Zephyr wools at Littles, 5 cents. Fred Bales wheeled to Bowmanville on Sunday.

John Thompson and R. A. Little spent Sunday in Bowmanville.

J. S. Beaton has sold his residence to Mr. Wicks of Whitby and moved into the house on Albert street formerly occupied by T. M. Luke.

W. J. Haycraft, of Agincourt, has leased the well known Guy farm of 200 acres and will move thereon the coming winter.

Mr. George Butt is in a very critical condition. He has had a slight hemorrhage and all that medical skill can suggest is being done.

On Halloween the boys started to move the postoffice to the new stand. They commenced with the steps which they loosened and were carrying off when some body appears to have happened along, and this frightened them off.

Mr. Clas Law, son-in-law of Mr. Geo. Hyland, has gone to England with the 3 lb nugget found at Lake Teslin, and will form a syndicate there to work the mine.

Evidently some people in Oshawa are fully convinced that the postoffice is to be removed to the new Boshery block, for A. R. Fawcett has advertised his store as being "Next Door East of the New Post Office."

Notwithstanding the wet weather on Tuesday evening the Royal Templar Rally was a success. The hall was nicely decorated with bunting, flags and flowers.

The result was that a committee composed of Messrs A. H. Watt, F. L. Fowke, E. Morton, Wm. Cox, F. Manuel and J. H. R. Luke to get the cost of equipping a parlor gymnasium, etc., to report to the next meeting.

A scheme of advertising, heretofore unheard of in Oshawa, has been introduced this week. A company in Toronto issue coupons to the merchant in each line of business in the town, and blank books to residents.

The public meeting at the town hall last Friday night to consider the advisability of organizing a Y. M. C. A. here was not so largely attended as the object aimed at merited.

The finance committee put through a report ordering payments amounting to $1887.67. Some members objected to the purchase of the new road roller, the price of which is included in the above sum, but it passed.

The streets committee were authorized to move several of the electric lights to more desirable locations with as little expense as possible. Deputy Tamblin introduced and carried through a bylaw rendering it necessary to have a permit before buildings can be moved along the street, and compelling those who have permits to protect the public against accidents.

Mr. J. S. Murray writes a letter in last week's Reformer from the reading of which we infer that he is annoyed at both the CHRONICLE and Vindicator. He is mad at the CHRONICLE for not publishing something that he wants to write and is mad at the Vindicator for not publishing something he wants to write.

Now that the music hall has been completed, we should expect a number of good entertainments. "Side Track" is to be put on on Tuesday evening next.

Mrs. Rev. A. B. McDill is reported to be at the point of death as we go to press. She has expressed a desire to see Rev. N. A. McDiamid, of Whitby.

The general agent of the Sun Loan and Savings Company was in town this week appointing officers for this district. A. R. McLean was appointed general agent of the Oshawa district, and R. A. J. Little secretary.

The Oshawa district is to reach from Whitby to near Port Hope. This is a fast growing company, and we predict a good business for them here.

Crystal Wedding. On Monday evening 1st a pleasing event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Houlden, it being the 15th anniversary of their wedding day.

Near relatives took advantage of the occasion and gave them a genuine surprise by taking possession of the bride and groom. They were made the recipients of a handsome silver crystal enameled berry dish and pickle cruet.

Presentations by Miss Lillie Linton accompanied by the following address, read by Miss Allie Huggins. Mr. and Mrs. Houlden—We, a few of your many friends have gathered here this evening to celebrate your crystal wedding, it being the fifteenth anniversary of your wedding day.

We wish you to accept this berry dish and pickle cruet as a token of the love and esteem in which we hold you dear. Hoping you will not value these things in their intrinsic worth but as an earnest esteem of our high regard for you, and as your lives in the past have been happy ones may your future pathway be as bright, and filled with the sunlight of Gods holy love.

Signed on behalf of your many friends, Mr. Houlden made a feeling and suitable reply, after which the company partook of a sumptuous repast prepared by the ladies. After spending a most enjoyable time the company dispersed wishing the happy couple many returns of the day.

A Sad Death. It is our painful duty to chronicle the death of Robt. B. Lovelock, in the Western Bank, which occurred at the General Hospital, Toronto, early on Sunday morning last. The deceased was threatened with typhoid fever ten days previously, and the advice of friends and medical advisers was neglected in preference to the hospital, went thither accompanied by Mr. Babbitt, who made every arrangement for his care and treatment.

Mr. J. P. Owens was in daily receipt of advice either by card or telephone which was of the most assuring nature. On Friday he had a slight hemorrhage, but rallied for a time, although showing signs of great exhaustion. On Saturday morning he was again seized with hemorrhage, which occurred every hour until six o'clock, when death put an end to his sufferings.

The news of his sudden death was a terrible shock to his friends in town with whom he was a great favorite. His companions in the bank undertook the charge of his remains which were conveyed to Newcastle, his former home, on Monday morning. His widowed mother and brother-in-law, Rev. J. Batson, residing at Coehill in Hastings County, were present at the funeral which took place from the residence of James Lovelock, uncle of the deceased. The pall bearers from Oshawa were, J. P. Owens, Charles R. Bales, W. H. Gregory, from Newcastle, W. A. Walden, John Pool and W. J. Bryans.

The services were of the most impressive kind, conducted by Rev. Mr. Taylor. The interment took place at Bowmanville, the remains being followed by a large number of friends. Those who went from Oshawa to do respect to one so much esteemed were—Messrs G. Beck, F. A. Guy, E. J. Guy, R. C. Babbitt, G. Brathwaite, H. Gregory, Chas. R. Bales, Chas. W. Owens, G. B. Dingle, Bert Symmons, J. P. Owens, H. Butler, Chas. Thomas, T. M. Kinsman, Fred Hare, Fred Bales, W. A. Hare, Jas. Provan, F. A. Guy, W. Cowan, Dr. Jas. Brown, Bert Wood, Fred Trewin, S. Martin, Mrs. Bosbury, Miss Harris, Mrs. Isaac Thomas, Mrs. McIntyre, and the Misses Leak. The staff of the Western Bank attended in a body and a beautiful pillow suitably inscribed. The Canadian Order of Foresters, of which the deceased was a member, were duly represented and sent a wreath of flowers. Mrs. Bosbury and other friends sent floral offerings. Roberts career was of the most promising kind, enjoying the confidence in a large measure of Mr. McMillan, who with the staff of the bank deplore his loss. He had resided here about five years, entering the bank as junior, and it is safe to say that no young man in town was more deeply loved than Bob, as he was familiarly called by his friends. Rev. Mr. Wilson made fitting references to the worth of the deceased on Sunday evening which deeply touched the whole congregation. Thus was laid away to rest with tender loving hands and tears of those gathered about the grave one who in life bore the impress on his face of a noble, manly character, and one whose memory will long remain fresh in the hearts of those who loved and respected him.—Vindicator.
