LOCAL LAOCNOS.

11 Smith, barrister, Ottawa, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Dorothea Orr has successfully passed the council exam.

Miss Minnie Mussen is with her great-grandmother at Gordon's hotel, Pickering.

The county council of Simcoe has decided to erect a house of refuge for the poor.

Mrs. Roche, Newmarket, and Miss Dundas, Toronto, have been visiting Mrs. Joshua Richardson.

Our ice cream parlor will be open during the season with the best of ice cream. D. Mathison.

Mr. Chas. Stewart has returned home after having finished his career as a sailorman on the Garden City.

Messrs. Inspector McBrien, M. L. Nutting, Cambridge, and J. H. Gale are presiding at the departmental examinations here.

T. K. Sidney, B.A., former classical master here, spent a few days last week.

He is taking a post graduate course of three years at Chicago university.

Mr. Leo King, New York, spent Sunday at home. He has been traveling for his house on the Pacific slope for four months and will spend the summer months in the western states.

Ho for Niagara Falls on the Garden City July 14th. The Whitby Highland club is running the excursion and a grand time may be looked for. It will be the best trip this year.

E. E. Stary, who has been connected with G. Gouling & Sons, Toronto, for nine years has accepted a much more lucrative situation with a Montreal firm. His fellow employees of Gouling's presented him with an address and magnificent diamond ring.

The boys—and some of the men—celebrated the eve of Dominion day here by a series of bonfires, lasting from 11 p. m. till about 1:30 a. m. last morning. The evergreens used in the Jubilee decorations furnished an amount of fuel for the blaze, which at times raged so high that it pretty nearly burned a hole in the sky.

The Big Closing Sale. Boots and shoes at half price. Follow the crowd. It will pay you. Buy your shoes now. Our prices are right. Be sure and call M. W. Collins.

On Friday last License Inspector Ferguson and High Constable Calverley paid a fraternal visit to Gordon's hotel, Pickering, to sample his merchandise. They found a couple of fellows taking a schooner of beer each, but upon enquiry of the wine clerk as to the bona fides of the matter were informed that the parties drank the beer had brought it with them. Upon being interviewed the drinkers of the beverage denied this, but in the meantime a party was wrapped up who volunteered to say that he had brought the beer there. Inspector Ferguson said cock-and-bull stories would cut no ice in the matter, for in the meantime he had found four bottles of beer under the bar. Mr. Gordon is summoned to appear before Police Magistrate Harper on Saturday afternoon at 10 o'clock, and if he is convicted it means imprisonment, for he has already been convicted to pay fines the statutory number of times.

Warning to Bicyclists. Those who ride bicycles should read our report of the town council proceedings on Monday night. The members of council have heard many complaints, and feel that action will have to be taken if more common sense is not used in riding wheels. For instance, last Saturday four or five girls of 12 or 14 galloped up and down the town ringing their bells and chasing people in all directions. These lasses will have to learn something or else the bicycle will be driven into a corner, for the town council now has unlimited power. The fact that the council has issued a note of warning indicates that the fathers are inclined to be as lenient as possible, and to bear with the bicycle as long as is safe; but there is a limit to good will and patience. We are in favor of the bicycle being used on the streets and walks both.

The population of the town is small and scattered, and there are so many miles of sidewalks that there is room for all. But if it comes to a question of whether the wheel of the public shall leave the walks, we shall have to vote against when the bicycle has no reason why there should be any trouble, as there is room for all. No person needs to step off the sidewalk to allow a wheel to pass. The council made a mistake in demanding a bell, which starts one so that he or she cannot at once tell it comes from. The best way either in dark or daylight is to say when about fifteen yards behind: "Let me pass, please." The voice is a thing we are all familiar with, and does not sterilize a person. Without looking back the pedestrian may merely take the left side of the walk, and the bicycle will pass without danger on the right. Fast riding is a thing which cannot be allowed on any walk, and any rider who has no better sense than to search out a path or walk should be fined.

We believe that nine-tenths of the cyclists in town exercise every courtesy towards the public; but there are a few children and brainless adults who have no sense of a bicycle, but who will in the end cause sensible riders to be shorn of a valuable privilege.

The best assortment and lower prices than any city store. M. W. Collins, Whitby.

Misses Orr, of Toronto, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Johnson.

Mrs. G. H. Newton, of Port Perry, is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon.

Sheriff Paxton's sons and some friends are camped at the harbor for July and August.

Mrs. Orr is away on the Mackinac trip and will visit her mother, Mrs. (Dr.) Hershby before returning.

Messrs P. Mathison, Thos. Tasker, J. W. Braut and others have pitched camp for the summer at the harbor bar.

Misses Ethel Leech and Mary Nicholson, Toronto, spent a couple of hours in town on Saturday, having come down on the excursion boat.

Miss F. H. McGillivray, Miss M. E. Howard (Toronto), and Mr. N. H. McGillivray left on Monday evening for Wakefield, Que., to spend their summer holidays.

Harry Spory, of McGeary's bus line, has been summoned before Police Magistrate Harper to show cause why he knocked a wheel of Newport's hack at the boat Friday night.

On the morning of Dominion day the fire alarm sounded at 3 o'clock. The boys had been celebrating with a bonfire on the crossing of Brock and Dundas until about two hours before the fire, and many who had heard the alarm feared that cinders had set some of the business places ablaze. It turned out otherwise, the scene being a house in Locktown, belonging to Henry Candan, and all that could be done did not save it from burning. The firemen hastened to the spot and laid their hose, but they might better have let it take its course and clear the place up. Those who first saw the fire declare that it must have been of incendiary origin, as the blaze was burning up the outside of the clapboards, as if from a pile of fagots. The house was not an old one, but was unoccupied, and in all probability was fired by somebody through pure mischief.

To Rent. Two comfortable residences at low rental to good tenants, with small families. Good locality. Apply to J. R. Phillip, Whitby, April 27, 1897—cf.

Climatic Eruptions from Below. The weather came direct from a warmer climate since our last. Whether or not we should have added a lower climate, we matter of opinion for our readers to settle for themselves. Most of them know the place having the reputation for warmth, but whether any reader has had experience enough of that place to be able to recognize its special line of heat, we know not, and we hope not.

The Citizen's band will give a programme at the harbor on Tuesday evening next, weather permitting, and arrangements have been made with both the town bus lines to carry passengers up and down for 5 cents each way. This is a capital idea, and originated in the fertile brain of Mr. M. W. Collins. We hope to see a big crowd there to open the season, and if so there will be a repetition of the affair two or three times a week.

Buck Murray's Return. Buck Murray returned from Kingston penitentiary on Friday, after spending two years there. Patsy Fogarty, Joe Brady, and all the old chums met to celebrate the queen's liberation and Buck's jubilee behind Billy Ayres' shop. A bottle of lager and a keg of whiskey was served up to keep the spirit moving. Many mutual expressions of love were indulged in, and never did the "bhoys" love Buck as on this occasion. There is a natural geniality about Murray which caused him to return their embraces with affection.

Town Council. Met Monday night. Letter from Madill Bros., Lakefield, proprietors of the Whitby Electric Light works, accepting $75 as offered by council in full settlement of disputed account between the town and the company for last year's lighting. Reeve Pringle read a report from the finance committee striking off the interest charged against some poor people who had been paying up back taxes, and allowing $25 salary to Health Inspector Calverly for the year. The report was adopted. Coun. Hayward brought up the matter of reckless riding of bicycles on sidewalks, and asked the council to issue a notice to newspaper advising bicyclists that greater care must be exercised in riding their wheels, and that they must not ride at a rapid pace on any sidewalk in town, and that all bicyclists shall give proper warning by bell or otherwise when approaching any pedestrians. On motion of Reeve Pringle, the mayor was instructed to have the hose reel repaired and to buy a cart for carrying the two 5 gallon fire extinguishers. Subsequently Coun. Hayward was appointed to discharge the duties of chairman of fire and water department during the temporary absence of Chairman Jackson. An informal discussion took place on the subject of town expenditures. The tax rate will be about 2 1/2 mills. The council then adjourned.

Changes in License Law. A number of changes in the Ontario license act, made at the last session of the Legislature, came into force July 1st. In the case of liquor shops, the new act permits the sale of half a pint instead of three half pints as before, provided it is an unbroken package and is not consumed upon the premises. Hotel bars are not to be opened before 6 a. m., nor will any intoxicating liquor, whether sold or not, be permitted to be drunk on the premises, except by the occupant or some member of the family, or lodger in the house during the prohibited hours of sale. The regulations regarding sale of liquor to minors of either sex, have been made more stringent. Any one supplying liquor to such (unless upon written order of the parent, master or guardian) and the license holder is liable to a fine of not less than $50 or more than $50 for each offence. Furthermore, minors are not permitted to loiter about a parent or guardian, and not a bona fide lodger or boarder on the premises, without good and sufficient reason, the license holder, and the young person loitering are each liable to a penalty of not less than $2 nor more than $50 and costs. Liquor may not be sold after 11 p. m. in cities, and 10 p. m. in towns, villages and other districts. The law regarding closing on Saturday night and Sunday, is unchanged. The penalty for persistent violation of the regulations is cancellation of license. In the case of every conviction the magistrate must certify the finding in writing to the license commission, and after three such certificates, whether the offences are the same or different in character, so long as they were on different days, it is made compulsory on the board of resolution to cancel and revoke the license and for three years the licensee is disqualified from obtaining or holding any further license under the act. In future, no drug list will be allowed to sell intoxicating liquor except under a bona fide prescription daily signed by a legally qualified medical practitioner, which will be recorded in a book to be produced on application for the inspection of the license commissioners or inspectors. The quantity a druggist may sell is limited to six ounces at one time.

It was 95 in the shade here on Sunday and 92 on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, of Toronto, are visiting at W. H. Crosby's.

Miss Schiller is visiting her cousins the Misses Shaw at Port Credit.

Miss Blanche Nicholson, teacher at Love-Flug, is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Huston and Miss Aggie McBrien, of Toronto, are visiting friends in town.

Our prices beat everything far and near. Try us and you will never regret it. M. W. Collins, Whitby.

Hayward & Co's stock of dry goods and groceries was sold on Tuesday by Auctioneer Fairbanks at 50% cents on the dollar, to a man named Erin, from a western town. The whole stock amounted to a little over $3,000.

The Whitby Highland Club will run an excursion to Niagara Falls by the palace steamer "Garden City" on Wednesday, July 14th. Highland music and other kind of amusements aboard. Watch for posters for particulars.

Those who predicted that trees would not grow at Harbor Bar park would be surprised on visiting the place on a most flourishing state. Very few, if any of them would have died had they been properly protected.

Strawberries. Persons desirous of receiving a supply of fresh strawberries daily can do so by applying to T. S. Brant, Whitby.

A. O. U. W. Annual Excursion. Will take place on Monday, the 26th inst. on the fine steamer Garden City to St. Catharines. Cut this out and put in your hat. — in.

He tickets through from Pickering, Myrtle, Brooklyn, Toronto or Whitby — 32-41.

Sale of the Mead Farm. This farm, 100 acres, lot 23, con 7, Pickering, was offered for sale by auction at the Royal hotel here on Wednesday, but the bidding was so slow it was withdrawn. Subsequently it was sold to Mr. Newrick Wilson for $7,000. The farm is a very nice one, and Mrs. Pallister for $2,000 during her lifetime, she being now 60 years of age. The mortgage bears interest at 6 per cent, payable half yearly, and the uncertainty of the length of Mrs. Pallister's days proved a bug-bear to buyers.

A Big Excursion. The excursion to Guelph on Tuesday under auspices of S. O. Farmers' Institute was a rouser. Eight cars passed through here from the north, and three came from Ontario. The day was somewhat cooler than those preceding it, and those on the excursion enjoyed the trip. Lunch was supplied at the model farm at 12 o'clock, and again before the excursion left at 5 o'clock. The model farm looks beautiful, and all its crops and surroundings are magnificent. The country along the route of the excursion gives promise of a big crop.

Epworth League Convention. The annual convention of the Epworth League of the Bay of Quinte conference will be held in connection with the international gathering of young methodists in Toronto. The conference convention will open in Sherbourne St. Methodist church on Thursday July 15th, 1897, at 10 a. m. sharp. At the morning session business will be transacted and officers elected. It is important that all the Methodist Young People's societies shall be represented by their delegates, and that the Epworth League of the Bay of Quinte shall be represented by one official delegate for every 20 members or fraction thereof. A good programme will be provided. The railway rate is single fare on return certificate and allowing $2.00 for the excursion on Thursday afternoon. Any further information can be had by applying to Rev. C. W. Watch, Brighton.

A Cousin of Judge Dartnell. In Harper's Magazine there have appeared in recent consecutive numbers a series of articles by Putnamy Bigelow entitled "The White Man's Ache" in which interesting accounts are given of the English and Dutch communities in that country, and graphic descriptions given of their soil, products and capabilities of settlement. The July series is devoted to "New Netherland" and therefrom several extracts. The Col. Dartnell here alluded to is a native Canadian, having been born in London, Ontario, where his father was stationed as superintendent of the Royal Arsenal, when quartered in this country. He is a cousin and schoolmate of his honor Judge Dartnell, and is a gallant and distinguished officer, having received the Victoria Cross for his gallantry at the storming of the fortress of Hanoi in Central India, during the mutiny. His niece is a daughter of Col. Wells of Toronto, and is married to the Rev. Mr. Dependent St. Alban's Cathedral, who preached in All Saints' church last Wednesday evening. The following is the clipping: Colonel Dartnell is another institution of which we are proud, for he is a member of the Police of that country, and is so excellent an administrator that he keeps order over the whole of his territory by means of a mounted force of only about three hundred white men, under the command of a few red black auxiliaries; but the blacks have no discretion, and act under orders of the whites. * * * The militarism of the Zulu varies only in degree from that of Prussia, and will only be rectified by such economic shocks as rinderpest, locust plagues, and Courts of Justice. Next to these and to the locomotive, the missionary that appeals most strongly to the sympathies of the natives is the Zulu, whose husband commands the local military forces of the colony. Colonel Dartnell was stationed at one time in a part of the colony where his official residence was approached by a path leading up a rather steep hill. He was much respected by the natives, and there were frequent occasions for these to visit him. Mrs. Dartnell discovered that the natives custom was to let the wives carry the burdens up this hill, while the gentlemen of the party contented themselves with a stick or spear. With few feminine tact Mrs. Dartnell commended her missionary career rest themselves and have refreshments; but the men she ostentatiously ignored, on the ground that, as they had done so well, they could not require any refreshment. Little by little the natives of the official revolution permeated the mind of the black neighborhood, and it was a revolution of black men's rights. Soon it was carried that one black man had actually borne part of his wife's burden up the hill; and as this was not followed by the usual of nature, the Zulus were greatly surprised, until little by little it became the rule, in that neighborhood at least, for a man to assist his wives in the bearing of burdens. In a case bearing a trunk on the railway station on her back, while its owner followed behind smoking a cigar, and in any case behind smoking a cigar, by the sight of a heavy load, Mrs. Dartnell's husband was considerably surprised, and the Zulus were greatly surprised. But then Germany requires a large army. Therefore let us say that Mrs. Dartnell's missionary work of Zulu is a Zulu in Natal.

The Tramp nuisance.

Ohawa Vindicator: A tramp about 18 years of age undertook to intimidate different women on Thursday by his brute talk, but before he had proceeded far Chief Hoover had gathered him in. He ordered him to get up and go by or they will be arrested called four names. He wanted delicacies and his orders were that the housewife be blank quick in getting what he wanted. When taken before P. M. Marley on Friday he pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy and was sent to Whitby for two months. The chief has given instructions to all of the fraternity that show themselves up town to give the place a go by or they will get into trouble. There are more tramps this year than ever before, and the harsh usage they get does not seem to reform them or lessen the popularity of their calling. The tramp problem is becoming a problem of our social life that Parliament must deal with. Our public roads need permanent improvement, and this idle army of able bodied men are supported by the public without toll, and so long as that is the case so long will the improvident and the shiftless who are seeking to get through the world with as little exertion as possible fall into the ranks to swell the number. So long as present conditions prevail so long will the numbers continue to increase. These men must be given work. The state owes it to the public to give protection to society from this menacing evil. There is no public service as badly in need of competent oversight as the construction of our public thoroughfares. Hills can be cut down and roads levelled up. A solid foundation must be laid for roadways to support the top dressing or the gravel will sink into the mud and the driveways will never be satisfactory. Walks, if they are not laid every year in proper road construction, to say nothing of the free living that tramps get for the asking, to keep them at work that will benefit the public. With remunerations for their labor they are necessary for petty thieving will be removed and the country will be saved something in the extra expense it is put in the prosecution of the criminals of the tramp class.

To the Phrenoline Medicine Co., Ltd., Ottawa, Ont.

Gentlemen,—On the advice of a friend I tried one bottle of your famous rheumatic remedy, Phrenoline, and to my surprise it cured me of rheumatism, from which I have suffered for many years.

It also cured me of dyspepsia, from which I was suffering at the time, so that I feel now like a new man.

I have tried several remedies for rheumatism, some of which did me a certain amount of good, but nothing that I have taken has done so much for me as your Phrenoline, and I have much pleasure in recommending it to other sufferers.

Yours very truly, (Signed) JAS. CARROLL, Foreman of Works, Rideau Canal.
