CLAREMONT

David Gregg spent a couple of days last week with Brougham friends. Blackwell & Dalgetty ship a carload of horses from this station on Saturday.

M Henderson has had a sore foot for the past week, his horse having stepped upon it. Fred Dowswell has returned to Calgary from British Columbia. He is still in the employ of the C.P.R.

Harry Thomson is having his shop painted and otherwise improved in an anticipation of colder weather. The loose covering on the Barry bridge still continues to annoy those who are compelled to drive over it.

T Brown has purchased a 150 acre farm in Whitechurch and will take possession of the same this fall. Nicholas Burton has been ill for a week but we are pleased to hear that he is about his usual work again.

Kirk Beelby has been very ill for a few days, and his friends are anxiously awaiting an improvement in his condition. Mrs Gerow and Mrs Murdoch returned from Michigan the other day, after spending a week or so with Mrs Bell of that place.

Geo Gerow has been confined to the house for a week with a very severe cold possibly la grippe, but is now somewhat better. Last Sunday a number of our boys visited John Reads place and succeeded in breaking his new windmill, much to the chagrin of the owner.

Grape stealing has become very prevalent in this place. How much more respectable it would be to ask for the fruit. There would be no refusal. Miss Minnie Birrell, of Toronto Junction, after spending a few weeks at Cairn-brogie the guest of Miss Lizzie Graham, returned home Wednesday.

Lizzie Walker who has been employed with Mrs D Forsyth was taken ill with typhoid fever the other day, and was removed to the home of her sister, Mrs Jones, of Balsam. She is not considered in a dangerous condition.

Some time during Thursday night Robt Ashenurst had some $41 stolen from his house on the 3rd con of Uxbridge, a short distance north of here. No one in the house heard the burglar, yet he succeeded in getting away with the cash.

James McFarlane returned from the north the other day with nineteen head of feeding cattle as well as some sheep. The Jones boys have also purchased a number of these cattle. The northern farmers are now making the mistake that ours did a few months ago.

The remains of the late George Jones were brought here from Uxbridge and interred at Bethel cemetery after which a memorial sermon was preached in the Baptist church on Sunday. Deceased was at one time a resident of this locality and was up in years at the time of his death.

At a meeting of the board of management of the Claremont Public Library, held on the evening of the 29th ult., it was decided that a further purchase of books be made, and that the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars be appropriated for that purpose.

PICKERING

Cornelius Casey has rented a shop, stocked it and opened out extensively as a general merchant at Woburn. The family will reside in the commodious residence attached to the store.

His many Pickering friends will be pleased to learn that his venture has proved a success. A very marked revival has occurred in the ranks of the Ancient Order of United Workmen since the last session of grand lodge, when the graded assessment system was adopted.

The Pickering contingent have had the pleasure of feeling a more vigorous membership, and expectations are that ere another year rolls by the number of names on the books will have materially increased.

Several cases of whooping cough have been reported hereabouts during the past few weeks. Complaint has also been made to us that some parents continue to send the children to school after they have discovered that they have the contagion.

Such conduct is very unbecoming to say the least, and unless the rules of propriety are more strictly observed, we will have a general epidemic of the whooping variety.

For the past week a Government Surveyor has been at Fairport making a complete drawing of Frenchmans Bay. The question is for what purpose does the government want these measurements.

Surely the war department at Ottawa have not conceived the idea that the Americans are contemplating a raid on Canada, and think that a fort is necessary at Fairport. This stranger from Ottawa is not in the least communicative.

EVANSVILLE

(Crowded out last week) James Evans sold a fine young horse for a fair price. Miss Mary Smith spent Sunday in Claremont with friends.

Miss Mary Pugh is spending a few days with relatives in Claremont. The inspector called on No 14 on Monday. He found things in good running order.

Ex-Alderman Bates, Mrs Bates, Mr Coady and Mrs Coady of Toronto Sundayed with Mr and Mrs J McAvoy. In reporting last week we forgot to mention that Mr and Mrs G Gilroy were away a few days last week attending the marriage of Mr Gilroy's brother.

The remains of the late Mr Jones of Goodwood were interred in Bethel cemetery on Sunday last. The funeral sermon was preached in the Baptist church in Claremont.

Dangerous Poisons in Plasters.

Belladonna and Aconite plasters would not be used at all if their dangerous qualities were more generally known. These drugs may be absorbed by the system and cause serious trouble.

'Quickcure' has been recommended as being entirely free from anything which could injure a child and no plaster removes pain so quickly. The 50c and $1 size pots of 'Quickcure' hold 3 and 9 times the quantity of trial size, and only a little is required.

Cherrywood

Miss Ferguson has been re-engaged for another year as instructor of the youth of our section. Mrs John Henderson is recovering from her recent illness.

By invitation the choir gathered at W Taylors in honor of Miss Sadie and spent a pleasant evening recently. The farmers seem to be having an easy time just now, as it is impossible to do any plowing in this neighborhood.

SCIENCE AND SKILL

DEVOTED TO THE PREPARATION OF DIAMOND DYES.

It is impossible for the makers of imitation and adulterated package dyes to put up colors for home dyeing work that can give any degree of satisfaction to the public. Imitators have not the scientific knowledge or the capital to do honest and good work.

Scientists of the highest attainments in the chemistry of colors give the benefit of their knowledge and researches for the preparation of Diamond Dyes and the protection of those who use them.

Common dyes are gross frauds and are sold by dealers for the sake of extra profit. Diamond Dyes, though they cost vastly more to prepare, are made to give satisfaction to millions by their perfect qualities.

Beware of the dealer who says his crude dyes are equal to the wonderful Diamond Dyes. Goods colored with Diamond Dyes are fast to soap, water and sun; of no other dyes is this true.

Flavor with lemon. Bake in a moderate oven nearly one hour.

Layer Cake.—Cream together one cupful butter, two of sugar; add one cupful sweet milk, four eggs—beating yolks and whites separately, adding the stiffly beaten whites last. Sift two teaspoonfuls of baking powder with three cupfuls flour. Bake in tins in hot oven. When sufficiently cool spread with filling. For a lemon filling (delicious) take one grated sour apple, one cupful sugar, grated peel each cinnamon, one of nutmeg. Flavor with lemon. Bake in a moderate oven nearly one hour.

Black Cake.—One pound flour, one of butter, two and a half each of raisins and currants, one and a half of citron, one of dark brown sugar, half pint of molasses, nine eggs, two tablespoonfuls each of cinnamon, mace and cloves, one wineglassful each of wine and brandy, four oranges and four lemons. Brown half the flour. Mix all the fruit together and put into one cake the last thing. Pour the wine and brandy over the spices before adding. Bake two hours and leave in pans till cold. This is a famous old Hartford (Conn.) recipe.

Snow Pudding.—One good third boxful gelatine (Plymouth Rock preferred) dissolved in a little cold water, one cupful sugar, juice of one lemon. Strain and set away to cool. When nearly stiff add whites of two eggs beaten to a froth. Beat all well together and put in earthen mold to cool. Take yolks of three eggs and white of one, beat and add one pint milk. Make a soft custard and flavor with vanilla. Turn the jelly into a glass dish and pour the custard round it. This is better made the day before using.

Tapioea Cream.—Soak two heaping spoonful tapioea over night. Scald one pint sweet milk and add tapioea, stirring all the time. Add yolks of two eggs, well beaten, with half cupful sugar. Cook a few minutes, stirring well. Then add whites of two eggs beaten to a froth. Flavor to taste.

Russian Cream.—Half boxful gelatine, cover with water and let stand fifteen minutes. One quart milk, four eggs one cupful sugar. Beat yolks of eggs and add gelatine and sugar, with some milk. Remainder of milk should be boiling when this is stirred in. Let the custard cook as long as possible without curdling. When cool stir in whites of eggs beaten to stiff froth. Flavor with vanilla. This can be made the day before using.

Chocolate Cream.—One quart milk, one pint cream whipped light, half boxful gelatine soaked in one cupful of the milk, two eggs—yolks and whites beaten separately, one cupful powdered sugar, four tablespoonfuls grated chocolate, vanilla to taste. Scald milk and stir into it while still in saucepan the soaked gelatine and sugar. Heat up once, and when gelatine is quite dissolved, strain. Wet up chocolate with cold water before putting into hot milk. Stir thoroughly and return to saucepan, and when smoking hot add it gradually to the beaten yolks. Set back on fire and boil very gently five minutes—not longer. Turn into a broad pan or dish to cool. Whip when it begins to cool, gradually and thoroughly with the beaten whites. Lastly, beat in the whipped cream.

Lemon Whip.—To one pint cream add half pint cherry wine, juice of two lemons, rind of one shaved off, a little less than half pound sugar. Mix well all but cream; then add latter and beat 20 minutes with wire beater. Serve in glass cups.

Graham Pudding.—One half cupful of molasses, one-fourth cupful melted butter, one half cupful sweet milk, one egg, one even teaspoonful soda, one-half cupful raisins, same of currants, a little cinamon, cloves and nutmeg. Steam two and one half hours. Sauce: two cupfuls sugar, one of butter, one egg. Stir until very light. Set over water to melt.

Agitation in the world of homoeopathic medicines has been in very sad process, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinion and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreements by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and languor 'Quinine Wine,'—and which, when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant to the general fertility of the system. Quinine Wine and its improvement, has, from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly successful remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and life-giving stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrup & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skillful observation and scientific opinion has pointed out in the less perfect preparation of the past. All druggists sell it.

It is reported that the Quebec Government is about to abolish the Council of Public Instruction and have a regular Minister of Education.

Fagged Out.—None but those who have become fagged out, know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferer. They feel as though there is nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parson's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring vigor and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the potent articles entering into the composition of Parson's Pills.

Rheumatism & Dyspepsia Cured

571 ST. PATRICK ST., OTTAWA, JULY 31, 1896. To the Phenoline Medicine Co., Ltd., Ottawa, Ont.

Gentleman, In the advice of a friend I tried one bottle of your famous rheumatic remedy, Phenoline, and to my surprise it cured me of rheumatism, from which I have suffered for many years.

It also cured me of dyspepsia, from which I was suffering at the time, so that I feel now like a new man.

I have tried several remedies for rheumatism, some of which did me a certain amount of good, but nothing that I have taken has done so much for me as your Phenoline, and I have much pleasure in recommending it to other sufferers.

Yours very truly, (Signed) JAS. CARROLL, Foreman of Works, Rideau Canal.
