A large number of our citizens spent the holiday at Oshawa-on-the-lake. The day was particularly fine for picnicking, and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

The McLaughlin baseball team have arranged to play a game with the Massey-Harris team on the day of the Massey-Harris Co's picnic to prospect park on July 10th.

A large number from here took advantage of the excursion to Niagara on Tuesday. Most of them wished they were in Oshawa before they got across the lake as it was very rough.

The McLaughlin baseball nine went to Newcastle to play baseball on Tuesday, but when they arrived there, they found they were disappointed in a pitcher turn about and were defeated by 30 to 3.

It is expected that every house in town will be decorated on Dominion Day, as Whitby has set us a good example in the way of making a spread on a holiday. For this reason R A Little is getting in a large supply of Union Jacks, large and small, Canadian Ensigns, tissue paper flags for indoor decoration etc.

The people of Oshawa who visited Whitby truly enjoyed the sights there. They did not think (some of them) that their neighbors had so much get up in them. We hope our people will copy the example put before them and fix up their stores and residences for July 1st. The visitors left Whitby with a better impression of the town than they ever had before.

At St George's church a very pretty wed-ding took place on Tuesday morning at 7:30 when Miss Kate Williams, of Oshawa, was united in wedlock to Mr N H Smith of Cadwallader, Ohio, formerly P. E. county. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Rev J Talbot, pastor of the above church. The bridegroom was Wm Sandborn, of Boston, while Mr A J Little, our popular young coachman, supplied the groom's white livery. The couple took the 5:40 train for Toronto to catch the boat for Buffaloe. They will, after the honeymoon is over, take up their residence in Freeport, Ohio. Mrs Smith's many friends here wish her every happiness and success in her new home.

On Tuesday afternoon while bringing a car heavily loaded with passengers from the morning train Conductor Jardine had the misfortune to fall from the car spraining his hand in trying to save himself from severe injury. He was able to go on with his work but had difficulty in walking when he had to make Dominion Day one of the brightest in the history of the town. The streets are to be decorated as well as private dwellings. Great enthusiasm is being worked up. There is promise of a grand procession of children, soldiers, wheelmen, societies etc. Wheels will be decorated in all styles and children will carry small flags.
