A few from here attended the Conservative convention a few days since. All who had the privilege of listening to Mr Whitney, the leader of the Ontario opposision, credit him with being an exceptionally good speaker. Mr Char Calder, one of the county council representatives, was chosen as the standard bearer to represent the interests of the Conservatives in South Ontario. Mr Calder is a man with a evel head, and no mean share of ability is admitted by both Grit and Tory, but of course he s in the field for the sake of opposition, at east this is our opinion, as Mr Drvden, minister of agriculture, with his vast experience and well known ability, is not in any liklihood that we can forsee, going to be displaced by an inexperienced politician. Of course Mr Caldei is a man no constituency would be ashamed to send to Toronto to represent its interests We have so idea our views on those matters will upset either candidate; but we predict an easy walk over for Mr Dryden,

The temperance workers are working hard for the promotion of this cause. So also are the antis. Now this matter strikes us something like this: Is it not a battle of right or wrong? If it is a good thing to say to a few men in a cownship it is a legitimate business to sell liquor and you pay us so much money we will protect you in that business? Why allow the privilege to only a few, why not if it is a justifiable busi ness in the eyes of the law grant others the bors? It strikes us forcibly no sane man, be he hotelkeeper or otherwise, can make a statemen any way improve society, but on the contrary has a rapid tendency to destroy morality, to can readily understand how the men engaged in this nefarious business can champion their cause It is the old proverb, "The love of money is the that they will participate in a business that cannot exist for one year without sacrificing our young men as well as old ones to a drunkards grave as well as a drunkards damnation.
