Miss May Gordon, who met with a se vere fracture of one of her limbs in Buffalo a while ago, is here with her parents now and is improving nicely. Her many friends are glad to know that she will soon be completely restored to health.

One of the finest farming areas of Ontario lies surrounding Pickering. Here we have all the advantages of churches and schools and a thriving village business is done. Besides, being in a desirable location, and on the Grand Trunk main line, it is a pleasant place to live. It ought to attract farmers to the surrounding excellent farms with the hard time cloud lifting, as well as the gentleman to retire.

We have heard that deer would occassionally be seen in the creek valleys of come, the adjoining townships but we had not of late years known that one had been who have been visiting the latters moth and 13 Albert st., Toronto, answered gift. seen in Pickerings vicinity. They followed it for some distance, but the fleetness proverbial to those pretty but nimble creatures was still of its old time renown. It was seen crossing the rear of Boones farm and disappearing in the woods and flats. It is the supposition that it had escaped from some private parties who have had it tamed.

A gang of gypsies encamped on the O'Leary flats near the old residence south of the bridge on Friday night last. They began to imbibe freely and as they wished a fire to prepare their evening repast, began to demolish part of the house there for kindling wood. Arthur O'Leary, a student of Toronto, being home, walked across to see if he could persuade the trespasser to desist but such a volley of language of the vilest type met him that he walked up to Squire Bunting and asked him to interfere. Shortly after Mr Bunting appeared on the scene, there was a renewed outburst of explet:ves and cussing that one should judge the man to be crazy. The magistrate tried to reason with him and then ordered him to leave within twelve hours, which the vagrant tribe decided they would do. Now a gypsy man may have as many rights as any other individual but our villagers will not tolerate such a decidedly objectionable and depraved set as this to camp within the city walls. Canada ought to have no use for nomadic races. -News.
