

The Chronicle.

VOL. XLI.

WHITBY, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1897.

NO. 39

Everything in Season

Wilson's Fly Poison Pads 10c

Smith's Poison Pads 5 cents.

Tanglefoot Sticky Fly, six sheets, for 5c.

Fruit Jar Rings, Sealing Wax, Corks, Etc.

A. H. Allin,
CHEMIST & DRUGGIST.

WHITBY, ONTARIO.

WINDMILLS
AND WIRE FENCE.

Geo. Allin

Sells the Genuine AER-MOTOR, of Chicago, and the Kestleman Wire Fence

Intending purchasers should examine this mill before placing their order. Do not let an agent put an imitation on you when you can get the Genuine Aeromotor, thoroughly galvanized, and warranted, for less money. More of these mills sold in Canada to-day than any other make. The Aeromotor Co. claim they sell one half the number of windmill outfits sold in the world, at the present time.

All styles of Wood and Iron Pumps for sale.

Any information regarding these outfits will be freely given by writing to

GEO. ALLIN, Whitby.
Feb 7, 1897—6mo.

WESTERN BANK OF CANADA,
Whitby, Ont.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.
John Cowan, Esq., President; Reuben S. Hamlin, Esq., Vice-Pres.; W. F. Cowan, Esq., W. F. Allen, Esq., J. A. Gibson, Esq., Robert McIntosh, M. D., Thomas Patterson, Esq., L. V. McBRIDE, Esq., T. H. McMillan, Cashier.

General Banking Business transacted. Drafts issued, payable in all parts of Canada, United States, and on London, England, payable in all parts of Europe. 3 1/2 per cent. allowed on Savings Bank Deposits and credited half yearly.

Special attention to collection of Farmers' sale notes.

E. D. WARREN,
Manager of Whitby Branch.

Post Farm for Sale

The Post Farm is for sale by private contract. Will be sold on very easy terms. Apply to D. McBRIDE, Auditor, Dow & McGilvray, Whitby, or L. V. McBRIDE, Esq., the solicitor, Canada Life Building, Toronto. Whitby, July 19, 1897.

Established 1849.

Whitby Steam Marble and Granite Works,
Dundas St.,
WHITBY.

Chas. H. Smith,
(Formerly Wolfenden Works.) Importer and dealer in MARBLE AND GRANITE MONUMENTS, Etc., of the latest material and design. All kinds of Cemetery work. Our work guaranteed.

SEND FOR DESIGNS AND PRICES.

AGENTS—I am just starting the best thing for money making you have seen for many a day. Your name and address will bring the golden information. R. P. GLASGOW, Toronto, Ont.

Good Pasture to Let.

The undersigned has good pasture for cattle or horses on the rear of lot 25, 3rd Concession, Whitby Township. Plenty of shade and running water. Apply to J. B. DOW, Solicitor, Whitby.

LOCAL NEWS LETTERS.

CRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

TOWN LINE.

Mr Harry Plaskett, Toronto, was here recently.

Miss Urquhart, Toronto, is visiting at Mr W McGregors.

Miss Lena Carmichael, Oshawa, is spending this week with friends.

Miss F Kempthorn, Toronto, is visiting at her uncle's, Mr C Kempthorn.

Mrs Crago and daughter, Bowmanville, is visiting her sister, Mrs G Rodd.

$1.50 per barrel is being offered for winter apples, and 75c for fall fruit.

There is a good opening for a wagon maker in the stand of the late Mr Cookwell.

Some people in this vicinity heard the noise of the explosion which occurred near Welland Thursday morning of last week.

Mr and Mrs J. F. Webster, Helena, Montana, are visiting at the Webster home-stead. They are on their wedding tour.

We extend our congratulations.

Harvesting will be about finished this week, if the weather continues fine. There is likely to be a larger acreage of wheat down this fall than usual.

An item in "Farming" this month on "Let beef cattle-men take courage," should be read by every farmer. The advice given is right, and to the point.

Dogs are kept for various purposes, but we think they are all kept more or less for their company and to watch at night, although it has always puzzled us to know of what use a dog is to protect its owner's property when it is miles away worrying some farmer's sheep.

Mr Carpenter has had his sheep worried twice this summer; it is very discouraging to farmers who are trying to keep a flock to continually have them destroyed by these miserable curs.

Still there is no use of us calling the dogs names, but we hope those who have dogs will see that they are safe at night, and not allow them to prove a ground to see how much they can devour.

Port Perry.

R B Hoagard of Toronto is holidaying in this vicinity.

Miss E. Dennison is in Toronto on a two weeks holiday.

Miss Clara Stovin of Toronto, has been visiting her parents in town.

Mrs Mountjoy, Ennisville, is visiting friends in town and in Reach.

Rev J H Mallet returned from Manitoba on Thursday last week.

Mrs C Smith, of Uxbridge, has been visiting Mrs W Jameson of this place.

Mr and Mrs Walters of Oshawa are guests of Mr and Mrs R J Williamson.

N F Patterson, Q. C., is attending the Grand Lodge of Foresters in Toronto this week.

Died at Myrtle on the 17th inst, Annie Prince, relict of the late Edwin Hodges, in her 36th year.

Peter Maitland and family removed on Monday to Millbrook, where he has secured a lucrative situation.

Duncan Sinclair and members of his family are at S. E. Allisons in town; Mr Sinclairs little son is very ill.

The Methodist choral class choir did splendidly last Sunday evening, especially the last anthem of the closing.

Police-man and Mrs Fairweather, of Toronto, are visiting Mrs Fairweather's parents, Rev J and Mrs Whitlock in town.

Hon Jas Dryden in Wednesday's Globe denies the rumor that he will run for Western Ontario and South Ontario.

Labor day is on Monday, Sept. 6th, and is a Dominion holiday, and all places of business are closed that day the same as any other holiday.

Mr Shiras, Duggist, of Trenton, and Miss Minnie Borden of that town, have been guests of Mrs Wm H. Stock at "Lakewood cottage" Peats Point.

About twenty Christian Endeavorers from this place went to Oshawa on Wednesday of last week, and had a very pleasant time, except the home coming, which was wet.

Mr Fred Corrig of Toronto; Conductor and Mrs. McMillan of Whitby; Mr. Pears and family of Toronto; Junction; Mr J Carnegies family and Mr E H Purdy's family, are in cottages at Peats Point.

Rev E R Young, who was some years ago pastor of the Methodist church here, will lecture the pulpit of that church next Sabbath.

Monday evening he will lecture and illustrate his lecture by lime light views.

Since wheat has advanced in price the bakers in town have raised the price of a four lb. loaf from ten to twelve cents. Many families that have in the past bought bread now intend to do their own bread baking, many thinking the sudden rise in wheat is not permanent. Toronto bakers had not raised their prices on Wednesday.

Baseball

The leather lip line challenged the cotton tails to a game of baseball. The game came off on Monday and resulted in the defeat of the leather lips by a score of 4 to 2. W L Parrish was umpire and his decisions were satisfactory to both sides. The next game will be between the cotton tails and the hungry nine club.

Third and Fourth Form Results

In Wednesday's daily the former junior leaving and senior leaving exams appear. The successful candidates of Port Perry school in the third form are: R Baird, J Christie, L Dodds, E Kennedy, L McCaw, J McCulloch (passed in chemistry and German), D McQueen, E Paxton, E Parr, S E Parr, E Savage, A Wallace, Lizzie Weir, Laura Weir, IV form—M Armstrong. Form IV, part I—F Harrison.

Fenelon Falls Excursion

The Sons of Temperance excursion to Fenelon Falls last Friday was a success, financially and in the large number of board.

The Fenelon brass band played at intervals during the trip and added very much to the enjoyment of the excursionists; the band doing themselves credit by the selections rendered. The Cranella steamed out of the dock here shortly after seven o'clock and arrived at Fenelon Falls at 3:30 p. m. For two hours those on board viewed the sights of the northern country village, the main attractions being the fine locks and the immense lumber mills. The employees of the mills were very obliging and civil to the visitors, taking pains to answer any questions asked and showing visitors the complicated machinery. At 3:30 the steamer left the falls homeward bound and when the boat arrived at Lindsay, those on board who wished had one hour at that town, leaving there at 6:30 and arriving at Port Perry dock a few minutes past ten.

Everyone was pleased with the success of the excursion, and many expressed themselves as saying it was the best excursion they ever attended. Though there were nearly 300 on board everyone was agreeable and the committee are highly pleased with the satisfactory way in which everything passed off.

Port Perry division of the Sons of Temperance have again added to their good name by having the best excursion that leave this town.

Number fifty-three train going south on Monday noon struck three young cattle two and a half miles north of the town at a public crossing. One was killed and the other three slightly injured—were owned by Mr Wesley Luke, of Reach.

Securing the Needful.

Last week a resident of Cartwright township had a desire to go to Manitoba on the harvesters excursion. To secure a ticket for the week or more before he left he came to Port Perry, and offered to one of the cattle buyers a heifer, and was told he would receive about $12 for it, and was also informed that the buyers preferred the heifer to the cow and are out $25 cash.

The fellow went home one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days afterward Messrs Hoey and Wilson happened to meet a neighbor, a short distance south of Port Perry, and while talking Mr Hoey noticed some cattle grazing and saw what he believed was one of his steers. He said "there is my steer," Mr Wilson then had his attention directed to the herd, and soon expressed himself that his steer was also there. They both found one came back again, saying he had traded the heifer for two steers, giving seven dollars difference. He was paid $5 and told when to deliver the steers when the balance would be paid; the animals were delivered to Messrs Jack and Eoe and the balance paid over. A few days