Save a terrific thunder storm that swept over e lake on Sunday afternoon last, ideal camping weather has prevailed since last writing you. Many guests have come and gone at the Leland house, which is rapidly becoming one of the most popular summer resorts in Central Ontario. Friend Swain is doing everything in his power to make this place, so favored by nature as a summer resort, most favorably known to pleasure seekers. His register will soon be more of transient guests includes representatives from every province and nearly every burg in the Do- | business and will shortly open out for business in minion. If he could only move his handsome. convenient, and well equipped store, which now awaits a tenant at Biackstock, to Cæsarea, it would not detract from the appearance of our handsome village. Tom is anxious to secure a good tenant for his valuable property and Black. stock no doubt will be pleased to welcome a live business man. We hope both may attain their desires. The heavy winds that have prevailed for the last few days have discounted lunge fish. ing, but have made bass hishing more general. This exciting sport is now at its best and guests at the hotel and the campers on the lake shore report phenomenial catches. Mr J Latimer, the handsomest man in Toronto, with his wife and two children, are guests at the Leland house. The Bowmanville camp is yet in full blast, but he Mitchell Bros and their friends, from Enniskillen, broke up camp on Monday and, contrary to campers customs, returned boats and fishing tackle in first class condition. School opened on Monday, and the local pedagogues have returned to their several posts. On Tuesday the fortunate in losing a beauty, although he secured a 7 pounder. Messrs Holt, Pickle, Henderson and Jas Lauder were trout fishing on Monday, on the noted stream of Cartwright, and bagged nearly two hundred of the speckled beauties. It would have done Major Farewells and Judge Dartnells hearts good to have been along. Messrs A M Ross and Jas Shaw, of Whitby, were the guests of Capt Henderson on Sunday and regretted exceedingly that both the moral and civil laws prevented their casting a line into our well stock ed lake. However, the captains larder was wel supplied and they were enabled to form an opinion of what our lake produces. W Michell, B A., and his brother Allan, of Toronto, are guests at Pine Lodge.
