

The Chronicle.

VOL. XLJ.

WHITBY, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1897.

NO. 53

Just Received
1 BARREL OF
PURE NORWEGIAN
Cod Liver Oil.
 50c. per pint.

This oil is prepared with great care and may be relied upon by physicians and others to be of the best quality, free from strong, unpleasant odor which accompany inferior qualities of oil.

A. H. ALLIN,
 CHEMIST & DRUGGIST,
 WHITBY, ONTARIO.

WINDMILLS
 AND WIRE FENCE.

Geo. Allin
 Sells the Genuine AER-MOTOR, of Chicago, and the Ketsleman Wire Fence
 Intending purchasers should examine this mill before placing their order. Do not let an agent put an imitation on you when you can get the genuine article, thoroughly galvanized, and warranted, for less money. More of these mills sold in Canada to-day than any other make. The Aeromotor Co. claim they sell one half the number of windmill outfits sold in the world, at the present time.
 All styles of Wood and Iron Pumps for sale.
 Any information regarding these outfits will be freely given by writing to
GEO. ALLIN,
 Feb. 7, 1897-6mo. WHITBY.

WESTERN BANK OF CANADA,
Whitby, Ont.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.
 John Cowan, Esq., President; Reuben S. Hamlin, Esq., Vice-Pres.; W. F. Cowan, Esq., W. F. Allen, Esq., J. A. Gibson, Esq., Robt. McIntosh, M. D., Thos. Patterson, Esq., T. H. McMillan, Cashier.

General Banking Business Transacted.
 Drafts issued, payable in all parts of Canada, United States, and on London, England, payable in all parts of Europe. 3 1/2 per cent. allowed on Savings Bank Deposits and credited half yearly.

Special attention to collection of Farmers' sale notes.
E. D. WARREN,
 Manager of Whitby Branch.

Warning.
 This is to warn all parties against giving credit to any person on my account after this date, as I shall not settle any accounts contracted after this date as I shall not settle any accounts contracted after this notice.
H. W. LIDDLE, Brooklin P. O.
 Nov. 20th. 1897.-sin.

FIRST CLASS
FARM TO RENT OR SELL.

Lot 24, 6th con of West Whitby, in the village of Brooklin, comprising 10 acres known as the Bickle Homestead. On the premises is a good house and outbuildings, good garden and one acre of good orchard. Possession for plowing given at once, and possession of whole farm by Nov. 1, 1897. For further particulars apply to
W. J. HICKLE,
 55 Front St East, Toronto, or to JOHN VIFOND, Brooklin, Ont.
 Brooklin, Sept. 15, 97.-4.

BUTTER, EGGS & POULTRY
OUR SPECIALTIES.
 Highest Prices Obtained.
 Returns Promptly Made.
 References, our shippers everywhere. Correspondence Invited.
PARK, BLACKWELL & CO. Limited,
 44-12th. TORONTO.

$7,800 GIVEN AWAY
 To persons who make the greatest number of words out of the phrase, "Patent Attorney Wedd-burn." For particulars address the National Recorder, Washington, D. C.

LOCAL NEWS LETTERS.

CORONELLE CORRESPONDENCE.
—o—
Manchester
 Miss Mitchell of Toronto is visiting here with Mrs. Lillie Munroe.
 Messrs Wm and Jos Munroe were in Toronto on business last week.
 Mr. Thos Graham spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Belleville and Napawa.
 Miss Mary Parkin of Toronto spent Thursday of last week here with her parents.
 Miss Maud Spence returned home last week after having spent a few weeks visiting in Toronto.
 The sale of standing timber on the estate of the late John Graham has been withdrawn for the present.
 Mr and Mrs E C Howson of Keene, but former residents of this place, were renewing acquaintances here last week.
 Miss Nellie Spence, B. A., Toronto, and Miss Frankie Spence, B. A., Peterboro, spent Thanksgiving here with their parents.
 Mr Ben Holtby of Huron Co. is visiting here with his father Mr John Holtby, Wellington Co., and will locate there soon. We wish him every success.
 The entertainment given here last Thursday evening by Mr. W. T. Hodge was poorly attended on account of the very unfavorable weather. In consequence thereof a full programme was not given. Those present speak highly of the show. If Mr Hodge should come here again next year, we predict a full house.
 Manchester is to have a Christmas fair this year and the date appointed is Wednesday, Dec. 22nd. Good prizes are offered and it is hoped there may be a large exhibit. In the past only ordinary prizes were offered in the fowl and butter classes and the article became property of the exhibitor. Good prizes are given and the exhibitor retains the thing shown. Special arrangements are being made to have good buyers present if the exhibitors wish to sell and Mr Jos Baird, auctioneer, will sell free of charge. The officers elected for the year are: Pres, Jos Baird; Treas., D. F. Hagerman; Secy, P. C. Graham; Directors, Messrs G. Keeler, M. C. Tooley, W. Spence, J. Pearson, D. Christie, D. J. McLean, W. Thompson, R. M. Holtby, G. Lyle, W. Stubbs and P. Christie.

Mr G W Arnold has rented the wood shop west of Whitby, where the late Mr Coakwell worked. He has not been able to get a house near the shop, so has rented one in Whitby and intends moving there with his family at once.
 Rev Norman H Russel, a missionary lately back from India on furlough, will give an address on the country and the work the missionaries are engaged in, in the Presbyterian church on the evening of Tuesday, Dec 14th. A number of lime light views will be shown, to illustrate the address.
 Mrs Geo Macdonald died on the 19th inst. She had been in poor health for several years, but the news of her decease came with suddenness to all her friends and acquaintances, as it was not known that she was worse than usual till her death was announced. She had been a resident of Brooklin for nearly fifty years, and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew her.
 (Balance crowded out.)
W. A. H.

Business Directory.
BRALL, S.—Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Residence opposite Town Hall, Brooklin.
W. A. McNEELY, D. V. S.—Graduate of the Ontario Veterinary College, Toronto; Honorary member of the Ontario Medical Society. Treats all diseases of the domesticated animals by the most approved method. Also particular attention to surgical operations and dentistry. Day or night calls promptly attended to. Office and residence Brooklin Ontario.

We Have

BLANKETS, in white and grey, wool or cotton, at prices ranging from 75c to $4 per pair.
Saskatchewan Buffalo Robes, Goat Robes, Horse Blankets.
OVERCOATS, ULSTERS, SUITS, PANTS ready-made or to order. Large stock to select from, and prices that are right.
BOOTS AND RUBBERS, all first-class goods from reliable makers. Sizes complete in all lines.
5 Per Cent Discount For Cash.
GROCERY DEPT.—New Raising, Currants, Peas, etc. Figs, 5c, lb. Cod-fish, 5c, lb. 3 lbs Mixed Biscuits 25c. Standard Granulated Sugar, 21 lbs for $1 Cash. Bright Yellow Sugar, 25 lbs for $1 Cash. Our Own Special Baking Powder for 15c per lb.

HIGHEST PRICES FOR BUTTER AND EGGS.
Holiday Bros.,
Brooklin.

Myrtle Station
 Mr S E Briggs, of Steel Briggs & Company, Toronto, was at his mothers Thanksgiving day, Doctor F. A. Dales and family of this place spent Friday of last at Mrs Dales parents at Sanford.

Mr Richard Blight lost quite a valuable young working horse after a short illness the early part of last week.
 Mrs Alfred Maybee from Cathington was visiting friends here and at Prospect on Saturday and Sunday.
 Mr and Mrs. C. B. Pike from Oshawa, after spending a few days here, returned home on Monday of this week.
 Miss Eliza Moore from Port Hope spent Thanksgiving day here with her sister Mrs. Chas. Mosher and husband.
 Mrs M McTaggart returned home on Monday of this week after spending 4 days with her daughter, Mrs Arthur Clark near Oakville.

Our little friend, George Chisholm from Agincourt, put in two or three days in the neighborhood here last week visiting his former playmates.
 Mr Manly Briggs returned home on Friday of last week from Uxbridge, where she has been staying with her daughter since the death of Mr. Forsyth.
 Mr Richard Bligh shipped a car load of pigs and lambs to Toronto on Tuesday of last week as the C. P. R. and Mr. McIntyre shipped a car load of pigs at the same time and to the same city market.

TOWN LINE
 Miss Lizzie Coakwell, visited over Sunday, in Brooklin.
 Miss Edith Kempthorn, Toronto, spent Thanksgiving day, at home.
 Masters Archie and Harry Coakwell spent a few days of last week, at Brooklin.
 Mrs R C Carruthers attended the funeral of the late Robert Everson, of Harmony, on Tuesday.
 Miss Annie Stark, of Balsam, intends spending a few months with her sister, Miss Mamie Stark.
 Mrs Anderson, Toronto, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr and Mrs Walter McGregor.
 Mrs D W Carruthers who has been visiting at her fathers for a few weeks, arrived home on Thursday, of last week.

POST PERRY
 Anthony Benson, of Rochester, is in town receiving his fishship.
 Mr and Mrs Briggs left on Tuesday for their new home, near Colborne.
 On Wednesday, Nov 24, certificates were given to pupils in the town school.
 The Wild West had another rehearsal on Thanksgiving, at the Whitney house.
 Previous to the last freezing, the water had risen ten to twelve inches in the lake from the frequent rains.
 Miss Lizzie Foss is a delegate from Post Perry Division, to the Grand Division, of the Sons of Temperance, now in session in Toronto this week.
 Thanksgiving day was duly observed here in the social way. Many visitors came in to town to visit friends and several left town to enjoy a day with friends at a distance.
 The Communion on Thursday night, of last week, was a success financially and in the good attendance. The programme was excellent and the evening entertainment was enjoyed by every one who attended.

Inspector Ferguson laid an information last Friday against the St Charles hotel for selling liquor to minors. Result: $10 fine and costs. What is biting Mr Sebert more than the fine is the fact that he cannot find out who laid the information. Keep cool neighbor Sebert.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

BANQUET TUESDAY EVENING.
 At nine o'clock p m the spacious dining hall of the Royal was thrown open and soon became filled to overflowing. Accommodation had been provided for about 200 guests but that was not sufficient to meet the demand. Never before had the members of our society been so besieged for tickets of admission. Mine host, Schiller had spared no pains to make his part of the entertainment worthy the occasion. His reputation as a caterer must have travelled far and wide as nearly every portion of the county was represented. The hand of the decorator had been at work and the hall presented a most imposing appearance. The extensive tables fairly groaned beneath their load of delicacies and the enticing menu filled all with delightful anticipations. A host of obliging waiters stood ready to minister to the slightest wish of the most humble of the large gathering. Some slight delay was occasioned after the guests had entered the banquet hall, by the addition of side tables to accommodate the overflow.
 At 10 p m however, everything was declared in readiness and in a neat speech from his position at the head of the central table called the gathering to order and invited the Rev Mr McAlpine to ask a blessing. On the right of the president sat: Chief Lochlan, S. O. S., Mr. McAlpine, Rev. Mr. Long, and on his left Leonard Burnett, M. P., Rev. Mr. McAlpine and Mayor Rutledge. The vice chair was occupied by Vice-president George Cormack who was supported by Fred Jones, S. O. E., Rev. Mr. Long, and Past President McKay. Prominent among those outside the town were County Commissioner A Johnston, J. L. Smith, Dr Dewar, Pickering; Dr Moore, Brooklin; Robt Miller, Brougham; Geo McInty, Columbus; McLaughlin Bros, John Dewar, J. Lechman and T. Galloway, Oshawa; Leonard Burnett, M. P. Greenbush; Chas Calder, Brooklin; T. Manderson, Myrtle.
 It was fully 11.30 before the last guest had made his napkin and acknowledged his inability to sweep the menu card. President Ross now arose and in a neat speech proposed the toast that Scotchmen as well as all other true Britons delight to honor—"The Queen"—the company rising and singing the national anthem. The various toasts on the list, now followed in quick succession and were duly honored by song or speech.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

Jessop Furniture Co.
W. J. NOTT, MANAGER.
Port Perry, Ont.

Balsam and Mount Zion
 Miss Jennie Bell, of Andley, spent Sunday at Mr Bicketts.
 Mr J I Balsam wears a pleasant smile these days. Its a boy.
 Mr J B Distas spent a few days at Mr J E Distas, last week.
 The Evansville flour mill is shut down while undergoing some repairs.
 The pupils of Balsam school had a literary contest on Wednesday afternoon. Fred Disney and Janet Balsam acted as captains. The program consisted of readings, recitations, songs, choruses, etc. Miss Janet Balsams side won by seven points. The pupils are now preparing for a clothing entertainment to be given on the afternoon of Tuesday, Dec 21st, to which all are invited who care to attend. We hope to see the section well represented at the school house that day.
Whitby Markets
 Flour, Manitoba, per cw..... $1.30
 Flour, mixed wheat..... $1.20
 Wheat, fall, old..... $1.20
 " spring..... $1.20
 " June..... $1.20
 Rye..... $1.20
 Oats..... $1.20
 Beans..... $1.20
 Peas, Manitoba..... $1.20
 " Canadian..... $1.20
 " Minnesota..... $1.20
 " Michigan..... $1.20
 Butter, per lb..... $1.20
 Eggs, per doz..... $1.20
 Hens..... $1.20
 Ducks..... $1.20
 Chickens, per doz..... $1.20
 Corn, per bushel..... $1.20
 Potatoes, per bushel..... $1.20
 Apples, per bushel..... $1.20
 Peaches, per bushel..... $1.20
 Plums, per bushel..... $1.20
 Cherries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Currants, per bushel..... $1.20
 Raspberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Strawberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Blackberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Huckleberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Gooseberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Elderberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Red berries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Blueberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Raspberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Strawberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Blackberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Huckleberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Gooseberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Elderberries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Red berries, per bushel..... $1.20
 Blueberries, per bushel..... $1.20

St. Andrews Sermon.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

St. Andrews Sermon.
 In St Andrews church on Sunday afternoon Rev Dr McDiarmid preached the annual sermon of the St Andrews society. It was a most inspiring, patriotic sermon from the text James 1: 27. True religion undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their fatherland, and to keep himself unspotted from the world. Two things are strongly characteristic of all men: Conception of God is the highest ideal of which the mind is capable, while the thought that would cause one to doubt the utility of worshipping God is one arising from an evil mind. Experience has shown that in the hours of death and judgment atheism will bend its knee in supplication. Besides the two strong characteristics of man already mentioned there is another almost equally strong—love of country. No person has more of this patriotism than the Scotch race. There is no need of treating upon this trait of the Scotchman's character, nor to use flattery in eulogising him. The subject for today is the noble and beneficent aspect of the matter. Those who really belong to the only person who really belongs to the brotherhood of man. If a man declare his love for God but refuse to love his brother he shall have no place in Gods salvation. What is a mans love his fellow man? It is yours to scatter a large portion of the ample means given you to the needy ones with whom you come in contact, and this the Scotch never fail to do. I never yet saw a Scotch beggar," said the speaker. "Recently a man came to me and said, 'If you'll give me some Oim a mhidhoid.' "Your speech betrays you, sir," said I, "You are no methodist." We must have love as well as benevolence. We must take delight in the success of others. We must look upon their misfortunes with a pitying soul. Next we must have character. We must keep ourselves unspotted before the world. A man of character looks the world in the face in the day of trial. Purity is the greatest force in building character. Purity makes the gods mans face to shine. Ye are to be imitators of God. Walk in his footsteps and do his holy will. Only as we are pure can we appear before God. Our purpose is to follow Christ. He is our leader. He has gone before to fight our battles. His call is as was the call of Bruce at Bannockburn. Whenever you hear the bugle call Christ is there. Rev. Dr McDiarmid embellished his sermon with stirring quotations from Scottish poetry.

In moulding hearts to justice and good will,

In moulding hearts to justice and good will,
 Fanning with heavenly breath each pure desire,
 Filling the soul with patriotic fire.
 And well has Scotland drunk his spirit true,
 As drinks the heather-bells the mist of morn,
 Or as the blue-bells drink the mountain dew,
 Or as the thistle of the sunlight 'mid the summer's glow,
 Or as the snow-drop drinks the melting snow.
 And, drinking thus from the same fount of truth
 As drank St Andrew, Scotland has attained
 To noble manhood, and her sons forsooth
 And daughters too, high status long have gained.
 For mental grip, and sense of moral right,
 And love of native land, and gospel light.
 And love of Queen, and love of British rule,
 And through that rule to give to other lands
 True lessons learned in Wisdom's highest school,
 Oh how the nations joined by friendship's bands
 May realize their common Brotherhood,
 As offspring of one Father—God—the world.
 Thus Scotchmen and their offspring wide world have made their mark in every sphere of life,
 The kiln, and bag-pipes, and the broad claymore
 Are emblems of their ardour in the strife,
 Of hardihood, and heroism bold,
 Undaunted courage—better wealth than gold.
 We need not speak of deeds of long ago,
 Nor even stir the shades of Waterloo,
 Nor wake the echoes where the waters flow
 Down the long Nile to outlet in the blue:
 Let the Sphinx watch where shades of heroes
 sleep;
 The day now dawns o'er Egypt's darkness deep.
 Look back as where proud Dargai's height,
 Crowned with the jeering val of the hills,
 Shouts loud defiance, and with show of might Hurts down the well-aimed shot that wounds and kills.
 Ah, listen now—hear brave Mathias speak—
 The Gordon Highlanders shall take the peak."
 And well they took it, well the height was won;
 Kitties and pipers well deserve their fame;
 But why recite their deeds of valor done
 Which gilt with glory many a soldiers name?
 Not Scots alone have right to claim the glory.
 Not Scots alone are heroes in the story.
 And let us ne'er forget the heroes grand,
 Who, not for fame, but at the Master's word
 Have don't their armor, at the sword in hand
 And bravely fought the battles of the Lord.
 He serves his country well who serves the Right.
 And, like St Andrew, brings men to the light.

THE BARD.
 The Day and a' who Honor it. Responded to by Principal Waugh.
 Song—"The Auld Scot Sangs." Mr Gallo way.
 The Haggis was now brought in on the platter held by four sturdy Scotchmen, Messrs Galbraith, High Ross, Joe Burns and John Ball. Down Piper Sutherland playing "The Cock of the North."
 Canada.—Responded to by Messrs D Ormiston and G Y Smith.
 Song—"The Maple Leaf Forever." W Richardson.
 Scotland.—Responded to by Mr J B Dow. Song—"Scotland Yet." Joe Burns.
 The Mayor and Corporation. Responded to by Mayor Rutledge and Warden King.
 Agriculture, Commerce, Education.—Responded to by Messrs J D Howden, Geo A Ross, L T Barclay, Dr McCall, J A Brown.
 Song—"The Sea Rig." Mr Galloway.
 Encouraged—"Mary of Argyll."
 Whiggelories.—T A McCall, in full Highland costume.
 Sister Societies.—Responded to by Mr E R Blow.
 The Ladies.—Responded to by Mr Chas Calder and Mr John Stanton.
 Our Host and Hostess.—Responded to by Mr Schiller.
 Auld Lang Syne. 2.30 a.m.
 The phenomenal success of the banquet is owing to the indefatigable efforts of the following committees directed by their zealous chairman, J B Dow, viz: A. M. Ross, pres; Geo Cormack, vice; A D Fraser, treas; Jno T Mathison, sec; J B Dow, Jno Burns, Geo A Ross, C F Stewart, E J Johnston, D Wilson, D McKay, Hugh M Ross.

Whitby Town Locals.
TAYLOR.—At Whitby, on Wednesday, Nov. 24th, 1897. Daniel Taylor, aged 35 years.
Collectors Notice.
 Tax collector will be at Mr Henry's, merchant tailor on Wednesday of each week to receive taxes to save the trouble of coming down to my place. Take notice and save trouble. JAMES FRINGLE, collector.—in.
The Officers of the R T of T.
 S. C. Ross Johnston; P. C., Jas. Fagan; V. C., Miss Barnett; Chap., Miss Patterson; Rec. Secy., Harold Jeffery; Fin. Sec., Mrs. Ross Johnston; Treas., E. R. Blow; Herald, Miss B. Campbell; Garter, John Fallon; W. W. B. Barclay.
New Stamp.
 The post office department has issued a complete new set of postage stamps, simple, yet very pretty in design. They have the picture of the Queen in the centre, surrounded by scroll work, and the denomination of the stamp. The one cent stamp is green, the three cent stamp in red and the five cent and the half cent stamps are grey.
Great music offer.
 Send us the names and addresses of three or more performers on the piano or organ to get together with ten cents in silver and we will mail you ten pieces full sheet music, consisting of popular songs, waltzes, marches, etc. arranged for the piano and organ. Address: FORTUNE Music Co., Indianapolis, Ind. 21-6.

The Election in Centre Toronto.
 In the Centre Toronto election for the Dominion parliament on Tuesday, Bertram the liberal, was elected over Howland the conservative candidate by 250 majority. The election was caused by the resignation of Wm Leach, Q. C., who defeated Cockburn in the general election of 1895, by 260 majority.