LOCAL NEWS LETTERS.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

PORT PERRY

Mr. Jno. Gregg is home for a short holiday.
Miss Thomas, teacher, is home for her vacation.
Mr. Joseph Bigelow is home for a rest and holiday.
Miss Gilpin, of Uxbridge, is a guest of Miss Brooks.
Mrs. E. Conklin is confined to her room by serious illness.
Mr. W. H. Letcher, of Welland, is renewing old acquaintances in town.
Harry Paterson, of Midland, is visiting Mr. N. F. Paterson and family in town.
Miss Annie Roberts, who has been very ill for over two weeks, is now convalescent.
Mr. and Mrs. Ulin, of Buffalo, and Miss Lizzie Goode are visiting Mrs. Jas. Goode.
Mr. and Mrs. Eastman Wallace, of Lindsay, were visitors at Mr. E. Conklin's Sunday and Monday.
Mrs. Armstrong, of Bath, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Mellow.
Rev. R. Whiteman occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in Brooklin last Sabbath.
Mr. Chas. Thorn, V.S., with friends were guests of Mrs. M. R. Vee on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
Died, in the 2nd con of Reach, on the 13th inst., Ellen Jane Brown, daughter of the late Robt Brown, in her 49th year.
The firemen have changed the date and place of their excursion. It takes place on civic holiday, August 11th, to Peterboro.
Several American visitors are visiting friends in town, after having attended the great Epworth League convention in Toronto.
Alfred Fletcher, who has been assistant postmaster for some time, has taken another position in Toronto. Postmaster Burnham's daughter is now assistant.
Rev. D. N. McCamus, Mr and Mrs Brisbin, Miss A. Brown, Miss L. Pearce and Miss M.
Parrish were in attendance at the Epworth League convention in Toronto last week.
It is reported that one of the hotels on the 12th of July took in $1000 in cash, and another hotel in Bowmanville $1200 the same day. Who says the times are hard?
Messrs. H. Brathwaite, W. Anderson, L.
Hall, and J. Goudy wheeled to Oshawa last Sunday, all returning in the evening except W. Anderson, who went to Cobourg and returned to town last night.
Mrs. Joseph Bascom with a lady friend of Port Huron are visiting friends in town and vicinity. After an absence of over 18 years Mrs. Bascom says there are many changes and improvements in Port Perry.
Died, at Brockville, on the 8th inst., N. V.
Malloy, aged 58 years. Deceased lived in this town some years ago and while a resident was leader of the band. As a neighbor and citizen of the late N. V. Malloy was respected and liked by all who made his acquaintance.
It was with regret that the many friends of Mr. Jas. Worfolk, Whitby—who was a resident of this town for many years—heard of the death of Mrs. Worfolk last week, and sincere sympathy is felt for Mr. Worfolk and the three motherless little children in their sad bereavement.
The Methodist Sabbath School had their annual excursion to the Washburn Island on Wednesday. The union excursion of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Church of Ascension Sabbath schools will have their annual excursion to the above mentioned, resort on Tuesday 27th inst.
The results and standing of the midsummer promotion examination of divisions 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, of our public school were in the local papers last week. The boys and girls were eager to see what their standing was and were highly pleased with the number of marks received by each one.
One man in town has the Youkon gold fever bad and can hardly contain himself when he reads in the daily press of the fabulous (?) amount of money made in a few months by those who have been in that frozen country. A reads very nicely on paper: are those reports all true?
Baseball.
A meeting of the harness makers of this town was held on the 18th inst. for the purpose of organizing a baseball club. The name of the club is "Maple Leaf." The officers are:—Hon. Pres., T. Courtye; Pres., W. Beatty; Vice Pres., R. McGill; Manager, J. Bravener; Sec., W. Emerson; Treas., E.
Raines; Committee, J. Bravener, H. Lucas, B. Jones, L. Foote. The members of the "Maple Leaf Baseball Club" extended an invitation to the young men of the town to join the club.
George the hatter made his appearance in town on Monday and left again early Tuesday morning for Lindsay. Since this morning was here he has fallen heir to a nice sum of money and spent it at the rate of $4 per day, he spent the last $4 on Jubilee day and then had to start at his old trade of cleaning hats for a livelihood. Though George is a tramp of the first water, he is well informed and has a great memory; he says he read in the staff of life, but whiskey is life itself; he further states that he has drunk in his lifetime seventy barrels of whiskey and will soon have drunk the seventy-first, and still he is alive and in "good spirits."

Mid-day Burglary
About 11 o'clock on Wednesday of last week while Mrs. F. Raines and Mrs. Edward Raines were in their garden, and only a short distance from the house, some thieves entered the house and ransacked drawers and scattered the contents and littered the floors of each room they found a bureau in the kitchen and drawers to find that amount.
In their hurry they only got $10 out of one pocket book and did not take the trouble of examining this particular one as they missed $25 in another part of the same purse they then went to another room and got $1.50. Our citizens would be prudent, when having occasion to go into their yard or garden for a short time, to either leave something in the house or lock all doors, as one cannot tell when sneak thieves may enter.
In this case there is a good deal of substranean around Mr. Raines house and these mid-day thieves watched their chance and thence took advantage of a sole distance when they entered and it rained the house. There is a strong suspicion who the guilty ones are, and they would do well to return the stolen money to Mr. Raines before they find themselves in limbo.

Decorations services were held last Friday evening. A goodly number of the members of the different lodges in town, preceded by the Enfield brass band, wended their way to the Pine Grove cemetery, where all the graves of the departed members were decorating with flowering plants. Appropriate services were conducted over each grave while suitable hymns were also sung, besides music from the band.
The Burglars Know
Detective Cockburn, of the G. T. R., told a Toronto World reporter that the notorious Albert W. McLean, who escaped from police headquarters, Toronto, last week, and Mas-loney and Clark in Barrie jail, were the burglars doing so much raiding, and are no doubt the burglars who robbed Curtis' safe, etc. He further said he had a abundance of evidence against McLean and the other two of crimes committed in the last few weeks, how they had committed burglaries since a month ago in Port Perry and along the Midland and Northern railways.
Picnic and Presentation On Wednesday afternoon of last week over one hundred members of the Band of Hope, with a number of their parents and friends assembled in Mr. Taylor's parlour for their annual outing and picnic. The little folks enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content in different games. Before the time came for baskets Mrs. McCamus called the company to order and made an appropriate address, speaking very highly of the good work done by the President in the Band of Hope, after which Mesdames Allen and Hall presented Mrs. C. J. Pearce with a beautiful silver clock and silver fruit spoon, and was also crowned with a pretty wreath of roses. Mrs. Pearce made a fitting reply and thanked the donors very gratefully for the handsome presents. After this ceremony was over one hundred and ten lively lads and lassies sat down to a beautiful spread on the grass; thus ended one of the best picnics that was ever held by the Port Perry Band of Hope.
Saturday night closing.
The town clerks men are endeavoring to get the merchants and tradesmen to close their stores sharp at 9:30 p.m. on Saturday nights. Some of them claim they cannot do it as people will buy until 10 and 11 on Saturday evenings. If the merchants really wanted to close, all that is necessary would be to close their respective places at 9, 9 or 9:30 and people would soon find out and do their trading in good time. But what is the need of soliciting signatures etc. There are some people in this world who imagine they will have on a shroud with a pocket in it and take their wealth with them when they die. Sometimes such people fool themselves badly. How often men in business work so hard and so late on Saturday nights that when Sunday morning comes they are so tired that they cannot get up in time to go to church and in fact are tired all day Sunday for the extra work they did the day previous.

GREENBANK

Mr. Hugh Petty, teacher, is home for the holidays.
Mr. Henry Bewell, who is now teaching at Mount Forest, is spending a few days with his friends here.
Miss Lizzie Spencer, of Brooklin, and Miss Maggie Davidson, of Ashburn, were visiting at James Burns' the first of the week.
Harvesting will be general in a few days. The first cutting that we have heard of is a field of barley at the farm of Mr. James McMillan.
A full attend is requested at the Epworth League on Friday evening next, as the delegates who have been attending the big convention at Toronto are expected to report.
The Rev. R. H. Swirell, preached in the methodist church on Sunday evening last. It is several years since he has visited this, his native village, and his old friends and schoolmates were glad of the privilege of seeing and hearing him once more.
Some years ago our village was famous for the number of its churches, there being no less than four, which for a place of its size was something unusual. The churches at that time were the primitive Methodist, Canada methodist, church of England, and Presbyterian. The methodist union closed one of the methodist churches, and the Church of England, which was never very strong, was removed through the removal of several of its best supporters to sustain a pastor and as a consequence this fine church has been closed for some years, so for some time there has been but two churches holding service. But now it appears as if we are to have the old number established once more. Mr. Ross, the pastor of the baptist church at Uxbridge, has for the last few weeks been holding meetings in the Temperance Hall on Friday evenings which have been well attended, and now it is announced by the Rev.
Mr. Reid, also of Uxbridge, is to resume the English church next Sunday afternoon, the service to commence at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the methodist Sunday school was held on Tuesday evening of last week in the basement of the church. For the last twelve years the school has been managed on a sort of "free and easy plan," every scholar and supporter having an equal say in electing the officers and any other business in connection with the school, and the different pastors who have had charge of the circuit in this time, finding that the plan worked well and satisfactory (although not exactly according to the strict rules of the church, which is to be regretted, decided to let the existing conditions severely alone. But with the erection of a new church a general reorganization has followed, and it was decided by the quarter board that the Sunday school should be managed according to discipline which puts the control in the hands of a few, and this was the first meeting under the new dispensation. The meeting was called to order by the Rev. Mr. Leitch, who presided, and the question as to who should vote came to the front at once, and signs of insubordination were plainly visible. One of the leading members of the church expressed his belief that the Sunday school was part of the church, every member of the church should have a voice and vote in its management and if the discipline did not allow of it, he would advise a change in the discipline. Another declared that he was a democrat and the discipline was too narrow and that it was possible for even a church discipline to be wrong. The chairman lost no time in pouring oil on the troubled waters, and the meeting proceeded to appoint the standing committee.
It having been discovered that members of committees were by the discipline allowed to vote in the election of officers, it was resolved to after and after crowding each other to the utmost something over a dozen of those present were left out in the cold with the choice of sitting to cross a white line, or being asked to go home, going home. Reports and routine business occupied the attention of the meeting for some time, then came the most important thing, the election of officers. The pastor, according to the discipline being the only one allowed to nominate candidates for this office and he proceeded to name five that he thought would be suitable, and after several ballots were taken Mr. George Lee was declared elected. By this time the hands of the clock pointed to midnight and it was decided to adjourn to meet again to finish the election on Wednesday evening of this week.

HOLIDAY BROS., BROOKLIN.

KINSALE
Mr. Jno Lawrence is shingling Mr. Foley's barn near Brooklin.
Misses Addie and Luella Mowbray are holidaying at their home.
Mr. R. W. McAvoy and sister visited friends in Brooklin on Sabbath.
Mrs. Gibson is reported some better of late;
she is Mrs. J. Lewis.
Mr. W. W. Wagoner, of Windsor, spent a few days at Mr. S. Mackey's last week.
Miss Gibson, of Whitby, was the guest on Sabbath of Miss Annie Wetherill.
Mrs. Bartley has returned home after spending a few days' recreation at her old home here.
J. N. Horrop has lately purchased one of those new road cars built by McLaughlin, Oshawa.
Mr. Wagoner is getting several engines ready for the threshing season which is fast advancing.
Geo. Richardson now rides a bike, it is one of the Red Bird persuasion and gives good satisfaction.
Miss Emma Redman, of Saugey, returned home on Wednesday, after visiting friends for a few days.
Rosa Rothchilds has completed sewing operations and is now expressing thanks for the beautiful shawls.
Several farmers have already cut some of the pasture harvest, while others are busily engaged in the hay field.
Mr. Frank Lawton is laid off duty owing to sickness. Dr. Moore is the family practitioner and will do all that can be done to speedily restore Frank to former health.
Miss Lilla Mackay, of Rochester, who has for the past few weeks been resting from her labors as a professional nurse, has returned home again and will resume professional duties.
Service was conducted here on Sabbath last at 10.30 instead of a 9. Rev. Mr. Clark officiated, and his discourse was an excellent one; the singing was led by Mr. Geo. Ayers.
Among those who attended the great Epworth League convention in Toronto last week were Messrs Stevenson, Mackay, Lawrence, and Rev.

BROOKLIN

Mr. Payne of Toronto is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Roberts.
Fly pans, stick paper and insect powder at Holiday Bros.
Ella and Lillian Holiday are visiting with Miss Lick of Oshawa.
Miss Lena Baer of Brougham, visited her sister, Mrs. A. Roberts.
Mr. Peter Mc Dalraid of Pickering, whose team ran away with him and killed him on Tuesday, lived on the farm now occupied by Mr. T. Mannings, about 25 years ago.
The G. T. R. section men from here went to attend a gathering of railway men met to bid farewell to their late road-master Mr.
Ferguson, who has been removed to London.

In reporting the list of successful candidates at the recent entrance examination held at Whitby the name of Miss Maud Delong from Brooklin school was omitted.
She took a standing of 485.
The hay crop is turning out well and the prospects for a bountiful grass crop were never better. The demand for harvest hands is unusually brisk here and there are no idle men to be found at present.
At the meeting of the Presbytery of Whitby held at Bowmanville on Tuesday last, it was decided to hold the October meeting in Brooklin. At the same time the annual convention of the young people's societies will be held here.
Messrs Bennett of Markham, and Richar-
son of Kinsale, have decided to establish a cash market here for the purchase of farm produce. They will be here next Thursday 29th inst, and regularly on that day of the week for the future. They hope to do a big business.
Mr. A. Hueson was badly hurt on Friday by falling from a load of hay. His shoulder was badly hurt and his head cut. It is very fortunate his neck was not broken as this might easily have happened with the fall he fell. It will be several weeks before he is again able to go to his work.

The splendid showing made by the pupils of the Brooklin school at the recent entrance examination is particularly gratifying to all who are interested in our academy. Only one other school outside of the town passed as many, and of the four scholarships given two came to Brooklin. No better result could have been expected, and we heartily congratulate Mr. Eddy and his pupils.
County Judge Dartnell held court in the council room here on Tuesday last to hear appeals from the Court of Revision. The only appeal entered was one by Rev. J. H.
Harris, who claimed that the St. Thomas church parsonage, situate in Brooklin, is exempt from assessment, the Court of Revision having decided that it was not exempt.
Mr. J. E. Farewell, Q. C., appeared for the petitioner and Mr. J. B. Dow for the township.
The evidence was all taken but the case was not concluded. Arguments of council will be heard at Whitby at a date to be agreed upon. The judge's decision will be awaited with considerable interest.

Tuesday, lived on the farm now occupied by Mr. T. Mannings, about 25 years ago.
The G. T. R. section men from here went
to attend a gathering of railway men met to
bid farewell to their late road-master Mr.
Ferguson, who has been removed to London.

In reporting the list of successful candi-
held at Whitby the name of Miss Maud De-
long from Brooklin school was omitted.
She took a standing of 485.
The hay crop is turning out well and the prospects for a bountiful grass crop were
never better. The demand for harvest
no idle men to be found at present.
At the meeting of the Presbytery of Whit-
by held at Bowmanville on Tuesday last, it was decided to hold the October meeting in
be held here.
Messrs Bennett of Markham, and Richar-
son of Kinsale, have decided to establish a
cash market here for the purchase of farm
produce. They will be here next Thursday 29th inst, and regularly on that day of the week for the future. They hope to do a big business.
Mr. A. Hueson was badly hurt on Friday
by falling from a load of hay. His shoulder
fortunate his neck was not broken as this
again able to go to his work.

of the Brooklin school at the recent entrance
examination is particularly gratifying to all
two came to Brooklin. No better result
congratulate Mr. Eddy and his pupils.
council room here on Tuesday last to hear
appeals from the Court of Revision. The
only appeal entered was one by Rev. J. H.
church parsonage, situate in Brooklin, is
exempt from assessment, the Court of Revision having decided that it was not exempt.
Mr. J. E. Farewell, Q. C., appeared for the pe-
The evidence was all taken but the case was
with considerable interest.
