Trading Horses. Frank M. Harvey of East Toronto Village was arrested yesterday afternoon on a war rant charging him with stealing a horse, the months in arrears he has exemption to the complainant being Mr. Daniel Goldstin, Queen street west. Harvey was afterwards let out on bail for a small amount. It appears that Goldstein and Harvey some time ago traded horses, but Harvey being very much dissatisfied with his deal drove into the city and seeing the horse be formerly owned hitched to Goldsteins waggon and standing alone on the street he traded back on his own account.
