Burglary. On Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock, the 10th inst., the residence of Mrs J N Raymer. Boxgrove, was thoroughly searched by a burglar, who secured some seven dollars in money for his trouble. He went into all the sleeping rooms, and those in each room supposed it was other members of the family, excepting the bed room in which Mrs Louis H Reesor was an open window with shutters closed, which he easily opened. There is no clue to the operator.
