A peculiar circumstance in connection with the going out of the lights in the Simcoe street church on Sunday night was that at the same time a praver was being offered for the thing most needed.

The members of the Oshawa Golf Club are playing their handicap matches which are a series of three games. The first were played on Saturday last. The second to-day and the final on Saturday. There are three prizes. Fred Cowan is likely to win first place, making what is known among golfers as the vogie score on Monday, On Saturday, Oct. 2nd, Rosedale will play on the local green.

The farmer who has a potato crop unaf fected with rot this year is in luck. Re ports come from many parts of Ontario that signs of rot are apparent and that in some cases farmers are not digging their potatoes, so infected are they. In other cases, the tubers are dug and marketed at once, because they have no keeping qualities. The blight is similar to that which destroy ed the crop a number of years ago. In Osh awa potatoes are quoted at 50c. per bushel and not very plentitul at that. The rot is said to be cause of the high price but as yet the crop has not been gathered.

The residence of Mr Walter Chubb of the Elora road, east, was the scene of an event Wednesday afternoon Sept 15 which always causes a ripple of excitement to pass through any community, being the marriage of his daughter, Miss Eva E to Mr James Allen Fraser, of Howick, and the marriage of his daughter, Miss Ada K to Mr George Mc-Intosh, of Carrick. The ceremony was performed by Rev W A Harvey, B A of Clifford in the presence of about seventy guests. The knots were securely tied. The brides were dressed alike, in pale blue trimmed with white, and the groomsmen wore the regulation black. The young ladies were given away by their father. Immediately after the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding repast, set out on the lawn. When the guests had all done justice to the good things, Rev Mr Harvey proposed a toast to the health of the brides and Mr Wm Fraser and Dr Crandall responded. Short addresses were delivered by the following gentlemen: Messrs Drummond, Dr. Elliot, M Matheson and L A Findlay. The brides were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, testifying to the high respect in which they were held in the com munity. About seven oclock the Clifford brass band drove out and serenaded the happy couples. String music furnished by Mr and Mrs Eglesham and Mr Wm Taylor helped to while away the time. About midnight the guests returned to their homes, having spent an excellent time. - Mildmay Gazette.
