Fair Notes.

Glorious weather, but dusty roads. The weather clerk is making friends here. Who says it always rains for Whitby fair? Several ladies had their pockets picked, as usual. The music and racing were worth the

It is a long time since there occured an Allin Bros. Herd, Allin Bros. equinox without gales or rain, as has been the case this year.

Some vender of smiles had some bottled ale at the grounds, and Inspector Ferguson vainly tried to get onto it. A good many attend a show of this sort for no other purpose but to get spiflicated and make a show of themselves.

I E Willis was the only business man in town who made a display at the fair. He had a beautiful case of brushes, combs, and other toilet articles.

The parade of the prize animals was a failure owing to the fact that the few exhibition had been taken home long before the hour of the premium cake walk.

Glorious weather prevailed for the Ont. & Son. Dur. this week, and the attendance was

These men appear to think the directors can keep up a show, provide every exhibitor a good place to advertise his goods, bring a big crowd to see the exhibit, and then pay over to the exhibitor $5 or $10 for every dollar it costs him. If they find they connot secure this treatment they curse the show and leave it.
