

The Lipekln Club.

"My frens," said Brother Gardner as Paradise hall grew quiet...

"Who am de cullid man to-day? He am mostly de son of de man who was a slave to v'ars ago, known only as Lette mo' dan de mewl an netter spectin to be any better off."

"Take de case of Brudder Samuel Shim," said de president as he nodded his head in Samuel's direction...

"Other dar by de allew wander," continued Brother Gardner, "was Brudder Shindig Watkins. He am as blaas as tar, his nar kinks an his heels an almost as long as his feet..."

"Six v'ars ago," said de president, as he looked up and down the aisles in search of a particular member...

"When a man owns a blooded horse he is always careful of his health. He looks after de diet and is particular that de feeding shall be regular and right..."

"Kin disin of extravagance dat am bustin de cullid populashun of dis kentry to ruin be checked?" asked de president am in a flutter of excitement...

ain't fur me nor any other man to say, yo' can't hev dimuns an silks an crockery dawgs an oyster forks. I'm jest lookin at results and speakin a fatherly way...

Funny Things.

Teacher—Where were you yesterday? Pupil (whimpering)—It was all Billy Smith's fault. He hipnotized me an made me go fishin' with him.

Is he an actor? inquired the young woman. Well, replied Miss Cayenn thoughtfully, that's what he calls himself in the city directory.

Willie—I told her my love was so great that my brain was on fire. Charlie—What did she say to that? Willie—Told me I had better blow it out.

Waiter, it is almost half an hour, since I ordered that turtle soup. Waiter—Sorry, sir, but you know how slow turtles are.

Do you have any trouble keeping your wheel free from dust? "Nup, Neither does it have any trouble keeping me that way."

How shall I dress to-morrow? There are two classes of women whose minds are completely full of that question—frivolous women and women in a sleeping car for the first time.

When a man owns a blooded horse he is always careful of his health. He looks after de diet and is particular that de feeding shall be regular and right. While he is doing this it is likely as not that he is himself suffering from some disease or disorder.

"Kin disin of extravagance dat am bustin de cullid populashun of dis kentry to ruin be checked?" asked de president am in a flutter of excitement. "I hev laid awake mo' dan 400 nights a-thinkin bout it an I am still troubled. I jest reckon dat whar it gits hold of a man it won't let up till he's clean busted. When a cullid man argues dat he must hev two watch chains or de Vanderbilt's an de Astora won't bow to him an when his wife argues dat he must hev a $6 rug in de parlor an a egg beater in de kitchen de dem' to a finaglin ruin an broad befo' de ord'."

KINSALE

Rev Mr Thom preached his farewell sermon here last Sabbath. During his year pastorate here he has made many warm friends and it is with feelings of regret his departure is announced.

Rev Mr McDonald will deliver his farewell discourse here sabbath next. Among the many preachers we have had from year to year, Mr McDonald takes his place in the foremost ranks as a sermonizer and an excellent preacher.

Fine weather is now the order of the day; for the same we tender our thanks. A few from here attended the funeral of Mrs Humphrey, of Whitchy, formerly Miss Agnes Sadler, oldest daughter of the late Joseph Sadler of this place.

The bicycle craze has struck Kinsale. We can put on about one dozen wheels and wheelmen to conduct them, not bad for our little town for a start.

The township council met at Brougham on Monday last to attend to the township best interests.

Mr J N Hortop has secured another agency to work for another Insurance Co. Joe makes a good agent, doing business where some others would fail.

Miss Kate Bray is just now with Audley friends. Judson Bundy was with his parents here Monday.

Miss Gibbons was with Mount Albert friends last week. Ed Derusha, jr. was here with his parents last week.

Duncan Menab was at St. Catherine's this week on business. Mrs Thomas Gibbons is spending a month with city friends.

Charles V Michell, of Toronto, was here a few days this week with friends. J R Theuton and Miss Alloway, of Pickering, called on Mrs D W Kennedy on Sunday.

Annie Stokes is seriously ill with tuberculosis and her friends are anxious as to her condition. Thomas Johnston, who has been here for a few weeks, returned to his home in Toronto, on Monday.

Wm Cooper, of Richmond Hill, is here with his brother George for a few days as well as calling on other friends. Elias Forsyth was taken ill on Friday with inflammation of the lungs, and his condition is now considered very critical.

Mr and Mrs Hubbel, of Myrtle and Walter Bray and wife, of Audley, were here with S Bray and family on Tuesday. Mr Fuller, of Toronto, was here on Monday with old friends. He left for Greenwood where he intended to have a trout fish.

The public school team defeated the Green River team at football here on Friday evening, the score standing 8 to 0 at the end of the game.

Geo E Burk, the new barber, left for his home at Brougham on Tuesday for a few days rest. He met with a slight accident while riding a bicycle. The trustees of the school are having screens placed over the windows so that football practice will not injure the glass. Geo Gerow is the contractor.

John Barry has just given a contract to Geo Gerow for the placing of a windmill on his premises, north Claremont. Mr Barry is fast building a town at the station. Geo Banbury has moved his family from Haliburton and located in the Mitchell place, just west of the Methodist church. He was not much pleased with the north country.

Messrs. Bows, Henderson and Ward, accompanied by Dr Eastwood, visited Dye's pond on Monday. The day was moist, but the fish did not reward the visit very handsomely.

We notice that there is a motion before the township council looking to the repeal of the wire fence bonning-by-law. While it may be well to be careful in granting such bonnes, it is a mistake to repeal the by-law altogether, as wire fences do keep the roads from drifting full of snow. The experiment on the ninth, west of here, has served to convince the people of Claremont on that point.
