public have generously assisted in the past in making the early closing movement a success, and the two evenings a week of freedom have been thoroughly appreciated by those who would otherwise have been confined in stores and shops which are always hot and unhealthy places in the summer time, after lamps are lit.

PORT PERRY.

Miss Stella Ackerman, of Peterboro is a guest of Miss Ella Brock.

Mr. M. Williams has sold his liquor business to Mr. Frank Parr of this town.

Mrs. (Dr.) Norton of Shelburne and Mrs. A.
W. Roberts are visiting Mrs. W. L. Parrish.

The Indians of Scugog band are very thankful to Mr. Davis for two arm chairs for their church.

I congratulate the Rev. J. M. Cameron pastor of the Wick and presbyterian churches in being elected Moderator at the Synod of Toronto and Kingston, and that too by acclamation. It speaks highly for the reverend gentleman's popularity and intellectual attainments and that he is well liked by his fellow laborers in the church.

The Rev. D. N. McCamus last Sunday evening delivered a discourse on "Amusements" taking his text from 2nd Timothy, 3rd chap. third, fourth and fifth verses, condemning the strong words, card playing, horse racing, dancing and kindred amusements giving the opinions of prominent men of all the churches that dancing as now carried on is doing harm to the young.

The Registrar

It is already gazetted, no doubt it soon will be that Mr. J. M. Dryden of this town proprietor of the Paxton Hotel, is to be the new registrar for this county.

It is to be no more suitable a man could be appointed. He has been accustomed to office work for many years and is a kindred office work for man who will be both courteous and obliging and very careful in his office work. I heartily congratulate our citizen on his appointment as it will not have been given to one more worthy than a citizen of whom it can be said that he will be respectful and kind to all, and that he will respect and honor the law.

The License Commissioners

In the north end of this riding there is a good deal of dissatisfaction with a majority of the commission. The board is composed of Mr. Mackie, a temperance man but not a prohibitionist; P. R. Hoover, a so called prohibitionist, but as his acts prove, a shoddy prohibitionist; and J. Burns, a prohibitionist to grant a license, and a temperance board, a majority of this riding expected acts at their hands. What do the people find? In the meeting of the board, that two men fought hard and carried over thing, and disregarded a large petition and several deputations, where they were asked to support a license, and after those who face of a petition of ninety-two names, the out of one hundred and twenty residing in the village and section. In the other instance a petition was presented and supported asking for a license, and after those who of fencing it was granted, though it was there is no provision made or allowed for such a license in Reach township. I venture to support the CHRONICLE's statement that no two hotelkeepers in South Ontario would have acted as Messrs. Mackie and Hoover have done, but would have been far more consistent. Mr. Mackie claims he is as good a temperance man as Mr. Burns, his (Mr. M's) ideas of such a principle very far-fetched, are only creations of his brain. His actions of recent date are proof of what I say. As for Mr. Hoover, I am credibly informed that the prohibitionist Picking selected him as being a man on whom that element in the riding could fully rely to do as he wished without fear or favor.
But what do we find to be the case? The same Mr. Hoover appears to have sold himself for a mess of pottage, or shall I say has thrown his temperance principles and consistency to the winds, and in return for beer and wine every time. The temperance people of Picking should get a piece of sole leather two inches in diameter and tie a letter string to it, and have stamped on it the words "Prohibitionist," and before the "Consistency, thou art a jewel," and present it to Mr. Hoover. It is disgusting to see one, who claim to be men of prominence in the respective sections, and in whom their neighbors and business associates place every reliance, and commonly speaking are men of honor and probity, in many instances in existence become separated, until to-day the fact that which there is a change we must have a license law, and while such a law is in existence we must have licensed hotels.

The license board has presented when a petition is entered against granting a license and signed by a large majority of people in a section, the commissioners are morally bound to grant the petition of the petitioners. What do we find recently? It is Seagrave a large and ably supported petition asked that no license be granted to the hotel at Uxbridge. Result: a license was granted. From Uxbridge a petition was presented asking for the Dafoe House a license. It was granted! To be consistent the Seagrave petition should have been granted when the one from Uxbridge was granted, or it looks as if a good deal of underhand work pulling had been done. At any rate the actions of Messrs. Mackie and Hoover are roundly condemned for their inconsistencies on the board.

Let Brotherly Love Continue.

For some months past the members and adherents of the Methodist church, in fact the majority of the residents of Scugog village, have by an unfortunate chain of circumstances become separated, until to-day there are two factions, one termed the church party, the other the seceders and their friends. Affairs have come to such a pass that in some cases family connections are strained, and as far as the general population is concerned relations are badly strained. It has become so bad that the whole matter is the talk of the country-side, and what is to come from it finally no one knows. On the contrary, unless peace and harmony soon prevail and affairs be brought to a peaceful termination, there is no telling what matters will end. Let four or five of the members of the church party and one or two of the seceders go in their midst and it seems to act on the church party like a firebrand. If a number of seceders are talking with them, and the conversation is of a peaceful nature, they are at once in a trouble, there is war at once. It is affecting the church badly, and making negligent old friends almost enemies. Numberless instances are known where old acquaintances of twenty, thirty and forty years' standing have met on the highway and would not speak to one another. Take those who have been honored and respected members of the church for years and who up to a few months ago were considered to be good living men and women—yes, more than that—they were consistent, God-fearing christian men and women, who met every Sabbath in their respective places of worship and in their fellowship and class meetings, and who enjoyed the mingling together of the members of the church in their different means of grace; men and women whose word was as good as their bond; men and women who had confidence in one another and who were endeavoring in their humble way to live and act consistently as members of the church and as christians, neighbors and acquaintances. How is it today? If reports, rumors and conversations are to be relied on they are at daggers drawn, and many of them speak of one another in a way neither calculated nor intended to bring peace and harmony among them again. To show how it is affecting many of those who were previous to this unfortunate matter endeavoring to live Christian lives, I have heard some of those who

in being elected Moderator at the Synod of mind and heart. This shows very plainly that things are in a bad state and that enmity prevails where some months ago everything seemed to be going along smoothly and to the benefit of all concerned. How to restore peace and harmony is a conundrum to me. I learn that efforts have been made, but they only drift farther apart. By the way people talk it will never do for those who have had a say in matters to try and heal the sores that have been made. Firm and prompt steps should be taken by the prominent men of the church party and the seceders and have outside ministers and laymen selected, men who are known as good living men, honest men, men who will do their duty without fear or favor, and who will endeavor to settle all the differences, and bring both sides together, and have everything settled and the hatchet buried so deeply that the subject will never again come to the surface. The time is not far distant when some of the parties concerned shall have left Scugog Island, as in the course of events they will go to other fields of labor. Then what? Will all those ill-feelings and bickerings still remain to stir up strife and enmity and hatred among the residents of the Island? Did those concerned ever think what good is to result from hard feelings one toward another, commit to memory the thirteenth chapter of first Corinthians, and then turn to the Lord's Prayer in the sixth chapter of Matthew and read the 12th and 13th verses. "Blessed are the peacemakers."

GREENWOOD

Mrs. T. H. McDonald is away on a visit.

Rev. Thom. of Picking, preached to a large congregation Sunday morning.

Mrs. Cochenour, of Toronto, is spending a few weeks with her parents and friends.

A. E. Madill was severely kicked by one of them, on the head.

The creamery is now running every day. A good amount of milk is being brought to it from all directions.

Mr. W. G. Clark was indisposed with the grip last week.

There has been a number of new chairs put in the church for the use of the choir. It is need-old ones.

Mr. John Salton, of Kinsale, conducted the league meeting last week. He handled the subject "A Good Name" in a very interesting and instructive way.

Monday is the Queen's birthday and our foot ball club is going to have a grand celebration on their beautiful grounds that day. Teams from Toronto, Port Perry, Highland Creek, and several other places are expected to play for the divident prizes. A grand concert will be given in the evening by talent from Toronto. The league is going to have a tea in the evening, so between the hotel and league every one wishing to participate will be able to get their tea without going home for same. If you have not decided to be in Greenwood on the 24th, the best thing you can do is to come and you most certainly will have a good outing. Come to concert if not in the day time. It commences at 8

AUDLEY

Mr. Orvis' eight is improving, we are glad to say.

Next week is a literary night for our programme of the league, but there is likely to be a great prize. A
