On Friday last Sam McLaughlin, R Kirk-patrick, Geo Ashley, F Tait and W P Stericker visited some trout stream in the neighborhood of Orono. As is customary in such matters the strictest secrecy is observed about the place and the only infor-mation the uninitiated can get is that the stream is so narrow that you can step over it and that as fast as a line can be dropped in a trout can be pulled out. The party fished from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m., and got 206 beauties, while several thousand small ones, whose size appealed to the human principles of the party, were returned to the water. It would be difficult to get a nicer lot of trout together than the lot the party brought back to town with them.

On Wednesday a man who said he came from "Bloomington," east of Millbrook, was around town begging money. He had one arm off, which he said he lost in a saw mill, and was raising money to buy an artificial one. He had not a scrap of paper from any person to show that his case was deserving, and merely expected to draw money from people on his own story and the missing hand. He said he had collected $50, and needed only $25 more to complete the sum necessary for the hand that is to be attached. He places the accident as having occurred three years ago, and it is more than likely Hughes, Chicago, at Mr John Hughe that it is ten or fifteen years since he lost it.

It is also more than probable that ten years from now the same man, will be still traveling around hunting for the other $25 necesting around hunt ocket money and spend it in fast living.
